MISS BLANCHE SWEET, LASKY-PARAMOUNT STAR.

Grand today. The story of Russian political intrigue, founded upon Henry Seton Merriman's novel of the same name, was written especially for Miss Sweet by Marion Fairfax, and produced under the personal direction of Mr. C. De Mille. As the Russian princess, Mabel Van Buren will also have an opportunity to display some recent additions to her famous wardrobe. One of the most spectacular scenes will be the brilliant ball in the Russian Court. A special costumer was brought over to this country to design the 300 costumes. Mabel Van Buren, H. B. Carpenter, Ernest Joy and other prominent members of the Lasky Company. The added attraction today is the Paramount Pictograph.

Mimi Agulia, of the Sicilian Players, who made a sensation by her emotional acting some seasons ago, is going to star in English if a play can be found suitable to her personality.

Kitty Gordon, the international star, seen today at the Orpheum in "Her Maternal Right," which was written expressly for her by Willard Mack, author of "Klock In" and other legitimate successes. The role given her fits her like a glove, and even better than was anticipated, her performance being a great revelation to the critics who were at the first showing of this five-part feature when it was given the acid test of criticism in the projection room of the World Film Corporation.

Tomorrow, Violet Mercereau will appear in a Blue Bird offering, "The Great Problem," a society drama in five acts.

Virginia Fox Brooks, who will be remembered here as the young prima donna in Leo Ditrichstein's production of "The Great Lover," will play Anna Page in Sir Herbert Tree's production of "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

Paint Up

It has been proven, times without number, that the most economical way to paint is in using the BEST prepared pigments. The old theory that is still advocated only by your grandma, that lead alone is the best, was long since laid on the shelf. We have a paint or finish for every purpose and will be glad to give you the benefit of our advice.

need to gush about it—just drop into the Bijou and see it.

Ford Sterling furnishes a lot of fun in a two act Keystone, "The Snow Cure."

This is the last week of Triangle at the Bijou. Next week a personally picked program will be introduced, the pictures changing daily.

A comedy by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazard is to be produced in New York in August. The play, which is called "Like Mother Made," has had a tryout in Atlantic City and Hartford and has a cast including Forrest Winant, Louise Rutter and Roy Fairchild.

Mae Murray, the Lasky-Paramount star, is playing the part of a street wail in the new picture, which is just being written and directed by Cecil D. De Mille. In this Miss Murray has an opportunity to display her wonderful dancing ability to the tune of a hand organ in the gutter of a Bowery street. Theodore Roberts is also prominent in the cast.

The Hippodrome management yesterday forwarded by special messenger to President Wilson a manuscript copy of the new song by R. H. Burnside and Raymond Hubbell, "For the Honor of the Flag," which is dedicated to the chief executive of the nation. The copy is handsomely engrossed and its cover carries a picture of the capitol and a portrait of Mr. Wilson. "For the Honor of the Flag" will be introduced for the first time at the Hippodrome Friday night when the four hundredth performance of "Hip Hip Hooryay" will be given.

Overcoming inherited, criminal instincts by sheer force of will power, is the all absorbing theme on which "The Power of Mind," a forthcoming American-Mutual three part feature, starring Edward Coxen and Lisette Thorne is founded.

So many spectacular cabaret and restaurant scenes have been called for by the different episodes of "The Social Pirates" that Director James Horne has found it cheaper to keep a full orchestra on hand than to engage it for the particular days needed.

"A Brazilian Honeymoon" has been produced in New Haven by the Shuberts, with Marguerite Namara in the leading role. Dolly Castles, Marion Ballou, Frances Demarest and Hal Forde were seen also in the cast.

Raymond Hitchcock is to appear next season in a London success, "Betty," under the joint management of Charles Dillingham and Oliver Morosco. In this musical comedy he will portray an English earl.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove it

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for castor oil, cleanse the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous cathartics does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
