GREATEST SPEECH OF GOFF'S CAREER

HORSE RECOVERED.

Jack Naigh, who lives at Sycamore Dale, yesterday recovered a horse which was stolen from him last Saturday. He found the horse in the possession of a negro, who gave him up to the right owner. The negro said he bought the horse and it is thought that he can give information that will lead to the arrest of the thieves.

JUDGE MASON APPEALS FOR HEARNE

Judge John W. Mason, of Fairmont, than whom few men stand higher in the estimation of the people of West Virginia, an old soldier, an eminent lawyer, an honorable citizen; the life long advocate of liberal and progressive measures, representing the highest type of West Virginia manhood, says:

"I have only one short message to the voters of the First Congressional District. The campaign to be decided Tuesday is between a Democrat and a Republican. If Julian G. Hearne is not elected to Congress, M. M. Neely will be.

"Any believer in the principle of protection, any believer in the principles of the Republican party, who fails to vote for J. G. Hearne by that much aids in the election of a Democrat. I cannot see how any man who professes belief in the protective tariff, in sound money, and in the great popular legislative measures that have been followed by the Republican party, can fail, on next Tuesday, to vote for Mr. Hearne. In so far as I have any influence whatever, I want to appeal to all my friends and fellow citizens in his behalf. The reports I have received from all over the district are encouraging and I have the utmost confidence that he will be elected."

FEDERAL TROOPS DESERT GENERAL

And Another Federal General is Caught in a Trap and Executed.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 10.—The failure of General Aubert to get to the city of Torreon in time to relieve it, a mission upon which he set out nearly a month ago with a large force of federal troops, is explained by the fact that the greater part of his 2,000 men deserted him before he had completed half of his journey. He had reached Madero, twenty-five miles east of Torreon, when news of the evacuation of the city reached him. As soon as the van guard of the retreating federal troops came into view, General Aubert's men fled with all their arms and ammunition.

The report that General Aubert had gone over to the rebels was not sustained. He is said today to be at Hipolito, fifty miles west of Saltillo, to which point he retreated with the men who evacuated Torreon under Generals Bravo, Munguia and Escudero.

General Alvarez, who started with 1,000 men and a number of pieces of light artillery to retake the city of Durango from the rebels and whose defeat caused the evacuation of Torreon, fell into an ambush at Laloma, thirty miles to the southwest of Torreon. Relying upon information that the rebels had left the vicinity, he moved forward. Suddenly he found both advance and his retreat cut off in a canyon by heavy forces of rebels, who poured in a sharp fire from both sides. General Alvarez made a stout resistance and managed to get word back to Torreon, asking for reinforcements. General Alvarez, who was regarded as one of the bravest officers in the federal army, was captured with his staff and all are said to have been executed on the spot by the rebels.

REPUBLICAN RALLIES

SPLENDID SUCCESSES

Convincing Speeches Made by Congressmen Anderson and Sutherland.

Two splendid Republican meetings were held in the county last night. One was at Wallace and the other at Lumberport. One will be held at Shinnston tonight and another at Wyatt.

The Wallace meeting was held in the Wallace hall, which was filled with enthusiastic voters who listened intently to the speeches made and accorded the speakers a hearty reception. F. E. Robinson called the meeting to order and the principal speaker of the occasion was Congressman Howard Sutherland, of Elkins. He especially pointed out the discrimination made against West Virginia in the revision of the tariff rates as appear in the Underwood-Simmons law recently enacted by the Democrats in Congress. He pointed out many bad features of the currency bill now pending which is so objectionable to all who know any thing about banking. Roy E. Parrish, member of the legislature, made a brief address in which he reviewed the record of Senator Julian G. Hearne in the legislature. Mr. Parrish being a member of the legislature himself was in position to give an accurate account of the splendid service rendered the people by Senator Hearne.

The Wallace band furnished excellent music for the Wallace meeting.

Lumberport voters were especially treated to one of the best speeches they ever heard. Congressman Sidney Anderson, of Minnesota, an orator of national fame and a debater without superior, addressed them in the opera house with Winter Allen presiding over the meeting. Congressman Anderson went into the tariff, currency and other questions in careful detail and advanced conclusive arguments against the Democratic fallacies of government.

A band also provided music at the Lumberport meeting.

At 8 o'clock this evening Congressman Anderson will address the voters of Shinnston and Congressman Sutherland will speak at Wyatt.

MONONGAHELA COMPANY ABOUT TO SELL HOLDINGS

FREEZING FROST FOR MR. LAUGHLIN

Only Small Crowd Turns Out and Half of It Soon Leaves Court Room.

The Progressive meeting in the court house Thursday night was attended by what might be called a "sparse" crowd, and one which grew "sparser" throughout the speaking, which is shown by the fact that of the 108 persons—not counting the band and the speakers—who were present when the speaking started, only about half were there when it concluded.

The first speaker was G. A. Laughlin, the Progressive candidate for Congress. As is usually the case with some speakers, he came unexpectedly and had no speech prepared. There was a pathetic touch to his speech as he told how "hard" it was for him to leave the Republican party. It was feared by some that the Hon. George would give way to his emotions but he bore up under the ordeal very well for a man of his size.

The second speaker was Dr. Latham, of Grafton, who told the people of the accomplishments of himself and George—Oh! beg pardon, the Honorable George—when they were in the legislature. What bills did they put through? Some might want to know. Well, they did not exactly get them through as they were vetoed by the governor, he said. Of course the governor, Mr. Atkinson, was lined up with the corporations, and was not in accord with Messrs. Latham and Laughlin, who were fighting for the people.

The third and principal speaker of the evening was Congressman Woodruff, of the Tenth Michigan district. He took about two-thirds of his time telling the audience, or rather those that remained, the history of his life. "From a Dentist Office to Congress," his speech might well have been called. He ended up by attacking both the old parties and deploring the fact that the Progressives have no money, which he attributed as the cause of the poor showing of the Bull Moose tribe in the last Maine election.

The weather has been ideal and the day is warm but there was a real frost, a very freezing one, in the court house last night.

HORSE THEFT

Is Charged Against Negro and He is Jailed for Trial.

Accused of stealing a horse from Jackson Nay last Friday night in Traders alley, Alexander Parsons, a negro of Pitcairn, was arrested there and taken to the county jail Friday morning by Special Constable Robert Noon to await a hearing in Justice G. H. Gordon's court.

Nay found the stolen horse Thursday in the possession of Parsons at the Harry B. Coal Company's mine at Pitcairn, where he is employed, and at once swore out a warrant for him. He declares he acquired the animal by trade from another man last Saturday night at Pitcairn.

MORE LOSSES FOR THE PROGRESSIVES

(New York Sun Editorial.)

In the Connecticut town elections this week the same shrinkage of the Progressive vote that has been noted in other parts of the country was recorded. The Republicans showed unmistakable signs of recovery from their slump of last year, while the accession of strength to the Progressive ranks from the Democracy which was predicted after the national election failed to materialize.

This continues, what will the Progressives have to offer the Republicans in 1916, when the time comes for formally swallowing the party? Nothing but Mr. Roosevelt, and the proved fact that Mr. Roosevelt is the backbone, flesh, intellect and soul of the great movement for "social justice."

If the weakness of the Progressive vote were confined to one State or section of the country local causes might plausibly be cited to account for it. But the tale is the same in all parts of the country. The Progressives are everywhere returning to the Republican ranks.

For a party that was laid out for decent burial ten months ago the Republican organization is acting in a most unseemly manner.

WOODMEN TO MEET.

Woodmen, will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the Pythian hall on South Third street and initiate five candidates.

To the Fairmont and Grafton Gas Company of This State.

USE OF PIPE LINE

From Pittsburg to the West Virginia Line is the Main Purpose of Purchase.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 10.—Negotiations have been practically completed for the purchase by the Fairmont and Grafton Gas Company of West Virginia of practically all of the stock of the Monongahela Natural Gas Company, of Pittsburg. The Monongahela company. The purchase will be made concerns and a small number of private consumers and has in no way been a competitor of the Philadelphia company. The purchase will be made for the purpose of securing the use of the Monongahela's pipe line from Pittsburg to the West Virginia line, which has a surplus carrying capacity of 30,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas a day.

The deal involves the issue by the Fairmont and Grafton Gas Company of $1,500,000 of collateral trust bonds, payable in equal installments over a period of ten years. The Monongahela company has a large amount of productive natural gas territory, having over 125,000 acres under lease, principally in Greene county, Pa. It owns 168 natural gas wells and eleven producing oil wells.

The name of the Fairmont and Grafton Gas Company will probably be changed to the Pittsburg and West Virginia Gas Company.
