WESTON

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)
WESTON, Oct. 31.—Misses Eliza Stewart, Beulah Talbot, Nina Sheets and Charles Perkins attended a party at Buckhannon Thursday night.

Mrs. Ida Stevens and Arthur Goe were married Tuesday night at Oakland, Md.
There is local interest here in the report from Roswell N. M., that Jim Lynch, the murderer of Roy Wooster, is now in the penitentiary, having been sentenced for a term of ninety-nine years. Wooster was reared at Alum Ridge, this county, and has many relatives living in this part of the state. He was chief of police in Roswell, and the man, Lynch, who murdered him did the deed while Wooster was attempting to arrest him in his speakeasy.

James A. Radcliff, of Vadis, passed through here yesterday on his way to a hospital at Clarksburg.

Mrs. M. A. Mitchell is visiting relatives at Clarksburg.
Arlie Duncan, a son of Judge J. W.
Duncan, has an attack of appendicitis and will likely be taken to the St.
Mary's hospital at Clarksburg today.
Mr. Duncan is employed at the hospital for the insane.

Mrs. Dally McDermott has received a message from Phillip that her daughter, Miss Pauline, who is a student at Broadus Institute, fell from a board walk and received injuries which will keep her out of school for several days.

Judge W. S. O'Brien, of Buckhannon, was here yesterday on his way to Webster Springs where is today holding a special term of court.

Judge J. C. McWhorter, L. H. Triplett and G. C. Arnold, prominent professional and business men of Buckhannon, were in Weston last night.

A football game will be played here between the Buckhannon and Weston high school teams Saturday.

A very large crowd was present at the funeral of Earnest Hall, the high school boy who died the first of the week. It was conducted by the Rev.
Mr. Beadow, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs.
Steele, the mother of the boy, has been very ill at her home as a result of the shock received when the news was given her.

William Westfall, a prominent farmer and miller at Edmiston, is at St. Mary's hospital at Clarksburg, where he was operated on for inflammation of the bowels.

MISS TAYLOR

is Dead at Her Home at Bridgeport after a Very Long Illness.

Miss Addie Taylor is dead at her home at Bridgeport, after a several weeks' illness. Some time ago Miss Taylor underwent an operation from which she never fully recovered and she was afflicted with dropsy. For several weeks her condition was known to be hopeless and she had been growing worse rapidly for a week. A sister had been at her bedside for the last two weeks and a brother had made several trips to his home on account of her illness. He was there when the end came.

Miss Taylor was past thirty years of age and was a daughter of Mrs.
Nancy Taylor. She is survived by several brothers and sisters, namely, Mrs. Patrick Williams, Harvey Taylor, Floyd Taylor, and Mrs. Hattie Williams, all of whom reside in or near Bridgeport. A brother, E. M.
Taylor, is employed with the Fairmont Building and Loan Company and Miss Martha Taylor is a member of the Second ward school faculty there.

Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the Middletown church and interment will be made in the church cemetery.

"We are destroying the eyes of a large number of school children by the burden of continuous near work to which they are subjected," says Dr. F. Park Lewis, of Buffalo. "Let us have more thinking and fewer books," he declares.
