"IZZY'S BUSY DAY" PALACE'S NEW BILL

Best Bill of the "Broadway Follies" Company is Being Presented.

From this afternoon until the close of its engagement at the Palace theater the "Broadway Follies" Musical Comedy Company will present the feature play of its repertoire entitled "Izzy's Busy Day." This bill has been played solely by this company and was written by Linton

De Wolfe. The Grand are so deeply interested.

Tomorrow, "The Wolf," in six powerful acts, with an entire cast of Broadway stars, will be the feature.
"Dorothy," a three-act Vitaphone love drama, with Maurice and Vandyke Brooke as the leading actors, is the big thing at the Bijou today.
When it is announced that Costello and Miss Baird are in the same cast of a photoplay it is a sure thing that in the humblest walks of life subtly and humanly appealing. Her unquestioned skill in this line of work is recognized, but she receives no more pleasant tribute to it than is represented by the series of letters, all evidently from poor working people, which comes to her constantly.

She is the idol of this class of movie fans. In Los Angeles she is known as the star of the tenement district.
Tomorrow, a special Mutual drama, "The Brand Blotters," laid in the far West and thrilling from start to finish, will be the feature offering.

LeRoy, Palma and Basco, noted European magicians and illusionists, who appeared twice in this city last year, again mystified and delighted a large crowd at the Robinson Grand theater Thursday evening. The entertainment they present is exceedingly clever and the various illusions, mysterious disappearances, sleight of hand feats and the like are accomplished with such ease and skill as to baffle completely the most careful observer. Several cabinet tricks, the Hindu rope trick, and an act called "The Magic Waters," in which a large flock of ducks is made to disappear and final pantomime, in which a real lion is made to disappear before the eyes of the spectators, are among the big numbers of the bill. Watahwasco, a Penobscot Indian girl, in dances and native songs, is a new and pleasing feature of the entertainment.

Three of the Principals With the Broadway Follies," Musical Comedy Company Playing at the Palace.

De Wolfe. It features the ever popular Hebrew comedian, Martin Lee, well assisted by a clever cast including Miss Olive May Cody, "the girl with the dreamy eyes," Miss Nora Huster and Linton DeWolfe.
There are special scenery and electrical effects, and every member has a chance to prove what he can really do. Mr. De Wolfe has saved this bill for Friday and Saturday so as to be able to arrange fully the scenery and electrical effects and he has not spared any time or money toward giving a spectacular production. The chorus features latest music successes and all who miss this play will miss the treat of the season.

The photoplay offerings for today include the ninth episode of "The Diamond from the Sky," entitled "A Runaway Match." A feature of this episode is a wild ride on a train. Another two-reel Kalem thriller, "Rivals," featuring Guy Coombs and Anna Nilsson is also shown.

"The Gamblers," one of the most elaborate productions ever presented by the Lubin Photoplay Company is the feature picture offering at the Robinson Grand today. This great society drama, in five intense acts, is adapted from the celebrated novel of the same title by the late Charles Klein and presented on the screen with an all star cast of players. This notable play has a record of 400 nights at the Maxine Elliot theater in New York City. The added attraction on this program is "The Road O' Strife," in which the pathe play is good. Wally Van is on in a nice little comedy called "Cutie Fortune Hunting." "The Romance of Elaine" is also shown. Special attention is called to the fact that this beautiful serial story will close with two more numbers after this one.

Saturday, Marc McDermott and Mabel Trunelle will be seen in a four-act Edison romantic drama, "Shadows from the Past," a picture with a remarkable heart appeal. Its perfect cast, the high artistry of its presentation, and the power of a worthy message skillfully plotted, will give a great impetus and prestige to this distinctive masterpiece.
It is a companion picture to "The Stoning," which caused so much comment when shown recently at the Bijou.

King Bogart plays an interesting role in a two-part imp drama of thrills and adventure at the Star theater today. "Dr. Jekyll and Mr.
Hyde" with a superb cast of Universal stars is also shown. Sid Chaplin is run at his best in a hilarious Keystone comedy, "No One to Guide Him." "The Hills Are Calling," a beautiful mountain love drama, and "His Egyptian Affinity," a classic Nestor comedy, are also shown.

Enid Markey, the little actress, who, as Rubby McGraw, has the leading feminine role in "The Darkening Trail," a five-act picture showing today at the Orpheum, is peculiarly successful in making women
