BIJOU SHOWING A GREAT COMEDY

It is "The Morning After," a Knickerbocker Film Featuring Bill Parsons.

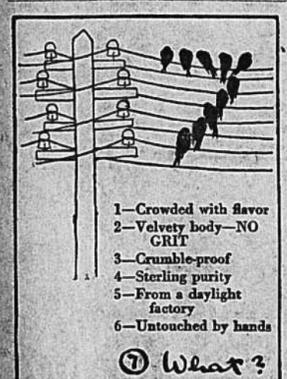

Big, smiling Bill Parsons, the noted Broadway fun maker, is on the Bijou screen today in the Knickerbocker feature, "The Morning After." If you want to laugh see it. "The Weaver of Claybank," a two-act photodrama, and a Hearst-Selig News Pictorial, are also shown. Thursday Miss Edna Mayo and Bryant Washburn will appear in the four-act Essanay drama, "Despair." This picture comes with the highest recommendation, and Miss Mayo has a part especially suited to her splendid ability. "Wilful Peggy," a two-part Kleine picture, and "In Spite of Him," a comedy, will be shown also. "The Devil's Garden," a dramatization of W. B. Maxwell's novel by Edith Ellis, is to be produced with Lyn Harding in the leading role. Marie Doro, one of the most brilliant and popular stars of the Daniel Frohman Company, whom local photoplay being presented at the Robinson Grand. For beauty of character conception, "The White Pearl" will never be surpassed, and perhaps will never be equalled, unless, indeed, Marie Doro and the Famous Players Film Company accomplish this marvelous feat. Friday and Saturday another big William H. Fox sensation, "The Family Stain," with Frederick Perry and a great cast, will be presented. Laura Nelson Hall is to appear in a one-act play by R. H. McLaughlin, author of "The Eternal Magdalene." The piece is called "Demi-Tasse." Hobart Bosworth is splendidly cast as Thomas Doyle in the Universal Broadway feature, "Colorado," which is showing today at the Orpheum theater. The story and play were written by the famous Augustus Thomas and the way it is presented is surely wonderful, the picturization and scenic beauty being beyond compare. Mr. Bosworth, who has been a professor of languages in a college, is now located in that great state, Colorado, and feels very much at home in this particular play, which is said by all the critics to be the best production in which he ever appeared. Tomorrow, the beautiful actress and legitimate stage star, Kathryn Osterman, will be starred in the great sensational drama by Paul Armstrong, "The Bludgeon," an Equitable offering in five artistically staged acts. Alice Neilson is to return to opera. She will appear in a musical version of "The Little Minister" and the score will be either by Puccini or Wolf-Ferrari. John C. Fisher has provided an excellent company for "The Pink Lady," which will be on the Robinson Grand stage Thursday afternoon and night, among the principals being Maybelle MacDonald, Ruth Strathmore, Marcia Harris, Corinne English, Steven Stott, Edmund D. Orsay, Dan Young, Abbott Worthley and Mortimer Meyer. There is a large chorus and the organization as a whole is one of the biggest that is traveling. There are many numbers in this musical play which have become justly famous, among them being "I'm Going to Be Married in June," "The Girl by the Saskatchewan," "Donny Did, Donny Didn't," "Hide and Seek," and, of course, the one number which has been heard every place, the waltz song, "Beautiful Lady."

Miss Beatrice Benedict, Who Takes the Part of the Saskatchewan Girl in "The Pink Lady."
