

"The Furniture Store of Quality" THE HOME FURNISHING COMPANY Everything For the Home. Your Credit is Good.

Commencing Monday, January 3rd, we will offer at prices which have been reduced from one-third to one-half, a number of broken suits and odd pieces. These pieces are in good condition and are offered at the greatly reduced prices simply for the reason that it is necessary for us to make room for spring goods soon to arrive. In consideration of the reduced, terms on the articles listed below will be strictly CASH.

Table listing furniture items and prices, including 'Reduced to' and '1 No. 303 White Enamel Suit, Bed, Dresser'.

Assembly Dance.

The annual New Year's eve ball given by the Assembly Club, always one of the most important social affairs of the Yuletide season, was held in the auditorium of the Masonic temple Friday night and was one of great beauty and brilliancy.

Assembly Dance.

The stage was a veritable bower of beauty. A high hedge of tall palms and vines of smilax with crimson blossoms were interlaced through an artistic white lattice.

Assembly Dance.

The galleries were filled with many guests who enjoyed looking on the gay scene below. Promptly at 9 o'clock the orchestra sounded the keynote for the dance by rendering the patriotic one step, "Hail West Virginia," followed by a brilliant program of twenty numbers. A delicious salad supper was served in the dining room from 10:30 to 11:30 o'clock, when dancing was resumed in the ball room.

Assembly Dance.

The board of governors was untiring in its efforts to make this the New Year's dance quite the most brilliant assembly of the season, and it certainly succeeded, its efforts were not in vain.

Assembly Dance.

Nearly 300 guests were present including many out of town visitors. The committee in charge of the dance consisted of John B. Hart, president; John M. Newton, vice president; and Henry C. Alexander, secretary-treasurer.

Assembly Dance.

The patronesses were Mrs. J. Hornor Davis, Mrs. J. J. Duncan, Mrs. Anson D. Parr, Mrs. George P. Leatherbury, Mrs. John W. Brown, Mrs. Richard T. Lowndes, Mrs. John Koblegard and Mrs. Henry Haymond.
