MR. ROSS RESIGNS AT THE TIN MILLS

Where He Has Filled Position of Manager Since Labor Troubles Ended.

Bert J. Ross has resigned as manager of the Phillips Sheet and Tin Plate mill here, effective at once.

Mr. Ross filled the position of manager of the local tin plate mills efficiently the last twelve months. He came here just before settlement of the labor troubles at the mills a year ago and took part in the settlement, addressing the workers at a meeting in the Elks' auditorium...

The career of Mr. Ross in the tin plate business was started at the New Castle works of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company, where he began as a worker in the mills. He was promoted from time to time there until he became manager, which position he filled ably until he went with the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company...

As a tin plate man, Mr. Ross as is seen, has had long and successful experience and his usefulness in the business will command him an early position elsewhere. Clarksburg will regret to lose him.

GOAL SHIPMENTS

Are to Be Largely Increased as a Result of War among the Powers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1.—It is probable that the West Virginia and Pennsylvania operators will receive their share of the large orders for quantities of coal which have been placed this week with the leading eastern exporters by the European powers.

It is likely to be involved in the war has called for large shipments of coal for their navies. There is not only a possibility, but a probability, that Germany, Austria, Italy and France will be shut off from their supplies of Welsh coal should Great Britain become involved in the struggle.

WETHERILL

Of Border Patrol Regiment is Detailed as Instructor at the State University.

MORGANTOWN, Aug. 1.—First Lieutenant Richard Wetherill of the Sixth Infantry, U. S. A., has been detailed for service at the university as professor of military science and tactics, the appointment being effective September 1.

Lieutenant Wetherill is now stationed with his regiment in Texas and has been there for more than a year as a part of the border patrol on the Mexican line. He comes here in the place of Lieutenant Deas Archer, who has been ordered to rejoin his command in Texas after the maneuvers at Caddell. The two men are shifted at the same time.

When word was received here that Lieutenant Archer was to be returned to his regiment, an effort was made to secure the appointment by President Wilson of Lieutenant Nelly, the West Point football coach who has had such success with West Virginia teams in previous years. The reply was made that Lieutenant Nelly was not available at present for detail here and so an instructor was detailed from the border patrol.

GARDEN HOSE

Is Made a Specialty by Band of Criminals Now Operating in the City.

A band of criminals, who appear to make a specialty of garden hose, have infested the city, according to reports made to the police department Friday and today. Yesterday it was reported that twenty-five feet of hose had been stolen from the home of John A. Tierney, of East Pike street. Today, Charles Little, of Sycamore street, reported that fifty feet were taken from his premises last night.

The police are making an investigation but as yet have secured no clues to the identity of the guilty party or parties.
