Unusual Attention Given Dresses of Serge and Silk

And the young women seem delighted with them. There is a whole wardrobe given over to these dresses—fifty of them in almost as many different styles. The Serge Dresses are definitely fashionable for Autumn mornings and street wear. The Serge is combined with Taffeta or Satin; the collar and cuffs are of Organdie or Silk; this makes a most practical one piece dress to wear inside a long coat or without, but with furs.

The women like to take their time about buying her fine clothes for afternoon and evening, but for a dress to start the season with she can't wait.

Fifty dresses—$15.00 each.

Also Pearl of Roses is the highest expression of the rose, 25c and 50c.

Pieces of Winter Underwear—Odd - ments

And the whirling out in the underwear store goes on lively. It will take several days to sell all of the four hundred pieces. Even though you may find all sorts of good standard underwear in it for a price much lower than regular; both cotton and wools in the lot for women, boys, girls and children.

In each instance they are winter lines of underwear much broken in sizes that have been carried over from last season, of which we did not duplicate for this season. The new stocks are begging for shelf room, and it is necessary for a quick clean-up of these oddments.

20 per cent deductions.

This also applies to the house slippers, and now that the cool nights and mornings are with us, you will be calling for them.

No Time Like the Present

Warner's Corsets

Every successful gown and dress shown in the fashion displays this year absolutely demands a corset to set it off.

The so-called "corsetless" figure has passed. Dress this year demands a shaped waist line and flat silhouette in front and back, and this is not possible without a corset.

Warners Rust roof corsets show every feature necessary for current styles.

There is no time like the present for selecting your Warner's with varied models for every type of figure.

May we expect a visit today? Prices $1.00 to $3.50.

Silk Shirts

We have seventeen styles of silk shirts that cannot be duplicated.

They came from a certain New York maker who sells only to the Parsons-Souders store. These exclusive novelties for their particular trade. They are gay stripes, and some are not so gay, others quite neat and conservative.

One silk has a self-jacard weave, is 32 inches wide and is marked 50c; of which there are four new patterns.

There is a plain tub silk with gorgeous color stripings, of which there are ten effects, width 36 inches. Price $1.00 yard.

At $1.50 a yard is a soft, fine silk crepe de chine in three patterns of which the royal blue and gold combination is a bit the best we have seen.

Children's Dresses—ages 6 to 14 years—Ginghams, Galateas and Chambrays; gay plaids; plaid and plain combined and plain. 10 styles. Price $1.00.

Boys' hats in corduroy, tweeds and serge—a tableful, 50c each.

Little Girls' Coats for winter; corduroys, velvets, cloths, $5 to $7.50.

Big girls' coats, 6 to 14 years; fancy woolen mixtures, $10.

Women's Underwear

Women usually think of 25c and 50c underwear pretty much alike in value. And that is about right.

We know a manufacturer who claims to make a jersey-ribbed cotton garment of superior yarn and regards them as better than what you usually find.

And we think he's right—they are the best we know.

Union Suits, half sleeves and long pants, 50c. Extra sizes, 7, 8 and 9, 65c.

Vests, high neck and long sleeves, sizes 5 to 9's, 25c.

What a Salt Rub Will Do. Many physicians are strong advocates of the "salt rub." It is splendid for patients not too ill, and is matchless in its effects upon the skin and complexion. With all these virtues it is the simplest and most easily managed of all similar measures, and can be taken at home easily.

Put a few pounds of coarse salt—the coarsest you can get, sea salt by preference—in an earthen jar and pour enough water on it to produce a sort of slush, but not enough to dissolve the salt.

This should be taken up in handfuls and rubbed briskly over the entire person. Any one in ordinary health can do it for herself very satisfactorily.

This being done, the next thing is a thorough douching of clear water, preferably cold, and a brisk rubbing with a dry towel.

The effect of elation, freshness and renewed life is immediately felt, and the satiny texture of the skin and increased clearness and brightness of the complexion after a real salt rub swell the testimony in its favor.
