MURDERED IN AUTO HOLDUP

PROMINENT ARE PEOPLE VICTIMS OF MOST BRUTAL HIGHWAYMEN

First of the Four Shots Kills a Woman in the Automobile Party.

OTHER MEMBERS CLUBBED

After Robbing the Victims of Their Jewelry the Robbers Flee.

BUFFALO, Jan. 31.—Two persons were murdered, another probably fatally injured and a fourth severely beaten up in an automobile holdup on the Orchard Park road, near this city, early today.

The victims, prominent Buffalo residents and members of the same family, were:

MRS. AGNES M. TEIPER, aged 67, shot in head and instantly killed.

FREDERICK C. TEIPER, son, beaten to death with blunt instrument.

GRACE C. TEIPER, daughter, skull fractured, will die.

EDWARD E. Teiper, son, beaten on head and left senseless on road.

The family was returning from Orchard Park and had stopped the car a short distance south of the Terminal railroad crossing. There the party was set upon by the hold-up men. Mrs. Teiper was killed by the first of four shots fired. The men then clubbed the others and after robbing them of money and jewelry fled. A farmer living nearby heard the shots and gave the alarm.

Mrs. Teiper was the widow of Conrad Teiper, who founded the Buffalo Structural Steel Company.

Police and deputy sheriffs are looking for a negro, who is believed to have committed the crime single handed.

Edward Teiper, who is at his home in Orchard Park under care of a physician, informed the authorities that his mother, brother and sister were his guests yesterday making the trip in their machine. Shortly before he had driven into the city with his roadster and when it stalled, left it by the roadside. When his guests returned home, he started with them carrying tools to repair his own car. They stopped beside the stranded machine.

"I was working on the automobile," he told the police, "when I heard my brother shout 'Ed.' I looked up in time to ward off a big negro, but he hit me on the head and I went down and out. As I did I saw him grapple with Fred. That's about all I knew until help came."

The police found Edward staggered in on the road. The body of Mrs. Teiper was in the automobile, while that of Frederick was in the road-side. Near him lay Grace Teiper. She was breathing heavily and was taken to a hospital. At a late hour she had not recovered consciousness.

HEART DISEASE

Causes Death of Jacob Romine Well Known Farmer of West Milford.

Jacob Romine, aged 71 years, a well-known farmer of West Milford, died at 5 o'clock Sunday evening at his home, following an illness of heart disease. The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Romine home and the burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery at West Milford.

Surviving relatives of the deceased man are Mrs. Olivia Romine, his widow; Earl, Chester and Thomas Romine, sons; Mrs. R. V. Lynch, of Erie; and Mrs. Jefferson West, of this city; daughters: John Romine, a brother; and Mrs. Nancy Ney, a sister.

Mr. Romine was a son of Mrs. Mary and James Romine, pioneer settlers of the county, and had lived in the county all his life. He was a staunch member of the Democratic party and a faithful member of the Baptist church.

OFFICER BEATEN BY HIS PRISONER

Italian, Held by Police on Two Charges, Wears a Bandage on His Head.

Charged with carrying a revolver in violation of the Johnson weapon law and with resisting an officer, an Italian, who refused to give his name to the police, was jailed late Sunday night by Officer George Howe.

The Italian's arrest followed the firing of a shot through a window in the home of Morris Hampton, colored, in the rear of the corner of Baltimore and Fourth streets, Glen Elk. No one was hit by the bullet, the smashing of the window pane being the only actual damage. The shooting was reported to Officer Howe, who a few minutes later arrested the Italian. The officer says he found the revolver in the Italian's pocket. It was said that the Italian was "half drunk" when arrested.

THREE BIG SERVICES ARE HELD IN CHURCH

Edifice is Crowded to Utmost Capacity in Evening, Well Filled at Other Services.

Sunday was the greatest day of the big revival now going on in the First Methodist church. Three big services were held. The morning worship hour was a memorable one and was featured by one of Dr. Morrison's strongest sermons. Good music was rendered by the chorus which was present to a member. Mrs. Hiatt was in the city yesterday and with her husband sang special numbers at both the morning and evening services. She has a remarkably sweet voice of great range.

In the afternoon the auditorium of the church was filled to capacity with men. There was more than one thousand present. It was one of the greatest meetings of its kind ever held in this section of the state. The sermon was powerful, unique and convincing and how to make another one.

The text subject, "Who made the devil and how to make another one," was portrayed in all of the awfulness of a wasted life and the reclamation and its attendant joys.

The evening sermon was by far the most masterly and eloquent effort of Dr. Morrison in this city. He chose as his central theme the last chapter in the lives of Jesus Christ and Judas, the betrayer. The hearers were literally held spellbound as the evangelist carried them back to the lone gray hill of Calvary and in flaming word pictures fixed indelibly upon their minds the closing scenes in the world's greatest tragedy. Every act possible to call to mind was described with such mighty and versatile ability that one it seemed, could look first at the plating, sad, suffering face of the Redeemer hanging there upon the cross and then had but to turn and see the terror stricken and trembling Judas as he flung down the pieces of silver and went forth to a death by his own hand.

A great many came forward at the call for penitents, there were also several reconsecrations and one baptism. Several persons came into the church by letter.

The music is already being looked upon as a feature of the meetings and of little interest is displayed in it. Prof. Hiatt is getting the big chorus well under way now and with most gratifying results.

The officer had no trouble with his prisoner until he reached the corner of Fourth and West Pike streets. The trouble started suddenly—so sudden in fact that Officer Howe's breath was taken from him. A solar plexus blow did the work. The Italian took advantage of the officer's shortage of wind, and beat him about the face for a minute or two. In a few minutes, however, the officer had his prisoner under arrest and brought him on to the police station.

Officers on duty at headquarters today were asked in what manner Officer Howe repelled the Italian's attack. "Nobody on the day force knows," said one officer, "but a bandage, which completely covers the Italian's head, speaks for itself."

Mayor G. H. Gordon will give the Italian a hearing on the charge of resisting an officer some time today, and the prisoner will then be turned over to the county authorities on the

SEARCH

For a Missing Submarine is Continued by United States Naval Vessels.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 31.—Naval vessels continued to search the Carolina coast today for the United States submarine K-5, reported missing since 1 o'clock Sunday morning, but according to information available here their efforts had been futile.

The monitor Tallahassee and the submarines K-1, 2, and 6 came into the Charleston harbor at 9:30 o'clock this morning. They were held outside all night because of a fog.

Officers of the Tallahassee were credited with the statement that nothing had been heard of the K-5. This would indicate that the wireless apparatus of the missing submarine was out of order as the Tallahassee has used its wireless extensively in an effort to find the little vessel.

LEVEE LETS GO

At West Hickman, Ky., and the River is Flooding Factory District There.

HICKMAN, Ky., Jan. 31.—The West Hickman levee gave way early today and the Mississippi river is now flooding a large area in the manufacturing district.

The water is backing up into the business section. About 800 people are homeless.

A large force of men worked throughout Sunday and Sunday night in an effort to hold the levee against the flood, but shortly after 4 o'clock this morning the river broke through with a rush and the water quickly filled the lower part of the town.

I hope you have read the articles one with the same heading as above published in this paper Friday, the 28th, and one captioned "The City that Gets Industries," published on the second page of the Telegram, Sunday, January 30. The truth of these articles are further demonstrated by an inquiry this morning received from the president of a large Pittsburgh concern with over $1,000,000 capital, whose industry we may hope to get in Clarksburg. His questions are given below and if anyone feels like helping the secretary out in answering them, here is a chance to be heard. Everyone of these questions will be answered and answered fully, even though some of the answers will not be to our greatest credit. Kindly read them all, tighten your belt and let's boost more determinedly than ever.

ONLY BURST OF A HOSE

Train Bearing the President Leaves the Windy City for City of Milwaukee.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—President Wilson spent an hour and a half in Chicago today enroute to Milwaukee, where he speaks this afternoon.

The train bearing the president's party arrived at the La Salle street station shortly after 8 o'clock and was switched through freight yards to the Northwestern terminal until his special departed for the north at 10 a. m.

At both stations crowds numbering several thousands stood outside the gates. President Wilson appeared on the observation platform and lifted his hat to the crowds, but Mrs. Wilson remained inside the car.

While the president was standing on the rear platform shortly before the departure of the train a sharp explosion was heard. Secret service men crowded to the platform and the president, apparently somewhat startled entered the car.

A cloud of escaping steam showed that the connecting hose between the rear car and the one next forward had burst. The president soon emerged and stepping to the platform walked to where the break was being repaired.

MISSING SEAMEN

Are Picked up and Landed at Milford Haven, Wales, by a Trawler.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 31.—The seven missing seamen from the American line steamship Philadelphia were landed today by a trawler at Milford Haven, Wales. After the Philadelphia's collision Saturday with the British sailing ship Ben Lee off the coast of Wales, the seamen put off in a lifeboat to rescue the Ben Lee's crew. They became lost in the darkness and were adrift all night being finally picked up by a passing steamer.

TWO ARRESTED AS RESULT OF A RAID

Trap Door Leads to Big Lot of Whiskey in Glen Elk House.

Resulting from a raid of C. B. Cutright's dwelling at 418 North Fifth street, Glen Elk, Sunday night by county officers and the seizure of whiskey there, Mr. Cutright and his son-in-law, June Powell, were arrested Monday forenoon by Deputy Sheriffs Laco Wolfe and John Siers. They were taken to the county jail, charged with violating the prohibition law. Powell later furnished bail for his appearance before a magistrate and was released from custody.

The Cutright dwelling was raided at the instance of several neighbors, who had complained to the sheriff's office that what appeared to be a regular bootlegging business was being carried on there. Deputy Sheriff Laco Wolfe and John Vannort, special officer, concealed themselves near a window outside the house and watched for some time before making the raid. They declare that they saw Powell come into the place through the front door, raise a trap door in the flooring and take out a bottle of whiskey, which he handed to another fellow who had followed him in. Both then left by a back door.

The officers say that when they went into the house and investigated the trap door arrangement they found that it afforded access to the ground, a foot or so beneath, and that strewn upon the ground were about 150 bottles of whiskey, some in pine and the rest in quart. The whiskey was confiscated and hauled to the county jail, where it was packed in a trunk, the bottles just about filling it.
