NEWS AND GOSSIP OF SCREEN AND STAGE

Varied and Interesting Offerings Are Being Presented at Local Theaters.

Zarrow's American Girl company will close a very successful week's engagement at the Odeon theater tonight.
 The attraction at the Odeon for the coming week will be Wilkie and Beverly's "Powder Puff Girls," a musical comedy company composed of ten persons.

 The pictures for today are an episode of "The Hazards of Helen," an episode of "The Midnight Limited," a Vitagraph comedy called "Mr. Jarr and Love's Young Dream" and an Essanay drama, entitled "Who Was the Same" with Beverly Bayne in the leading part.
 Margaret Illington began her season in "The Lie" at Atlantic City this week. Later she will go to Chicago for a run.
 An exceptionally pleasing bill that contains plenty of instrumental and vocal music and an attractive variety of other entertainment is being presented at the Palace theater. The Messrs. Simeral are being complimented on securing attractions of this nature.

The all-star cast of "The Duke of Killcrankle" will include Marie Tempest, Graham Browne, Ann Murdock and Francis Wilson.

The bill opens with the Musical Zanettas who present good music artistically rendered and clean comedy that is funny. Mile. Zanone plays exceptionally well on a violin.

Then follows Jonathan, a comedy sketch cartoonist. He has an original monologue that keeps the audience laughing while he is drawing pictures.
 Quigley and Adair close the bill with an excellent offering of singing, talking and roller skating. This act just completed the Keith circuit which is sufficient guarantee it is well worth seeing. The entire bill has won merited applause and should be seen by all those wishing high class amusement.

Zenatello, the tenor, and Maria Gay, the mezzo-soprano, have been engaged for the grand opera company which is to appear in conjunction with Pavlova and her Russian ballet.

"The Widowed Mother's Pension Bill," a thrilling three-part Pathe drama, is showing today at the Orpheum theater. Thais Lawton, a famous American actress, and Percy Standing, a Broadway star, appear in the leading roles and are supported by a splendid cast of noted players. Charles Chaplin also appears in "The Pardon," a smashing two reel comedy which creates much laughter.

Robert Henley does the greatest work of his career in "The Little Brother of the Rich," the Broadway Universal feature film in which Hobart Bosworth is starred and which has been produced by Otis Turner.
 Jane Novak is also in the cast and wears some magnificent creations.

"The Working of a Miracle," a three part Edison special feature is the feature today at the Bijou theater.
 Never was Edward Earle or Gladys Mulette better cast than in this three act feature. Earle appears as a young man who would know no God until darkness, misery and peril crushed him down, and Miss Mulette as a girl persecuted for love of him.
 Helen Holmes is seen in a thrilling

HELEN HOLMES—KALEM

railroad drama, "A Railroaders' Bravery," "Education," a comedy, and "Fighting Blood," a feud story of the Kentucky mountains are also shown.
 "The Vow," a four act feature with Miss Marion Leonard as principal will be the leader Monday.

Patrons of the Robinson Grand today again have the opportunity of seeing the formidable dramatic character star, Edmund Bresse, in Robert W. Service's famous poetic masterpiece, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew." The poem from which this production was taken has probably created more favorable comment than any other rhyme of the Alaskan Wilds.

"The Shooting of Dan McGrew" tells in its own red-blooded, big-man way of the loss of Jim's wife by dangerous Dan McGrew; of his months of struggle across the "fat-bellied" trail and his finally meeting with Dan McGrew—the man who stole his wife and whom he killed.
 Monday, Dustin Farnum will be presented in "Captain Courtesy," a story of the Mexican occupation of California during 1840-46.

"Cupid Takes a Taxi" is the newest of the American "Beauty" photoplays. Neva Gerber and Webster Campbell have injected an abundance of snap and dash in this pretty little comedy-drama.
