Charming Hostess.

BRIDGEPORT, March 21—Eleanor, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lawson, proved a charming young hostess to a number of her friends Saturday afternoon, the occasion being that of the fourth anniversary of her birth.

Appropriate games contributed to the enjoyment of all and later ice cream, cake, lemonade and candy were served from a beautifully appointed table attractively decorated with smilax, the centerpiece being the traditional birthday cake with its four candles. Beautiful shamrock hats filled with salted peanuts were used as favors. Mrs. Lawson was assisted in serving by Mrs. Thomas White and Misses Dezzie and Dulcie Lawson.

The little hostess was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

The guest list included Roscoe Stout, Wilma Reed, Leona Bartlett, Evelyn Cole, Nedra Bartlett, Martha Lawson, Sara Katherine Teter, Virginia Heckert, Ernestine Bartlett, Virginia Teter, Pauline Jones, Mildred Riley, Marjorie, Thompson, Josephine White, Jessie Louise Johnson, Fred Martin, Franklin Bartlett, Junior Jones, Elliott Thrasher, Robert Teter, Alexander Stout, William Alexander, Corder Teter, Bartlett Sutton, Lawson Bartlett, Kenneth Teter Willard Sutton, Mrs. Susan McDonald and Mrs. Myrtle Martin.

Gordon are listed among the entertainers.

The opening number will be a sacred selection, entitled "O Come to My Heart Lord Jesus," by Paul Ambrose, which will be rendered by the quartet, followed by a charming group of songs and piano solos. The second part of the program will be a song cycle known as "Flora's Holiday," replete with solos and quartets of charming selections and numbers.
