Number of Beautiful Gowns Are Worn by Her in "The Sowers."

For the first time in several photodramas, Blanche Sweet will have an opportunity to display several of her beautiful gowns in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Sowers," which is showing at the Robinson reception of Mr. C. De Mills. As the Russian princess, Mabel Van Buren will also have an opportunity to display some recent additions to her famous wardrobe. One of the most spectacular scenes will be the brilliant ball in the Russian Court. A special costumer was brought over to this country to design the 300 costumes. Miss Sweet is supported by Thomas Meighan, Theodore Roberts,

Paint Up

It has been proven, times without number, that the most economical way to paint is in using the BEST prepared pigments. The old theory that is still advocated only by your grandma, that lead alone is the best, was long since laid on the shelf. We have a paint or finish for every purpose and will be glad to give you the benefit of our advice.

need to rush about it—just drop into the Bijou and see it.

Ford Sterling furnishes a lot of fun in a two act Keystone, "The Snow Cure."

This is the last week of Triangle at the Bijou. Next week a personally picked program will be introduced, the pictures changing daily.

A comedy by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazzard is to be produced in New York in August. The play, which is called "Like Mother, Made," has had a tryout in Atlantic City and Hartford and has a cast including Forrest Winant, Louise Rutter and Roy Fairchild.

Mae Murray, the Lasky-Paramount star, is playing the part of a street waif in the new picture, which is just being written and directed by Cecil D. De Mille. In this Miss Murray has an opportunity to display her wonderful dancing ability to the tune of a hand organ in the gutter of a Bowery street. Theodore Roberts is also prominent in the cast.

The Hippodrome management yesterday forwarded by special messenger to President Wilson a manuscript copy of the new song by R. H. Burnside and Raymond Hubbell, "For the Honor of the Flag," which is dedicated to the chief executive of the nation. The copy is handsomely engraved and its cover carries a picture of the capitol and a portrait of Mr. Wilson. "For the Honor of the Flag" will be introduced for the first time at the Hippodrome Friday night when the four hundredth performance of "Hip Hip Hooray" will be given.

Overcoming inherited criminal instincts by sheer force of will power, is the all absorbing theme on which "The Power of Mind," a forthcoming American-Mutual three part feature, starring Edward Coxen and Lizette Thorne is founded.

So many spectacular cabaret and restaurant scenes have been called for by the different episodes of "The Social Pirates" that Director James Horne has found it cheaper to keep a full orchestra on hand than to engage it for the particular days needed.

"A Brazilian Honeymoon" has been produced in New Haven by the Shuberts, with Marguerite Namara in the leading role. Dolly Castles, Marion Ballou, Frances Demarest and Hal Forde were seen also in the cast.

Raymond Hitchcock is to appear next season in a London success, "Betty" under the joint management of Charles Dillingham and Oliver Morosco. In this musical comedy, he will portray an English earl.
