THE INTERRUPTED FEAST

SUFFRACET

Is to Have a Series of Lectures in the State on the Woman Suffrage Question.

The Woman's Suffrage Association of West Virginia has secured Mrs. Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale to make a series of lectures which will include Grafton, Clarksburg, Fairmont, Morgantown, Parkersburg and Wheeling. The lecture for this city will be given on the night of June 1. This is the first opportunity that has ever been offered to the people of Clarksburg to hear the question of a woman's right to cast a ballot as well as to pay a tax, and the suffrage association is to be congratulated on its choice of an initial speaker.

Mrs. Hale is an American by adoption. In England the name of a Forbes-Robertson stands for all that is best in art, drama and literature, and her charming personality only enhances the talents given her by a long line of illustrious ancestors. Her repertoire is not confined to "Equal Rights," but covers a wide range from "Poets" to "Democracy." She has been called back twice or even three times to cities where she has spoken during the winter, and press and public alike have responded to her eloquent appeal for a higher, more democratic and idealistic vision both in politics and art.

THIRTEEN CARDINALS CREATED BY THE POPE

At a Secret Consistory at the Vatican, But There Are No Americans among Them.

ROME, May 25.—At a secret consistory held at the Vatican this morning, Pope Plus created thirteen new cardinals. A number of bishops from various countries also were confirmed in their sees. At the same time official announcement was made of the creation of Monsignor Bello patriarch of Lisbon as cardinal. His name had been reserved "in pectore" at the consistory of 1911. The ceremony was accompanied by all the brilliancies usual on such occasions at the Vatican, was preceded by a short allocution after which the names of the new cardinals were announced.

There was none from America. The pontiff was surrounded by all the members of the sacred college living in Rome and by those who are now here including Cardinals Gibbons, Farley and O'Connell. The Pope appointed Cardinal Belpel to the office of chamberlain in which position he will direct the affairs of the church during the conclave. Cardinal Falconio, former apostolic delegate in the United States, also was raised to the rank of chamberlain. The allocation of the pope was a strong appeal for political and social peace through restoration of religion and the influence of the church.

The number of bee colonies in the state is given as 191 per cent as compared with the number last year. The condition of the bees is but 95 per cent of that for last year and for the normal, while the condition of the plants producing honey is 100 per cent compared with last year.

BECKER'S APPEAL

Preparations Will Be Done Largely By Himself as to the Routine Work.

NEW YORK, May 25.—In the preparation of his appeal from the verdict of guilty on the charge of having instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, much of the routine work will be done by Charles Becker. Already Becker has prepared notes on a mass of papers left with him by his counsel. The rule forbidding prisoners in the Tombs having Sunday visitors left Becker uninterrupted yesterday and he spent several hours going over legal documents. Before he appears before Justice Seabury for sentence next Friday Becker hopes to have the groundwork of his appeal far enough in advance for his lawyers to take up his fight for a third trial without delay.

SEVEN HOMICIDE CASES REPORTED

RED LETTER

Day with the Sunday School of the Broad Oaks Methodist Episcopal Church.

Sunday was red letter day for the Ash chapel Sunday school, it being the closing of the contest between the blues and reds of the men's Bible class. The contest started about six weeks ago with sixty members and closed Sunday with 300 members of the class. Mr. A. M. Garrison being captain of the reds and E. A. Righter captain of the blues. The contest was a warm one, but on the home stretch the reds pulled one over on the blues and scored by eighteen.

Although the blues are blue by color, yet they are not blue in spirit. The contest all through was one of the most friendly that could have been dreamed.

The defeated blues are making big plans to treat the victorious reds to a sumptuous treat at Ash chapel church at 7:45 o'clock Friday night. They have engaged a fine orchestra and a number of prominent speakers for the evening. Refreshments in keeping of the season will be served. To this banquet a cordial invitation is extended to all friends and members. Go and enjoy an evening at the hands of the blues.

This class ranks among the largest classes in Central West Virginia, and only being organized about eight months, it has enjoyed a remarkable growth. Mr. Armsparger, the teacher of the class, is now wearing a smile, although he was on the defeated side and he is full of praise for the faithful work done. Remember Friday night.

Dr. Edward Ryan.
