PARSONS-SOUDERS WILL CLOSE THEIR STORE SATURDAY, MAY 30

For All Women

With a Deep-Rooted Prejudice Against Clothing Sales

Serge Suits of Recognized, $18.75 $21.50 and $25 Grades at $14.50 and $18.50

We have something of a regard for the woman who "takes salt" with a good many things she reads.

In fact, we use quite a bit of that saving commodity in our own reading. Many things one reads in the papers cannot be swallowed whole without it—they are "cooked up" a little too much to be good for mental digestion, to say nothing of the reflex action on the pocketbook.

On the other hand every woman who keeps an open eye and an open mind for things that have the unmistakable marks of the genuine knows there are sales as genuine and legitimate in their advantages as an interest-bearing bank account.

This is a sale of that kind. The garment market is out of joint. Then again, this is the time when all factory forces are bent upon turning surplus summer woollens into money.

These are the chief reasons why we can offer at $14.50 and $18.50 each a spic and span new lot of the finest summer serge suits that it is possible to make for selling at $18.75 to $25.00.

There is every size of these blue serge Suits.

Every woman is invited to come and bring along her knowledge of comparisons.

Social and Personal

Mothers' Club Meets.

Forty-five members of the Mothers' Club attended the meeting held in the home of Mrs. John B. Smith on Chestnut street. Mrs. G. H. Dutble was in charge of the program and an interesting discussion was enjoyed on the subject of "How to Spend Our Vacations." Papers were read by Mrs. Chevront, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Truman Lynch. The program was interspersed with vocal and instrumental music rendered by Miss Lynch and Miss Ionia Smith. During the afternoon refreshments were served.

Circle Entertained.

Mrs. D. S. Cain, of Adamston, very pleasantly entertained the Ladies Sewing Circle of that place last evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. Fancy needle work was indulged in and a guessing contest added interest to the evening's entertainment, the lucky contestants receiving handsome souvenirs. Delicious refreshments were served and the affair proved a most pleasant one.

Lawn Fete.

Quite a number attended the lawn fete given last evening by the Ladies of Charity of the church of the Immaculate Conception on the lawn of the parochial residence which was made most attractive by dainty tables scattered under the trees brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns. The ladies were most gracious and attentive in serving ice cream, cake, coffee and lemonade to the many guests in attendance, and a liberal sum was added to the building fund of the St. Mary's High school.

Parsonage Marriage.

The marriage of Miss Willa G. Wolfe to Mr. Elmer B. Davidson was solemnized at 5 o'clock last evening in the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor, the Rev. George D. Smith, officiated.

Senior Boys Entertain.

At Barnett's stop near the Country Club, the Camp Fire Girls were delightfully entertained by the Senior boys at a marshmallow roast. About fifty young people enjoyed the outing and various games were the diversion of the evening.

Parlor Recital.

Twenty-five piano pupils of Miss Maud Walsh's younger students rendered a delightful program of music at a parlor recital given by Miss Walsh in her home on Jackson street last evening. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served.

Married Here.

Miss Adelaide Lottoco and Charles Whitney, of Ulster, N. Y., were married at 8 o'clock last evening in the parsonage of the United Brethren church, the pastor, the Rev. H. R. Hess, officiating.

Private Dance.

A private dance will be given in Hoffman Hall on Court street from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock this evening with the Cadenza orchestra playing. Fans have been installed in the hall and every other possible thing has been done to make the hall pleasant these warm evenings.

For Mrs. Fischer.

Complimentary to Mrs. J. Arter Fischer, of Pittsburg, Mrs. David B. Carper will entertain a few friends at cards from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Ash-Sharp.

Mr. Noah Ash and Nitta Sharp were married today. Miss Sharp lives at Grassell and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sharp. Mr. Ash is a clerk in the Curtin company store at Curtin.

To Initiate.

At last night's meeting of the local Elks' lodge, it was decided to initiate candidates into membership next Tuesday night. There will be no social session in connection therewith.

Miss Dawson to Sing.

On Thursday evening, May 28, at 8:15 o'clock, in the Normal auditorium, there will be given a public musical recital by the pupils of Mr. Aubrey Martin, director of music at the Normal school, and Miss Amy

Rice, piano teacher. The program will be largely made up of numbers by the advanced pupils of both teachers and for that reason an unusually enjoyable evening is promised. Among those who will appear on the program are Miss Lucy Dawson, of Clarksburg, who is considered one of the best soloists of that city, and Miss Elizabeth Posten, a Normal student, who recently sang with great success before the Marcato Club at Clarksburg.—Fairmont Times.

Reception to Seniors.

The Juniors of the Central school gave the Seniors a reception last evening. The occasion was most enjoyable. The following program was observed in the school building:

Welcome song—Juniors.
Address of welcome—President Ralph Dandz.
Vacation song—Juniors.
Music—Orchestra.
"How the Vote Was Won"—Class play by the Juniors.
Complex recitations—Walter Blenko, Harold Williams, Fred Kramer, William Morgan.
Recitation—(valedictory)—Sophie Scanes.
Farewell to Seniors—Robert White.
Song—"Farewell"—Juniors.

WESTON

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)

WESTON, May 27—The Democrats of the county of Lewis in mass convention here determined to make their nominations for county officers in a mass convention to be held at the court house at a time to be determined by the new county committee, which was also selected. It is stated by those who were present that there will be but a single candidate for each place on the ticket, and there being no contest, a primary election is unnecessary. At the meeting the question of Perry G. Alfred's candidacy for county court clerk was discussed, and he made a statement before the convention that, while he does not desire the nomination, he will accept it if tendered him, and his only known opponent admits that Mr. Alfred will be the nominee.

In addition to the Grand Army of the Republic members, the membership of other fraternal societies will participate in the Decoration Day services here Saturday, and the order of the line-up for the march to and from the cemetery will be as follows: 1. The National Guard. 2. The Grand Army Post. 3. The Sons of Veterans. 4. Daughters of America. 5. Junior Order American Mechanics. 6. Modern Woodmen of America and other fraternal orders.
