

Fair tonight and Tuesday. Colder to night in southwest portion.

ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE BY PRIVATE WIRE

was the average daily circulation of the Telegram during January, 1914.

PRICE TWO CENTS

ESTABLISHED 1861

CLARKSBURG, W. VA., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1914.

WAR GUNS LOOKED TO BE SENT SOUTH

General Villa of the Rebels Has Collection of Fifty Pieces and Rapid Fire Guns.

TO SHELL THE OUTWORKS In the Hills South and West of Torreon Which the Federals Have There.

CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, Feb. 16.—A review of the artillery corps with its fifty field pieces and rapid fire guns which General Villa expects to accomplish much against the federal army at Torreon presented a brilliant spectacle here today.

The guns will be loaded on trains tomorrow and will be sent south by Tuesday night or Wednesday morning under immediate command of Colonel Servin.

According to Colonel Servin's latest information he is superior to the federal artillery which at first, will be used to shell the outworks in the hills south and west of Torreon.

Preparations of the medical staff, headed by Dr. Villareal, for the impending battle have been more thorough probably than ever before in Mexico since the present series of revolutions began.

Dr. Villareal has an adequate staff of surgeons under him and a corps of hospital stewards. A car, completely equipped for surgical operations, has been fitted up and other cars have been provided for the wounded.

RAMP FOUND DEAD

PARKERSBURG, Feb. 16.—William Ramp, formerly of Wheeling, and who was deputy United States marshal during the terms of ex-Governor G. W. Atkinson and John McGraw, as marshals, was found dead in his room here at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Charnock, where he resided. His death was due to heart trouble. He was 51 years old.

PRIEST TRANSFERRED

MORGANTOWN, Feb. 16.—Father C. J. Kluser for thirteen years pastor of the Catholic church of this city announced from the pulpit yesterday morning that he had been transferred to Mannington. He will exchange places with Father Peter Flynn of that city.

MANY PERSONS IN PERIL ON A BIG COLLIER NOW

ONE DOG MANIFEST Is Not Enough to Pass Six Dogs into the Country Declares an Official.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 16.—Because a blooded English setter bought by Eugene Simpson, of this city, gave birth to six puppies while enroute to Portland, the animal and her family have been held by Seattle customs officials according to information received by Mr. Simpson.

SENATOR GORE

On the Witness Stand Denies That He Made An Attack on Mrs. Bond.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 16.—Political opposition today was held responsible by Thomas P. Gore, United States Senator from Oklahoma, for the damage suit for $50,000 filed against him by Mrs. Minnie Bond, who alleges that the senator attacked her in a Washington hotel.

DOCTOR DROWNED

Off a Beach after Struggling with the Tide for More Than One Hour.

HERMOSA BEACH, Calif., Feb. 16.—While his aged mother, a score of friends and more than two hundred other persons looked helplessly on, Dr. E. B. Alexander, a young physician of Los Angeles, was drowned off the beach here late yesterday after battling for more than an hour against a tide rip.

HAZLET RESIGNS. WHEELING, Feb. 16.—Robert Hallett, postmaster of Wheeling, tonight announced his resignation today. He will become secretary of the Dollar Savings and Trust Company of Wheeling.

STRANGE

Capers Are Cut by Mr. Duckworth but—Hooray! It's a Boy.

Friends are keeping a close watch upon Clarence Duckworth, the popular meat cutter at the City Market, as he has temporarily quit cutting meat and has been cutting strange capers since Sunday night.

ALLIED PRINTERS

Council May Be Prosecuted by the Government under the Sherman Law.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16.—Results of a federal grand jury inquiry into the affairs of the allied printing trades council of New York and other cities were today laid before G. C. Todd, assistant to Attorney General McKee, in charge of trust prosecutions, by Harold Harper, assistant United States attorney at New York. Mr. Todd will determine whether there is sufficient evidence for a Sherman law suit against the council. His decision probably will not be made for several days.

AGAIN SUSPENDED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The proposed five per cent freight rates advanced by eastern railroads, suspended by the Interstate Commerce Commission until March 15 pending investigation, were again suspended by the commission today until September 12.

WILSON BACK

At His Desk Feeling Better and Ready to Attack His Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—President Wilson was back at his desk in the executive offices today, somewhat hoarse but apparently recovered from the cold which kept him in bed some time last week.

PENALTIES IMPOSED

To the Amount of $65,000 on a Radical Member of the British Parliament.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Sir Stewart Montague, radical member of Parliament for Whitechapel, was today ordered by Justice Sir Rolland, of the Kings Bench division, to pay penalties and costs amounting to $65,000 because he voted in the House of Commons while his firm had a contract with the British government.

SMALLPOX

Is Very Likely to Spread among Big Bunch of Tramps at Connellsville.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 16.—An unknown man with smallpox was discovered by the authorities today in an empty coke oven near this city.

SAFE CRACKERS

Get More Than $10,000 in Cash When They Gag and Bind Night Watchman.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Feb. 16.—Safe crackers got more than $10,000 in cash early today when they bound and gagged a night watchman in a business place of C. S. Bonner here and wrecked the strong box with three charges of nitro glycerine.

INDIGESTION FATAL

John Zucco, aged five years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zucco, of Francoise Coal Company addition, south east of Norwood, died at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

PUBLIC BUILDING BILL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16.—Congressman Neely has introduced a bill to provide for a public building at Salem to cost $75,000.

WALTER MARTIN'S KILLED BY A TRAIN

Shinnston Young Man Falls under a Train and is Ground to Death.

SHINNSTON, Feb. 16.—Walter Martin, a well-known local young man, was killed near Viropo Saturday night by a train. He left here with some friends for Viropo on the 10 o'clock car and it is thought he missed the last car and attempted to board a train to come home, and fell beneath an engine and was killed. His body was not found until 4 o'clock Sunday morning by a train crew and it was brought to the Hursey Undertaking establishment here and prepared for burial.

The young man was a grand son of Thornton Martin of Walnut street and is survived by a father and mother. He was about 21 years of age. Mr. Martin was employed as an agent for the Denham Furniture Company of Fairmont, and he made many friends by his genial ways. He had many friends in Shinnston and his sad death has cast a gloom over the entire town.

SHARP CLASH

Between Probers and the Military Authorities of Colorado over "Mother" Jones.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Feb. 16.—A sharp clash over the right of the House coal mine strike investigating committee to summon "Mother" Mary Jones, now held in a hospital here by the Colorado military authorities, came at the first Trinidad session of the investigating body today.

The grand old heroes of the Gray will meet a significant, whole-souled reception in Jacksonville and at any other Florida points they may visit. They will be amongst their own. They will be in an atmosphere of thoroughly southern, splendidly hospitable and highly appreciative of the honor of having been selected as the reunion city and state.

GLASS MEN

Make Protest to the Interstate Commerce Commission against Rate Advance.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today resumed formal hearings on the general five per cent freight rate advance proposed by the eastern railroads.

BIG HOUSE

Expected at Concert of 'Varsity Clubs Tonight at the Masonic Temple.

Tonight at the Masonic Temple will be heard the Glee and Mandolin Clubs of the West Virginia University. From the advance sale of seats, it is clear that a crowded house will greet this popular attraction.

GENEROUS IS THE WELCOME TO VETERANS

And Others Extended in a Letter Issued by the Governor of Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 16.—Governor Park Trammell, Florida's popular and accomplished chief executive, has given out a letter for publication in the newspapers of the South on the approaching reunion in this city, May 6, 7 and 8, of the United Confederate Veterans' Association.

GENEROUS IS THE WELCOME TO VETERANS

It is simple truth to affirm that the hearts of the people of Florida are overflowing with gratification and pride over the fact that the revered heroes composing the United Confederate Veterans will hold their annual reunion this year in our state's metropolis.

GENEROUS IS THE WELCOME TO VETERANS

Large bodies of cavalry, artillery, sailors and marines began assembling through the morning for the street parade leading to Arlington. The forces included the troops stationed at Fort Meyer, the artillery with their long line of rump-hinged field pieces, large detachments of bluejackets and marine barracks in this vicinity, and the full strength of the National Guard of the District of Columbia.

GENEROUS IS THE WELCOME TO VETERANS

Great crowds lined the streets as the procession moved through the downtown section and across the aqueduct bridge over the Potomac river to Arlington. Crossing the bridge, the parade halted to witness a novel and impressive feature of the day's ceremony—the unloosening of the river below of a boat laden with flowers, which was sent down the historic old stream, making its way slowly seaward until lost to view in a memorial to the unrecaptured dead, not only of the Maine but of other times and places.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Sinking of the Vessel in the Havana Harbor is again Commemorated.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Because of the high cold winds and the drifting snows the memorial services instead of being held in the Arlington cemetery grounds were held inside in the Cavalry riding hall adjacent to Fort Meyer. The remainder of the program was carried out, however, as previously arranged and the snow covered graves and monuments were decorated as had been planned.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An imposing street demonstration, followed by impressive ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery, marked the commemoration here today of the sinking of the United States battleship, Maine, in Havana harbor, that historic event which startled the whole world and fanned into flame a war fever culminating in the Spanish-American war.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Although sixteen years have passed since that day in February, 1898, when the Maine was literally torn to pieces and 260 of her officers and crew perished, yet each year seems to bring added veneration for those who lost their lives in the explosion. Today's exercises, while centering about the graves of the Maine heroes, took on, however, a larger significance in including all those of the land or sea forces who had sacrificed themselves in the line of patriotic duty.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Great crowds lined the streets as the procession moved through the downtown section and across the aqueduct bridge over the Potomac river to Arlington. Crossing the bridge, the parade halted to witness a novel and impressive feature of the day's ceremony—the unloosening of the river below of a boat laden with flowers, which was sent down the historic old stream, making its way slowly seaward until lost to view in a memorial to the unrecaptured dead, not only of the Maine but of other times and places.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Arriving at Arlington, all about were seen the mute reminders of the Maine's glories. On one side were the graves of the sailors recovered from the wreck of the ship and buried here in the foreground by a huge cylinder of tapering steel, rusted and indented, but still preserving the stately outlines of the fore-mast of the Maine. This, too, had been brought back from the tangled wreckage to be erected and unveiled later in the spring or summer, alongside the graves of those who in life had seen the flag whipping from its highest point.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

The invocation of the Cavalry of the day was delivered by Bishop Harding, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Washington. The exercises included addresses by Mr. Lake, Col. John McElroy, a commemorative address by Mrs. Ida M. Galloway, past president general of the United States Veterans' Association, and Mrs. Isabel Worrel Ball, chairman of the women's executive committee.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An impressive feature of the exercises was the sounding of bugles widely separated at remote points throughout the vast cemetery, one after another taking up the dying echoes and passing them along from point to point like old time signaling of war days.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cottrill, of 139 Jackson street, are the happy parents of a girl baby, weighing eight pounds, who was born to them at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Peter Fensel, the genial brewmaster at the Clarksburg brewery, wears a broader smile than usual, one which started several days ago, when a son and a daughter were born at his home at 225 Meigs avenue.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Judge Jake Fisher, of Sutton, is presiding at the circuit court sessions here in cases in which Judge Raymond Maxwell is not eligible. Changes in matters and motions were before him Monday forenoon, and in the afternoon of the Clarksburg Board of Trade Land Company's suit to enforce payment of stock subscription against Edgar W. Davis was begun.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Fire of unknown origin damaged the confectionary store and cigar stand of Tony Samaras, on Pike street, corner of Church, to the extent of $500 shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday night. Persons passing the room noticed the smoke arising from around the door and transom, and from a room adjoining the store room.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

The fire department was notified and responded promptly and a few minutes had the fire under control. The damages were covered by insurance.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Jesse Mayers was fined $1 and costs Monday in Justice T. C. Newcomer's court for being drunk at the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station, for which he was arrested and jailed Saturday night by W. J. Mays, of the railroad police force. He paid the required sum and was released.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Sinking of the Vessel in the Havana Harbor is again Commemorated.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Because of the high cold winds and the drifting snows the memorial services instead of being held in the Arlington cemetery grounds were held inside in the Cavalry riding hall adjacent to Fort Meyer. The remainder of the program was carried out, however, as previously arranged and the snow covered graves and monuments were decorated as had been planned.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An imposing street demonstration, followed by impressive ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery, marked the commemoration here today of the sinking of the United States battleship, Maine, in Havana harbor, that historic event which startled the whole world and fanned into flame a war fever culminating in the Spanish-American war.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Although sixteen years have passed since that day in February, 1898, when the Maine was literally torn to pieces and 260 of her officers and crew perished, yet each year seems to bring added veneration for those who lost their lives in the explosion. Today's exercises, while centering about the graves of the Maine heroes, took on, however, a larger significance in including all those of the land or sea forces who had sacrificed themselves in the line of patriotic duty.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Great crowds lined the streets as the procession moved through the downtown section and across the aqueduct bridge over the Potomac river to Arlington. Crossing the bridge, the parade halted to witness a novel and impressive feature of the day's ceremony—the unloosening of the river below of a boat laden with flowers, which was sent down the historic old stream, making its way slowly seaward until lost to view in a memorial to the unrecaptured dead, not only of the Maine but of other times and places.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Arriving at Arlington, all about were seen the mute reminders of the Maine's glories. On one side were the graves of the sailors recovered from the wreck of the ship and buried here in the foreground by a huge cylinder of tapering steel, rusted and indented, but still preserving the stately outlines of the fore-mast of the Maine. This, too, had been brought back from the tangled wreckage to be erected and unveiled later in the spring or summer, alongside the graves of those who in life had seen the flag whipping from its highest point.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

The invocation of the Cavalry of the day was delivered by Bishop Harding, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Washington. The exercises included addresses by Mr. Lake, Col. John McElroy, a commemorative address by Mrs. Ida M. Galloway, past president general of the United States Veterans' Association, and Mrs. Isabel Worrel Ball, chairman of the women's executive committee.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An impressive feature of the exercises was the sounding of bugles widely separated at remote points throughout the vast cemetery, one after another taking up the dying echoes and passing them along from point to point like old time signaling of war days.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cottrill, of 139 Jackson street, are the happy parents of a girl baby, weighing eight pounds, who was born to them at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Peter Fensel, the genial brewmaster at the Clarksburg brewery, wears a broader smile than usual, one which started several days ago, when a son and a daughter were born at his home at 225 Meigs avenue.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Judge Jake Fisher, of Sutton, is presiding at the circuit court sessions here in cases in which Judge Raymond Maxwell is not eligible. Changes in matters and motions were before him Monday forenoon, and in the afternoon of the Clarksburg Board of Trade Land Company's suit to enforce payment of stock subscription against Edgar W. Davis was begun.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Fire of unknown origin damaged the confectionary store and cigar stand of Tony Samaras, on Pike street, corner of Church, to the extent of $500 shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday night. Persons passing the room noticed the smoke arising from around the door and transom, and from a room adjoining the store room.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

The fire department was notified and responded promptly and a few minutes had the fire under control. The damages were covered by insurance.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Jesse Mayers was fined $1 and costs Monday in Justice T. C. Newcomer's court for being drunk at the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station, for which he was arrested and jailed Saturday night by W. J. Mays, of the railroad police force. He paid the required sum and was released.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Sinking of the Vessel in the Havana Harbor is again Commemorated.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Because of the high cold winds and the drifting snows the memorial services instead of being held in the Arlington cemetery grounds were held inside in the Cavalry riding hall adjacent to Fort Meyer. The remainder of the program was carried out, however, as previously arranged and the snow covered graves and monuments were decorated as had been planned.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An imposing street demonstration, followed by impressive ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery, marked the commemoration here today of the sinking of the United States battleship, Maine, in Havana harbor, that historic event which startled the whole world and fanned into flame a war fever culminating in the Spanish-American war.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Although sixteen years have passed since that day in February, 1898, when the Maine was literally torn to pieces and 260 of her officers and crew perished, yet each year seems to bring added veneration for those who lost their lives in the explosion. Today's exercises, while centering about the graves of the Maine heroes, took on, however, a larger significance in including all those of the land or sea forces who had sacrificed themselves in the line of patriotic duty.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Great crowds lined the streets as the procession moved through the downtown section and across the aqueduct bridge over the Potomac river to Arlington. Crossing the bridge, the parade halted to witness a novel and impressive feature of the day's ceremony—the unloosening of the river below of a boat laden with flowers, which was sent down the historic old stream, making its way slowly seaward until lost to view in a memorial to the unrecaptured dead, not only of the Maine but of other times and places.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Arriving at Arlington, all about were seen the mute reminders of the Maine's glories. On one side were the graves of the sailors recovered from the wreck of the ship and buried here in the foreground by a huge cylinder of tapering steel, rusted and indented, but still preserving the stately outlines of the fore-mast of the Maine. This, too, had been brought back from the tangled wreckage to be erected and unveiled later in the spring or summer, alongside the graves of those who in life had seen the flag whipping from its highest point.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

The invocation of the Cavalry of the day was delivered by Bishop Harding, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Washington. The exercises included addresses by Mr. Lake, Col. John McElroy, a commemorative address by Mrs. Ida M. Galloway, past president general of the United States Veterans' Association, and Mrs. Isabel Worrel Ball, chairman of the women's executive committee.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An impressive feature of the exercises was the sounding of bugles widely separated at remote points throughout the vast cemetery, one after another taking up the dying echoes and passing them along from point to point like old time signaling of war days.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cottrill, of 139 Jackson street, are the happy parents of a girl baby, weighing eight pounds, who was born to them at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Peter Fensel, the genial brewmaster at the Clarksburg brewery, wears a broader smile than usual, one which started several days ago, when a son and a daughter were born at his home at 225 Meigs avenue.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Judge Jake Fisher, of Sutton, is presiding at the circuit court sessions here in cases in which Judge Raymond Maxwell is not eligible. Changes in matters and motions were before him Monday forenoon, and in the afternoon of the Clarksburg Board of Trade Land Company's suit to enforce payment of stock subscription against Edgar W. Davis was begun.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Fire of unknown origin damaged the confectionary store and cigar stand of Tony Samaras, on Pike street, corner of Church, to the extent of $500 shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday night. Persons passing the room noticed the smoke arising from around the door and transom, and from a room adjoining the store room.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

The fire department was notified and responded promptly and a few minutes had the fire under control. The damages were covered by insurance.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Jesse Mayers was fined $1 and costs Monday in Justice T. C. Newcomer's court for being drunk at the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station, for which he was arrested and jailed Saturday night by W. J. Mays, of the railroad police force. He paid the required sum and was released.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Sinking of the Vessel in the Havana Harbor is again Commemorated.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Because of the high cold winds and the drifting snows the memorial services instead of being held in the Arlington cemetery grounds were held inside in the Cavalry riding hall adjacent to Fort Meyer. The remainder of the program was carried out, however, as previously arranged and the snow covered graves and monuments were decorated as had been planned.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An imposing street demonstration, followed by impressive ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery, marked the commemoration here today of the sinking of the United States battleship, Maine, in Havana harbor, that historic event which startled the whole world and fanned into flame a war fever culminating in the Spanish-American war.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Although sixteen years have passed since that day in February, 1898, when the Maine was literally torn to pieces and 260 of her officers and crew perished, yet each year seems to bring added veneration for those who lost their lives in the explosion. Today's exercises, while centering about the graves of the Maine heroes, took on, however, a larger significance in including all those of the land or sea forces who had sacrificed themselves in the line of patriotic duty.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Great crowds lined the streets as the procession moved through the downtown section and across the aqueduct bridge over the Potomac river to Arlington. Crossing the bridge, the parade halted to witness a novel and impressive feature of the day's ceremony—the unloosening of the river below of a boat laden with flowers, which was sent down the historic old stream, making its way slowly seaward until lost to view in a memorial to the unrecaptured dead, not only of the Maine but of other times and places.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Arriving at Arlington, all about were seen the mute reminders of the Maine's glories. On one side were the graves of the sailors recovered from the wreck of the ship and buried here in the foreground by a huge cylinder of tapering steel, rusted and indented, but still preserving the stately outlines of the fore-mast of the Maine. This, too, had been brought back from the tangled wreckage to be erected and unveiled later in the spring or summer, alongside the graves of those who in life had seen the flag whipping from its highest point.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

The invocation of the Cavalry of the day was delivered by Bishop Harding, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Washington. The exercises included addresses by Mr. Lake, Col. John McElroy, a commemorative address by Mrs. Ida M. Galloway, past president general of the United States Veterans' Association, and Mrs. Isabel Worrel Ball, chairman of the women's executive committee.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

An impressive feature of the exercises was the sounding of bugles widely separated at remote points throughout the vast cemetery, one after another taking up the dying echoes and passing them along from point to point like old time signaling of war days.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cottrill, of 139 Jackson street, are the happy parents of a girl baby, weighing eight pounds, who was born to them at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Peter Fensel, the genial brewmaster at the Clarksburg brewery, wears a broader smile than usual, one which started several days ago, when a son and a daughter were born at his home at 225 Meigs avenue.

ADDED VENERATION FOR MAINE HEROES

Judge Jake Fisher, of Sutton, is presiding at the circuit court sessions here in cases in which Judge Raymond Maxwell is not eligible. Changes in matters and motions were before him Monday forenoon, and in the afternoon of the Clarksburg Board of Trade Land Company's suit to enforce payment of stock subscription against Edgar W. Davis was begun.