ALMANAC

For the Year 1913 is Issued by the Gazette Times of Pittsburg.

The Gazette Times 1914 Almanac has just come to hand. As a book of reference on national, state and local matters it is fully up to the standard of The Gazette Times and is replete with interesting information on thousands of vital topics, many of which are constantly coming up for discussion. The Almanac covers the fields of politics, religion, labor and industrial affairs, sports and numerous other matters of interest. It contains a splendid calendar and astronomical section, together with weather records for the territory covering a long period of years. Late and early frosts, floods, extremes of wind and temperatures are all given.

The sporting section of the book is unusually fine and complete. Boxing, horse racing, aviation, athletics, baseball, tennis, golf, automobile records, and many other branches of sport are covered accurately and to date. The individual records of the famous fighters, from the earliest English sporting days, are set forth fully.

The Almanac will appeal to all who value exact, concisely stated facts which are of practical, everyday use.

It is a perfect storehouse of information and knowledge. It is well printed, handsomely bound, and is worth many times its price which is 25 cents a copy; 35 cents when ordered by mail.

THE THEATERS

"You may miss a great many things in the show line in the course of a season, but, as friend to friend, don't miss Howe's new program reproducing how Uncle Sam accomplished that $400,000,000 job down at Panama" is what a dramatic critic of national repute says of the reproduction which Mr. Howe will present at the Robinson Grand theater in the near future.

The film is replete with sensational and wonderful scenes of the most tremendous project ever undertaken by the human race. It is the only reproduction that does justice to the magnitude of the task, and when it is considered that this is the only time Mr.
Howe will present it here, the importance of the engagement cannot be over-estimated.

A picture giving a remarkable insight to Indian life is the Kaleem Monday, multiple-reel production, "Indian Blood." This two-reel feature which is to be released on January 12 is unique in that the leading characters, Mona Darkfeather and Art Ortega are full-blooded Indians. The slaying of an immigrant train by the Indians; the battle between the red men and the soldiers and burial ceremonies of the savages are incidents which will hold the attention of every photoplay "fan" who sees this superb production.

Miss St. Claire and her own company will open an engagement at the Robinson Grand tonight. The opening play will be "Mrs. Temple's Telegram."

There will be matinee performances Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday.

William Courtenay is being featured in "Under Cover."

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" is being used by six stock companies.

Rachel Crothers play, "Ourselves," is to be used for stock purposes.

Sothen and Marlowe are breaking "wisdom records" in the South and West.

It is reported that Primrose and Dockstader will head separate organizations next season.

Paul Armstrong is writing a play with a strong emotional role in which Catherine Calvert will be starred.

Ben Greet and his company are to go on a short tour, opening in W. S. in a comedy of "The Palace of Truth."

Henrietta Crozman has terminated her brief engagement in vaudeville and is reappearing in "The Tongues of Men."

The new romantic play, "His Majesty the Fool," produced at the Little theater in Philadelphia, is credited with making a hit.

Alan Campbell, a son of Mrs. Patrick Campbell, has become a manager in London, producing a comedy called "The Night Hawk."

Joseph Howard is planning the revival of "A Broadway Honeymoon," the cast to include besides himself, Trixie Friganza, Mabel McCane and Arthur Deagon.

For the first half of the week one will see one of the best musical comedy companies that has been seen at the Odeon theater this season. There are nine people in the company and every one is an artist in his or her line. Tonight the company will present the "Peppermint Kids." This play is a scream from start to finish.

The Odeon will show another one of those dandy features by the Kaleem Company entitled "The Cave Man's War," complete in two parts, and on Friday, January 16, the Odeon will show "The Parasite," a Lubin feature in three parts, featuring Arthur Johnson.

The Aubrey Stock Company at the Lyceum this week will offer for Monday and Tuesday only, "Tempest and Sunshine," dramatized from Mary J.
Holmes' famous novel. D. Otto Hitner will produce this week three standard productions. Each bill running only two days each. Special scenery has been painted for every production. To miss a night at the Lyceum this week is to miss a feature. The usual matinees will be given.

"The Banshee," a two reel Irish play, is the attraction at the Orpheum today. This wonderfully costumed and staged play was produced by the Kay-Bee Stock Company. It presents a weird plot dealing with the simple hearted Irish peasantry and its superstition of "The Banshee," a visionary witch-like creature whose very name brought terror to the good people.

Several other high class pictures are shown including "A Modern Loch-Invar," and "The Rosary," produced by Reliance players, featuring an all star cast.

Ednaingham, the dramatic soprano, who will appear with the Bruno Huh, Cycle Quartet January 13 at the Robinson Grand theater, studied in Europe with some of the big masters, including Von Fieitz Krauper and Felix von Kraus, and has appeared there in concert with the late Mott and Loewe. She has done a great deal of concert work in this country, having appeared with the Washington symphony orchestra and having given successful recitals in Mendelssohn hall and Carnegie Lyceum in New York City. She holds one of the most important church positions in New York with the Old Dutch Reformed church of Brooklyn, and is engaged to appear with Kirkby-Lunn as soloist for one of the concerts of the New York Philharmonic orchestra.

She filled an engagement Sunday with the Damrosch orchestra in New York City.

NEW MAN

Named to Assist in Operating Department of the B. & O.
Southwestern.

Further extending official supervision over the operating department of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton lines, the appointment of J. M. Davis as assistant general manager, with headquarters at Cincinnati, is effective at once, according to the circular issued by General Manager W.
C. Loree, to whom the new official reports.

The latest appointment emphasizes the importance of Cincinnati as the headquarters of the lines operated in the Southwestern district of the Baltimore and Ohio system, and follows close upon the establishment of a branch of the transportation department in that city.

John Marcus Davis comes to the Baltimore and Ohio lines as assistant general manager from the position of general superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company, San Francisco. Mr. Davis, though a young man, has had wide experience in railroad operation, his service having been largely in the West and in Mexico.

FALL OF SLATE

Causes Death of Paul Cottage, Austrian Coal Miner, at Lost Creek.

Paul Cottage, aged 28 years, an Austrian miner employed at the Rider Coal Company's Lost Creek mine, was killed Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by a fall of slate. A fellow countryman who was working in the same room escaped serious injury by falling by the side of a car which was in the room, the main part of the fall did not hit him.

The deceased man and his partner were robbing pillars when the slate and top coal broke loose and came down upon them. Other men working in that section of the mine heard the fall and came to the rescue of the injured man, and removed the body of the dead man from under the fall.

No funeral arrangements will be made until the arrival of a brother of the deceased man from Allegheny, Pa.
