Many Hundreds of Parsons-Souders Customers Will Be in Town This Week

You have a right to judge men and stores by service rendered.

You have a right to judge us by what we have done throughout these 13 years.

If the Parsons-Souders store have served best in the past, it is logical to assume that it will serve best TODAY.

Fashions of the Moment

The departments of Dress for Women are showing new Suits, afternoon and evening gowns, coats and skirts, Paris-inspired for the Autumn and winter wear.

The styles are good, the dresses the kind of which every young woman needs at least one, and the choice will be wide and varied.

Several ready now with daily shipments coming to complete a purchase of some fifty garments, all to sell at fifteen dollars each.

The Silk Petticoats at Half Price

A clearance of 186 silk petticoats in one day is too much to be accomplished even in this store, though the prices are halved so today and tomorrow you may find just what you want at very small cost, but you must be prompt.

98c, $1.98 and $2.50 are the prices for skirts regularly sold for $1.95, $2.95, $3.95 and $5.00; colors only now.

said a wife to her husband recently is my counsel in matters of style and economy. The eyes of the woman's store see far, and are always open. It's ears are keen. It's judgment is sound and advanced. I am more impressed with this every time I go into the store, particularly with the higher standard of merchandise in the sales.

Printed not so much because it is gratifying to us, as that a disinterested view may point the way to other women seeking counsel in matters of style and economy.

Summer Frocks

Economy time is here. $2.50 and $5 for $5 to $15 Dresses of cottons in white and many colors.

There are a hundred or more in this final disposal and women who need an additional frock or two will do well to come at once. All sizes, including 44 to 50—for very large women.

The Bradford Reunion.
The fifth annual reunion of the Bradford family was held on the lawn of Corbin Bradford's, on Marshall street, in Broad Oaks, Sunday. The day, although with threatening showers, before noon, proved to be an ideal day at the last and quite early members of the family and friends began to arrive by trolley and automobile and by noon, near a hundred people had gathered for an all day good time.

From 10:30 until 11:30 was named as social hour during which time "old acquaintance was not forgotten" and new acquaintance was made. Corbin Bradford although in his eighty-fourth year, and great-grandfather many times, is just as active as if he were 48 years old instead of 84 years, and always ready to make welcome all visitors. At the noon hour the old dinner bell was rung calling each one to a most delicious basket dinner, which was served on a large table in the yard, whereas the people learned that the ladies had taken great care in preparing the many luxuries which were in variety and abundance. The crowd was then congested in the front porch and yard and all enjoyed a short song service, the opening chorus being "America" at which time the old United States flag was raised. After this a most enjoyed talk was rendered by the Rev. Wil-

Ham M. Long, which contained many good thoughts and practical suggestions.

The next subject on the program was a song rendered by the male quartet, which was very much enjoyed by all present. The quartet consisted of M. M. Bradford, A. H. Shewman, W. M. Long and Mr. Sturgis.

The next speech was made by D. H. Bradford, of Parkersburg. His absent. After his talk the quartet again sang the old familiar song "Come to the Little Brown Church in the Dell," after which was followed by "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

Short addresses were made by William Barnes, of Grafton, and Mrs. Alice V. Fittre, of Wilsonburg, and after more songs by the quartet, a few pictures were taken of the four generations after which supper was served.

It was unanimously decided to hold another reunion in 1916 at the same place and on the last Sunday in August. The following officers were elected for the year: Corbin B. Bradford, president. M. M. Bradford, first vice-president. D. H. Bradford, second vice-president. Floyd Lee, treasurer. William Barnes, secretary. George Barnes, historian. Mrs. R. H. Morgan, historian. Mrs. M. M. Bradford, social. Mrs. W. Ellis Nixon, social.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Household Hints.
Steel grates—When fires are over, steel grates should be rubbed with a little unsalted lard and polished with an old duster till they shine. This will prevent them from rusting.

When reheating meat place some gravy in a deep frying pan, season it and make quite hot, put in the meat and simmer gently, but do not allow to boil, as boiling makes the meat tough.

To clean dark varnished front doors, rub over, after dusting with a little brown shoe polish on a piece of cloth; polish with a dry duster and the door will look as if newly painted.

To remove paint from glass rub with hot vinegar.

Before polishing furniture, wipe over with a cloth dipped in hot water and wrung out. If this is done, finger marks will not show.

MUST GIVE SIGNALS.

In order to eliminate one possibility of danger from traffic at the busy corners, the police have requested that motorists and drivers of other vehicles signal the traffic officer which direction they intend to turn. A simple raising of the hand is all that is asked. It was said at the police department. In addition to decreasing the possibility of accident, this practice will make the lot of the traffic officer much easier.
