Sketches of Little OLD NEW YORK

By Wm. Intyre

Telegram Bureau: Rooms 121-125 Hotel Majestic, West Seventy-second Street.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Three hundred members of the Dutch Treat Club have seen the first production on any stage of James Montgomery Flagg's entrance into the field of legitimate drama. It is a sea-side drama and one critic cursed the show so loudly that the curtain fell in a faint at Delmonico's, where it was perpetrated.

The office of a newspaper was taken as the subject for symbolic representation and therefore the scene was laid on the deck of a ship. This subtle touch was no doubt due to the fact that there was an old "Pinafore" set leaning around with nothing to do.

The name of the play was "The Breath of Scandal, or, The Mistress of the Seas." Howard Chandler Christy took the part of Scandal, Herb Roth of Crime, Robert Wildhack of Sporting Page and Fontaine Fox of Advertising Fake.

The song hit of the opera was "I Didn't Raise my Flagg to be a Goldberg." It went like this:
"I didn't raise my Flagg to be a Goldberg;

I wanted him to draw like Roth and Brown,
Like Christy, Irvin, Morgan, Gould and Wildhack,
So he could sell his stuff to Charley Towne.

But all he ever learned to draw was wages—
They pay him eighty thousand every week,
His drawings look like hell,
But the paper thinks they're swell,
So they've gone and made my little Flagg a Goldberg."

Jimmie Marshall is from Louisville, Ky. His father left him a fortune. He immediately turned it over to his mother because he was full of romance and wanted to choose his own career. Now he is an actor and lives on what he earns. It is quite a feat too, he says. A "sob sister" tried to get a story about him the other day but he replied that he wasn't worth a story yet, which is very unusual for an actor.

They drop out of sight quickly on Broadway. The famous personages of yesterday are never heard of except as "I knew him when." Wilson Mizner has not been seen for some months until the other day and he showed up looking quite thin. A lot of folk thought he was Bob Fitzsimmons. A few years ago Broadway buzzed with gossip about Fitz, Harry Thaw, Munyon, Sulzer, Dummy Taylor, Patti and Laura Jean Libby. They are heard of no more now.

Society girls wearing sunbonnets! They did it the other night at a dance at the Hotel Majestic. It was something new and society must do the unusual you know, else perish of ennui. They probably imagine that sunbonnets are very passe. Victor Murdock, the Kansas statesman, saw the sunbonnets and smiled.

"Out in Kansas," he said, "there are women who cling to their sunbonnets. It would be unusual if they wore anything else perhaps. No, they do not tango or drink tea. They milk, scrub and sew and other homely work—but a lot of them are furnishing the nation with stalwart young men that we may need some day."

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

HART TERRACE

There has been eight lots and one house and lot sold in this addition, and the reason they have been sold so quickly is the very low prices the lot and houses are being sold for. Just think of it, right in town lots, 30x80 ft. $700.00, and lots 29 by 66 feet, $500.00 and $600.00. Two four room cottages in this addition for sale at the very low price of $1,250 each, almost giving them away and on terms of one-third down, balance of purchase money in one and two years, equal notes at 6 per cent.

There has been a street surveyed through this property from Pike to Locust streets, known as "Hartway," and just as soon as cold weather ceases, water, sewer and gas lines will be laid and other improvements that will make the street one of the best in town. If you desire to purchase one of these lots and pay for it, we can get you the money to construct a home, or if you want to build for the purpose of renting, you can at least make from 12 to 15 per cent on the investment. There is only 14 vacant lots and four houses and lots left. Do not miss this opportunity of purchasing in the right place and at the right price.
