Sale of a Thousand Remnants Tomorrow On the Basem't Floor Bargain Center

Every careful and thrifty person in Clarksburg is eagerly waiting for this annual occasion in our business year.

It is the time when we are willing and glad to lose money to clean up our stocks for the new season.

The bargains offered show the most decisive reductions on goods that are wanted in every home, and which is often in quantities too small to supply half of the people who are eager to secure it.

It is a sale of 1,000 remnants, to be held in the bargain center on basement floor. The savings are one-fourth to one-half. Included in this great mountain of remnants are:

- Remnants of Dress Goods.
- Remnants of Silk.
- Remnants of White Goods.
- Remnants of Linens.
- Remnants of Wash Fabrics.
- Remnants of Gingham.

- Remnants of Outing Flannels.
- Remnants of Flannels.
- Remnants of Linings.
- Remnants of Kimona Cloths
- Remnants of Crepes.
- Remnants of Ratinés.
- Remnants of Poplins.

What you find in this rummage is desirable dry goods. Makes little difference to you whether we have five yards of a kind or five dozen yards.

The remnant that is an oddment may be ample supply for you. All from our regular stocks, all new and perfect in every way. The bargain center on basement floor recently has seen enthusiastic bargain hunters in large numbers, but we think Wednesday morning next will outnumber any previous occasion. Extra sales folk in attendance. Sale promptly at 8 o'clock.

Silk Striped Blouses Any Woman Will Be Glad to Have--Special $3.85

In the regular course of business these would be $1.00 and more, as much as the selling price marked on them today.

They are beautifully made and have white silk high and low rolling collars. All gay, rich patterns and smartly tailored. There are two styles, one in Pussy Willow Taffeta and the other a heavy Crepe de Chine.

FINE MILLINERY For Those Who Wear Mourning

Smartest little turbans and toques to wear for early spring; such things as you will see at southern resorts just now; tailored and semi-dress styles in mourning silk and crepe, others in silk and braid combined, and a few exceptional models in all maline. All new and fresh from certain New York hatters. From $4.50 to $7.50.

On Main St., Between "2nd and 3rd"

THE MARCH OF IMPROVEMENT

A year ago we had two selling floors, 50x190 feet, with fifty odd employees to serve you.

—today there are four floors and well onto a hundred workers.

Suffice to say, in advancing this business to the place we have conceived for it—

"It can only grow upon its own capital of ideas and long thought and hopes and endeavors to attain the possibilities of development."

Even then it can not be a secret growth; the people must be cognizant of it and grow with it—AND THEY HAVE.

Rummage Sale of Waists, at 75c

There will be many styles, lingerie, linen, cotton voiles, China Silk Waists.

Some 200 of them in all sizes from 34 to 44. Being all a miscellaneous lot of styles that have lost much of their style value, but, nevertheless, no woman would be ashamed to wear.

Ready Wednesday morning in the bargain center on basement floor; 75c each, worth two and three times as much.

161 Gas Lights Will Shine in Clarksburg Homes Wednesday Night--Sale 39c

This is an offering that will probably interest every housekeeper in our city.

Gas lamps are a necessity, and mantles are always wearing out, and no good housekeeper likes dimness in the kitchen. The 161 lamps which we offer Wednesday morning are of the famous Lindsay and Welsbaugh makes, well known inverted lamps that every housekeeper likes to buy.

We have just 161 lamps to sell at 39c each, included are the burners, globe and mantle. Special, 39c.

A Group of Tin, Aluminum and Granite Ware, 50c

- 6 double boilers.
- 17 mixing bowls.
- 16 large wash basins.
- 2 turkey roasters.
- 3 flue cake pans.
- 3 Milk buckets.

Also a Large Group at 25c Each

In this group of tin aluminum and granite ware the sizes are smaller, but the assortment of items larger and the quantities greater.

- There are:
- 14 square flue cake pans.
  - 12 round flue cake pans.
  - 2 steamers.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Meeting Is Postponed.

A meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church scheduled to meet at the home of Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer on Hornor avenue Thursday afternoon has been postponed.

Will Not Meet.

Owing to several conflicting engagements of the majority of the class in the university extension course, the class will not meet Thursday of this week. The next meeting will be at a later date to be announced two or three days in advance, at which time the subject for consideration will be "Art."

Wedding Anniversary.

Local friends of the Rev. and Mrs. John Beddow, of Weston, have received invitations to attend a reception in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, which will be held at the Methodist parsonage in Weston February 3. The Rev. Mr. Beddow was formerly pastor of the Calvary Methodist Episcopal church in Moundsville.

An Excursion Trip.

The Willing Workers Society will give a social and supper to the members of the First Baptist church and congregation at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, February 8. Following is the excursion ticket each will receive: "Willing Workers excursion over the Sociability railroad from Minneapolis to Jacksonville. (Be sure and take your baggage.) Stop over privileges allowed." Rolls, ham, beans, pickles, relishes, pie and coffee will be served. There will also be a special entertainment.

Military Ball.
MORGANTOWN, Feb. 1.—West Virginia University's most elaborate social event of year took place last night when the annual military ball of the cadet corps was held in the university armory. Owing to the prevalence of illness, the attendance was much smaller than usual, there being only eighty couples, although guests from all over the state were present. Nirella's orchestra furnished the music and the program included twenty dances. Cadet Major E. A. Hamilton led the grand march, which began at 8:30 o'clock. Many beautiful gowns were worn at the ball.

Small Luncheon.
Compliments to some out of town guests Mrs. James W. Williams will entertain Wednesday at a small bridge luncheon in her home on West Main street.

Two Card Parties.
Mrs. William A. Vance has issued invitations for two card parties. Thursday afternoon she will entertain a number of her friends at progressive euchre, and on Friday evening Mrs. Vance will give a small bridge party of four tables, having as her guest of honor Mr. Thomas W. Pettigrew, of New York.

To Be Hostess.
Mrs. Lynn S. Hornor will be hostess of the Five Table Card Club from 3 to 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon in her home on West Main street.

Chicken Supper.
The Otterbein Sisters of the United Brethren church at Stealey Heights will serve a chicken supper Thursday evening in the F. I. Day building on Millford street here for the benefit of the new church. A menu of chicken, noodles, mashed potatoes, gravy, cold slaw, jelly, bread, butter, ginger bread, peaches and coffee will be served.

Mrs. Pettigrew Hostess.
Mrs. Thomas W. Pettigrew was hostess at a small theater party at the Robinson Grand Monday afternoon when Lou Tellegen appeared in "The Unknown." Later Mrs. Pettigrew entertained her guests at Welch and Fallerton's, where tea, cake and bonbons were served at small tables.

The guest list included Mrs. Henry Raymond, Mrs. James W. Williams, Mrs. Dudley D. Britt, Mrs. Benjamin R. Blackford, Mrs. Lynn S. Hornor, Mrs. Lucretia Hope and Miss Emily S. Garrard.

The floral decorations of the tables were obtained in pink carnations and sweet peas.

To clean lamp burners: Boil burner in water that beans have been partially boiled in. All tarnish will come off, leaving burner good as new.

To make house ferns grow rapidly, place four or five pieces of charcoal on top of soil; keep flowerpot in jardiniere filled with water.

When the roasting chicken or turkey looks as if it might be tough, parboil it for half an hour before putting it in the roasting pan.

After washing, before hanging out the clothes, rub the hands well with talcum powder; it will prevent them from getting chapped.

These cold days, before hanging out the clothes, wipe the lines with a cloth wrung out in salt water; it will prevent the clothes from freezing to the lines.

If you will notice, the tires on the baby carriage always wear out on the two front wheels first. When they begin to look flat change the back wheels to the front, and they will last longer.

Several towns in the county now have new municipal administrations resulting from elections held the first Thursday in January. The new regimes assumed office Tuesday. Shinnston, Lumberport, Adamston, Bridgeport, Stealey Heights, Northview and Broad Oaks are the towns which now have new administrations.
