GRAND IS SHOWING MILITARY ROMANCE

"The Commanding Officer" is Feature Offering There Today.

The feature offering at the Robinson Grand today is Theodore Burt Sayre's stirring military romance, "The Commanding Officer," which at last found its way to the screen, in the appropriate settings and variety of appeal. The tenseness of the story does not subside until the very final flash, and the various characterizations are so well blended into a unit of action that never is the spectator confused or distracted from the main element of the plot even momentarily.

manner that so many other celebrated dramatic successes have, through the Famous Players Film Company, whose four-part adaptation of this powerful drama is the latest release on the Paramount program. So well known is this play as not to require a detailed description, but it must be stated that in the film version the novel and striking situations of the original play have been amplified and multiplied.

Seldom do screen dramas possess such an appealing plot, such uniformly good acting, such capable direction,

"The College Girls," a musical tabloid never before presented in Clarksburg, will be the offering of the Tabarin Girls at the Odeon theater for Wednesday and Thursday. This company has one of the best choruses that has ever appeared at the Odeon, every member being a professional, and their musical numbers are all new and the costumes new and up-to-date.

The specialties introduced by different members of the company have made a big hit. The pictures for today include a splendid three-part Essanay drama entitled "A Lesson in Romance."

Rheumatic Fever

Surrenders to Anti-Kamnia Tablets In the treatment of Rheumatic Fever many physicians employ purgatives, but Dr. E. E. Brown shows that a mild laxative is better. When the patient is given a small amount of anti-kamnia he gives relief in a half hour and a grain has been taken. When after four hours he gives the patient a half ounce of anti-kamnia, with a few drops of lemon to disguise the taste, or he keeps the bowels open with the mild laxative. The doctor should be light, and all animal food should be excluded as far as possible from the diet. For the pills and tablets he has found nothing equal to Anti-Kamnia Tablets, giving two tablets every 1 to 2 hours as needed. These tablets may be obtained from all druggists in any quantity desired. Ask for A-E Tablets. Unrefined for Headaches, Neuritis, and All Pains.

produced by a stock company in Rochester.

It was again demonstrated last night that the Hyatt and LeNore Musical Comedy Company, playing at the Palace this week, is a winner. Their plays are different from those generally used by tabloid companies. The costumes are new and stunning, the girls pretty and graceful and the men make a hit with their good jokes and fine voices. If you care to spend a pleasant hour visit the Palace tonight as the program will be changed, presenting a play that was built for fun and comedy entitled "The Black Detective."

R. L. Woodward, whose son, Charley, is desperately in love with Kitty Gordon, an actress, has been forbidden by his father to marry her. The father wants him to marry Dolly Grey, whose parents are very wealthy, but he absolutely refuses, so a detective is hired to watch Charley and keep him from seeing or corresponding with the actress. The detective proves to be false, who is merely impersonating an officer and the funny situations in which you find him, first with the father, and then with the son, will keep you laughing all the time.

New specialty numbers will be introduced besides the songs and dancing numbers.

"Applied Romance," the newest of the American "Beauty" releases, is a snappy one-part drama in which Kitty Gerber and Webster Campbell, the "Beauty" stars, are due to score a big hit.

"Master Willie Heves," a play of Shakespeare's time, by Edgar Allan Woolf and George Sylvester Viereck, was produced in Los Angeles lately by Oliver Morosco. The story makes the Master Willie of the play really a girl who has run away from home and who gains a position in Shakespeare's company to play female roles.

Arthur Hopkins, who has had success with "On Trial," is shortly to launch a production by himself. It is a dramatization of "The Devil's Garden," which is now being made by Edith Ellis. It is the intention of Mr. Hopkins to bring Norman McDaniel to America in August to act the leading role.

"Lives of the Jungle" is the title of an African animal story now in the hands of Director L. W. Claudet. Although but one thousand feet in length, the combination of human interest and jungle life lends feature characterization to this release.

MANY GOLFERS

From All Parts of the State Are Entering State Tournament to Be Held in Wheeling.

WHEELING, June 29.—The forthcoming state golf tournament to be held on the Wheeling country club course beginning July 14, promises to be the greatest event of the kind ever held in the state.

Announcement was made last night to the effect that entries are coming in from every city of the state able to boast a course and there is reason to believe that at least seventy-five visitors will be on hand for the matches. In this connection, too, it is expected that many of the matches will be decidedly interesting when the crack players meet and if the weather man will oblige there is reason to believe that some new records will be made on the local course. The stockholders of the country club held a short meeting last evening and gave attention to a number of matters requiring attention at this time, then took up the matter of the forthcoming tournament, which it is hoped to make the biggest golf event ever held on the local course.

It's easy to clear the house of roaches and bedbugs with "Green Death," the never failing vermin destroyer. Spray it into the cracks and crevices and the bedbugs die. Harmless to humans or pets—but it kills the bugs. See your paint and wallpaper dealer.
