Social and Personal

Items for this department are welcomed. They may be sent or telephoned to the Telegram's editorial department, telephones: Bell 5531, Home 1271. Owing to space limitations and press runs, social and personal items are sometimes found on page 3 as a continuation of this department.

To Give Lawn Fete.

The members of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South, will give a lawn fete at the home of Mrs. Ella Wade on West Pike street from 7 to 11 o'clock Tuesday evening. Ice cream, ices and cake will be refreshingly served by the women of the church. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

To Entertain.

Complimentary to Mrs. Hunter H. Moss and Mrs. Maxwell Case, of Washington, Mrs. Charles B. Alexander will entertain at a small bridge luncheon Tuesday in her summer home at the country club place.

Takes a Camp.

Mrs. Martha M. McCarty has taken a small camp on the Buchanan river, where she will entertain a few young friends of her daughter, Elizabeth McCarty. They will go to camp Monday.

Entertain at Cards.

In honor of Mrs. Maxwell Case and Mrs. Hunter H. Moss, of Washington, Mrs. William F. Alexander entertained at cards from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Upon the arrival of the guests ices and confections were served in the dining room where Japanese lilies formed the attractive centerpiece. Miss Garrard presided and was assisted by Mrs. Case, Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. Howell Cooper and Mrs. James Rodney. Later auction bridge was the diversion of the afternoon.

Circle Meets.

A very enjoyable meeting of the East End Sewing Circle was held in the home of Miss Mae Connell on Chapel street Friday evening. At 10 o'clock ices and confections were served by the hostess and fruit punch refreshingly served by Miss Ella Quinn. Old fashion garden flowers pleasingly obtained in the floral decorations of the table.

By Miss Condry.

The members of the East End Sewing Circle will be entertained by Miss Betty Condry in the home of her sister, Miss Mayne Condry, Tuesday evening.

To Make Auto Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana H. Gawthrop and sons, Carl and Paul, of Bridgeport, will depart Sunday morning on their touring car for Chebogan, Mich., via Columbus, O., and Detroit, Lansing and Traverse City, Mich. They will spend the month of August there.

Engagement Announced.

At a dinner at the home of Mrs. John Carney, on Foundry street, at Mannington, Thursday afternoon, the engagement of Miss Edna Colnet Carney to Dr. John Paul Young, of Salem, was announced. Announcements of the engagement were written on little slips enclosed in gilded English walnuts arranged around a beautiful centerpiece consisting of a French basket of sweet peas. The walnuts were attached to the place cards with ribbons and as the guests lifted their place cards, the walnuts were opened, and there was some little confusion as the guests made a rush for the bride to be, congratulating her. An elaborate four course dinner was served. Mrs. C. W. Phillips assisting the hostess. The wedding is to be held in the early fall.

Nurses Entertain.

Miss Mary Costello, a graduate nurse of St. Mary's hospital, delightfully entertained the senior nurses of the hospital at her home on South Chestnut street Friday evening. The evening was most pleasantly spent by all in attendance. Refreshments were served at a seasonable hour. Those in attendance were Misses Marie Shea, Louise Kearney, Beatrice Joyce, Margaret Joyce, Mary Binns, Jane Wright, Katherine Wisecarver, Rose Parker and Esther Klein.

Fishing Party Returns.

Thirty-two members of the Big R. Fishing Club returned Friday night from their fishing camp five miles above Romney at the Hampshire Club stop on the Hampshire and Southern railroad, where they were in camp two weeks under the leadership of L. K. Richards. They reported good fishing but bad weather. The latter, however, did not bother them as they were fully equipped for all emergencies. Indeed, the camp was so "dry" that it worried the many farmers who visited them.

First Annual Outing.

The first annual outing of the Veterans' Association of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will be held at Berkeley Springs August 12, and at Berkeley Springs August 13, and it is planned to make the event a company occasion for the employees of the company who have been in the service twenty years as well as for their families and friends.

Invitations have been sent personally to the hundreds of old railroad men who have served a score of years and invitations have been extended to executive officials and others to take part in the reunion. Z. T. Drantner, president of the association and a veteran holder of a gold medal for fifty years' service, who is superintendent of shops at Martinsburg, has charge of the celebration for the Cumberland division veterans who will be the hosts.

President Brantner's railroad service goes back to Civil war days and there will be many a new war story told when his comrades of Baltimore and Ohio Grand Army Club members, chat of shops at Martinsburg, had a change of the celebration for the Cumberland division veterans who will be the hosts.

The first reunion at Berkeley Springs will bring veteran employees from all parts of the system. The Veteran Employees' Association has social and fraternal features, the membership including men of every grade of employment from all branches of the railroad. A local branch of the association is organized at each of the division headquarters.

Lawn Fete.

A lawn fete, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to charity, is to be given at 7 o'clock this evening at the home of Mrs. Harry T. Wilson, 210 Sycamore street. All are urged to attend and aid in the worthy cause.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Harry Harris and daughter, Helen, and Mrs. William Reed have gone to Webster Springs for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. Cecel C. Jarvis has returned from a visit of two months through Connecticut.

Miss Irene Clayton, of Chestnut street, who visited relatives at Coven, for the last ten days, has returned home.

POPULAR COMEDY STAR IN MOVIES

Nitra Frazer.

Nitra Frazer, the popular Vitagraph comedy star, was really christened Anitra Frazer MacFavish. When it was suggested that she adopt a name just as pleasing and one not quite as long, she simply dropped the letter A from her given name and eliminated her surname. As Nitra Frazer she became known all over the country as one of the best light comedy comedienne. Miss Frazer has a decided Scotch tinge of humor in her make-up, this being a heritage from her father, who was at one time British counsel in the West Indies. She is in love with her work.

Miss Clara and Master Jay Segor, of Pittsburg, brother and sister of Mrs. R. J. Gazley, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gazley at their country home near the country club place.

Mrs. John Sopher has returned home from Fairmont where she visited her niece, Mrs. Fred Helmick. Patrick O'Donnell, a former resident of this city, but who is now in the employ of the Indian motorcycle agency at Detroit, Mich., is visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. O'Donnell rode an Indian motorcycle from Detroit to this city.

Abe Lowther was here Saturday from West Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Howard, of Timberlake Court, departed Saturday in an automobile for an extended tour through Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zirwes will depart on train No. 55 Saturday evening for St. Louis, Mo., to visit his mother, Mrs. Pauline Zirwes, there.

Mrs. R. B. Parrott, of Washington, D. C., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Helze, in the Hardy apartments.

Misses Mary and Katherine Foley, of Gloucester, O., are visiting Mrs. Thomas Burke.

Mrs. Thomas W. Cooke and children, of Dayton, O., who were guests of Mrs. Lynn S. Hornor, have gone to Washington to visit her mother, Mrs. Frank Hume, in her summer home at Alexandria, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Swartz, of Wichita, Kan., who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Osman Swartz, have returned home.

Mrs. George D. Houston, of Pittsburg, who visited her sister, Mrs. Harry B. Curtin, returned home Saturday afternoon.

Miss Francis Curtin has returned from Mt. Lake Park, Md.

J. W. McCauley, of Fairmont, is a business visitor in the city.

E. H. Norman is here from Weirton on a brief business visit.

Miss Ella Tregallas, of Baltimore, Md., Miss Mary Brown, of Bradentown, Fla., and Miss Ruth Tregallas, of Gratton, are guests of Mrs. W. I. Booth at her home at 139 Oak street.

F. D. Stainaker, of Sutton, is a business visitor here.

Petticoats now measure from a yard and a half to two and a half yards wide. Some are fashioned with Jersey tops, while others are entirely formed of taffeta.

Side laced tan boots are having such a vogue in Paris that it is impossible to meet the demand, so that many are now wearing the gaiters of material-colored tussah.

Suits with short coats are entirely passe. The coat of the tailored suit measures from twenty-eight to thirty inches in length and is usually cut a flaring skirt portion. Belts are to be worn, but pockets are said to have lost out because of too much popularity.
