SOUTHERN BEAUTIES MAKING A BIG HIT

At the Palace Theater, and They Will Change Their Program Tonight.

Tassell & Young's Southern Beauties are making a hit at the Palace theater where their refined and laughable musical comedies are attracting large audiences, and will no doubt completely fill the theater for the remainder of their engagement here. As a rule the first bill presented by a company is their best, but with the Southern Beauties Company the second bill proved better than the first and Manager Tassell promises that the bill for today will be equally as good as the first two presented by his splendid company.

The chorus girl contest proved to be a great feature and every member of the chorus received great applause. There is a change of program today and the bill to be presented for the last two days of this week will be "Finnigan's Alley," introducing new songs, dances and novelty musical numbers assisted by the famous Castle Square quartet.

The Hippodrome show, "Hip, Hip, Hooray," is to go on their next season, visiting Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Paul and Chicago. It will require two special trains to transport the big production and all its requirements. The New York at-which will be produced this summer in Los Angeles by Oliver Morosco. The attraction again today at the Robinson Grand will be Theda Bara in the late William Fox release, "Sapho." The theater has held some very large crowds since it started pictures, but never in the history of the house has the crowd been quite so large as the one which attended last night; in fact the police were called upon to aid the management to hold the enormous crowd back. The added attraction tomorrow will be Fannie Ward and Sessue Hayakawa, the wonderful Japanese actor, in the Lasky production, "The Cheat." As an added attraction tomorrow "Mutt and Jeff" will appear in a very laughable one reel comedy. The Bray cartoons will also be on the bill.

Lucy Beaumont, who played the role of Susan Quinney in "Quinneys," has been engaged by David Belasco for the supporting company of Francis Starr in her new play.

The following telegram received today from the manager of the Broadway theater by Manager Simeral of the Bijou, shows the great popularity of the celebrated comedian, Charlie Chaplin, who appears at the Bijou theater today and Saturday in Essanay's four act burlesque on "Carmen":

JOE NASSUR

Middleweight Champion. Coming Here with the Great American Shows.

Joe Nassur, middleweight champion wrestler, will present before the public for open matches and bouts, six well known wrestlers and boxers. If there are any men with talent of that kind in the community kindly ask them to make it known by calling on Mr. Nassur at the big athletic show, at the Norwood Baseball Club Carnival at the old Clarksburg mill lot at the junction of Pike and Main streets, June 12 to 17, and Mr. Nassur will make it very profitable for them during the stay of his athletic show in Clarksburg. Wrestling and boxing has become a very popular sport, which is entertaining for the ladies as well as for the men. If there be a lady wrestler or boxer it would please Mr. Nassur very much to make a match for them, as he wishes it to be known that the Great American Shows class the athletic show as one of its foremost attractions. Now, boys, get ready, as you know our price. If you can meet the champion and stay according to agreement, you could earn one dollar a minute. Gee, but you could make yourself a bank roll, if you stay one year.—Advertisement.

"Charles Chaplin burlesque on "Carmen" took spectators by storm on first showing at Broadway theater. Police reserves called out to keep crowds back."

"Carmen," as all the world knows, is the classic tale of love and passion written by a Frenchman and so appealing, it has been translated into every language and made into play, into an opera, and now into a photo play. Chaplin as the popular torador and Edna Purvance as "Carmen" are the big hits. The situations in the story are brought out in such effect to make at one continuous laugh.

"The Iron Claw," will be added Friday.

Saturday's added attraction will be "The Hazards of Helen," and a Sime Hopkins comedy.
