We Wish All A Merry Christmas

and after that, if you can stand it, a Happy and Prosperous New Year. We say every one and we mean it. We wish all our friends the compliments of the season. This is the season of joy, of contentment, of good feeling toward everybody. It ought to be so particularly in the business world. The days when business rivals went out and stuck each other with "business methods" are passing fast to say the least. Good feeling is coming and at Christmas time it is always here.

If a man, or firm, has kept business faith during the year, if it has been true to the highest standards; if it has made honest goods and sold them at an honest price, it has reason for a Christmas of peace and joy.

Such a record we have striven to make during the year nineteen hundred and thirteen. We submit our record to our customers and business associates. This has been a better year for the Spear Shoe Company than any year before. Honest manufacture and square dealing have made it so. If you are still on the outside, come in. It will pay you. A Merry Christmas to all.

THE THEATERS

If laughter is a panacea for all human ills, then will those who see "Baby Mine" on its first local presentation at the Robinson Grand Thursday afternoon and night be forever immune from bodily and mental troubles. "Baby Mine" is the success of two continents, having not only run for one solid year at Dail's theater, New York, but it is now playing in London to enormous business, although this is its second year in the British metropolis. From the moment the curtain rises on "Baby Mine" the audience is said to laugh, at first quietly, then more loudly, then at last uproariously. As a mirth provoking vehicle, it fulfills its mission in no uncertain manner. It is as sweet as a honeysuckle. It is a bubbling spring of humor, and it is red-hot humor at all times; and if you want to be entertained in a way that will be more pleasing and satisfactory than you have been for many a day, "Baby Mine" will come nearest to what you are looking for.

ly in making this the big feature of his new program to be presented at the Robinson Grand in the near future. A well known writer describes the canal briefly thus: "The whole thing is stupendous, prodigious, overwhelming." And this is exactly the impression imparted most vividly on the mind of every spectator of Mr. Howe's reproduction.

Harry Beaumont, one of the youngest of the Edison players, performs his first "heavy" in "The Witness to the Will," a coming multiple reel. Harry has done many character juvenile parts

How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

All over Clarksburg you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Clarksburg people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townspeople. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if you feel lame, sore and miserable, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty and of color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Clarksburg citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

R. J. Clarkson, 122 Thompson St., Clarksburg, W. Va., says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and quite annoying. I had severe pains in my back. After I stooped over, I had trouble in straightening. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, so I tried them. Before long the pains left and my kidneys became normal. Doan's Kidney Pills are just what they are advertised to be."

but has never before been cast for the villain. One need but have seen some of his recent performances to realize that he gives an excellent interpretation of the part and plays it with force and convincing sincerity.

William Faversham has engaged Mrs. Thomas Wise to enact the nurse in his production of "Romeo and Juliet."

"The Frame Up," a thrilling photoplay in two parts, is being shown today at the Orpheum theater. It depicts certain phases of the increased interest in politics throughout the country and shows how honest methods win out over the machinations of crooked politicians. One of the scenes shows an unusual automobile accident.

Another very popular vaudeville company has been booked for appearance at the Orpheum the remainder of the week. It is William O'Clare and his Shamrock girls in a delightful singing and dancing novelty. There are six persons in the troupe and special scenery and electrical apparatus are carried. There will be two matinee Christmas Day, one at 2:30 and the other at 3:30.

Catherine Countess is in the west in her sixty-seventh consecutive successful week in her playlet, "The Birthday Present."

Jacques Jensen has acted the leading role, in his gifted consort's romantic photo melodrama, "Too Late." Mme. Jensen was the authoress of "The Pendulum of Fate."

Chronic Dyspepsia.
The following unadorned testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornselleville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Gets Right Twist On Rheumatism

Makes Short Work of Cleaning Out Your Entire System—Aches and Pains Go Fast.

In S. S. S. You Get a Twist on Rheumatism That Settles It.

Many a rheumatic sufferer has been to the drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and been handed something claimed to be "just as good." Try to ask for bread and be given a stone is still in practice. If you are troubled with rheumatism, in any form be sure to use S. S. S. and note its wonderful influence.

S. S. S. has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the one end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inflaming atom of poison; it dislodges by irritation all accumulations in the joints, causes acid accretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

And best of all this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. If you have dragged yourself until your stomach is nearly paralyzed, you will be astonished to find that S. S. S. gives no sensation but goes right to work. This is because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and ask for S. S. S.

You may depend upon it that the store that sells you what you ask for is a good place to trade. Write to the Swift Specific Co., 204 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their Book on Rheumatism.
