

Tailoring Summer Fabrics To Your Individual Order

Perhaps you've noticed that the usual run of summer garments don't fit. The reason is that they are simply thrown together without regard for the physical proportions of the customer.

In marked contrast to this, the "UNITED" uses identically the same careful methods in providing well fitting garments of summer fabrics as with other materials.

We tailor coat and trousers of Cheney Bros. pure silk for $15, and coat and trousers of genuine "PALM BEACH" cloth for $8.50 or two for $15.

State's 53d Birthday To Be Generally Celebrated

Big Dinner In Charleston

Telephone Connections All Over the State—Great Speeches Will Be Distributed In Advance of the Event—Special Gatherings Everywhere.

Parkersburg, June 12.—As the day approaches for the entire State of West Virginia to celebrate the fifty-third birthday, as proclaimed by Governor Hatfield, and to sit down to a birthday dinner of West Virginia products on June 20, the office of Henry H. Archer, Secretary of the West Virginia Board of Trade, becomes more and more a center of feverish activity. Telephone and telegraph messages are pouring in, announcing arrangements from various communities or asking questions. Then, too, hundreds of letters are coming in, mostly written by childish hands, enlisting the writers in membership with the West Virginia Board of Trade. Children all over the State are showing their desire to join the Junior branch, wear the birthday button on June 20 and place on their walls the Junior certificate. Many cases are known where children have earned the membership fee of ten cents before sending it in.

The Parent Celebration.
All details are now arranged for a public birthday dinner, to be held in Charleston. The Armory there will be tested to its capacity. Tables will be set to accommodate 2,000 men and women. The serving of this immense dinner will be directed by the Young Women's Christian Association of Charleston, and the waiters will be 53 young women and 53 young men, specially selected from Charleston's families.

Greetings From President Wilson.
In response to an invitation from Senator W. E. Chilton, President Wilson has consented to speak over the phone, from the White House, to the assembled guests in Charleston. Before he utters his greetings, he will be introduced over the phone by Senator Chilton, who will stand at his side in Washington. The Bell Telephone Company is arranging to equip several hundred of the seats at the Charleston dinner with individual receivers, so that many can hear the message from the President. This company will also connect other leading points of the State with the Armory in Charleston so that the chairman of each of these scattered dinners may send greetings to the chairman at Charleston.

State-Wide Topics.
The chairman of the great dinner in Charleston will be ex-Senator Davis Elkins, grandson of the late Henry Gassaway Davis, "The Grand Old Man of West Virginia." The speakers and their topics follow:

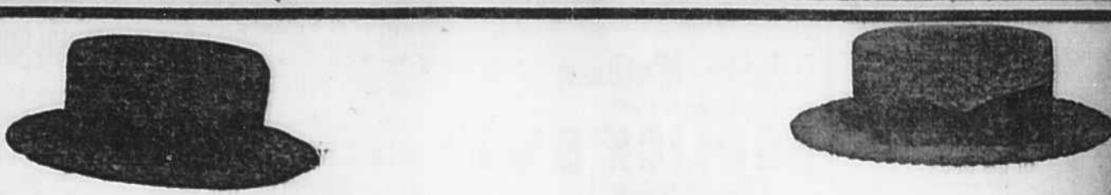

CHAS. CAMERON LEWIS, JR., President W. Va. Board of Trade. Charles Cameron Lewis, Jr., in speaking on the subject "The Mission of the West Virginia Board of Trade," will set forth plans for bringing all the facts of the State together and rendering them available for all the State and for all the world.

CONFERENCE

Of Colored Methodists Pleased with Brandeis and Justice Hughes.

The second day's session of the district conference at the African Methodist Episcopal church was opened at 9:30 a. m. Devotional services were conducted by the Revs. Jenkins and Mason. At the close of the devotional services, the presiding elder called for reports as follows:

The financial condition of the church.

The church and social service.

How to keep a wide-awake prayer meeting.

The means necessary to make the church more prosperous financially.

These reports were read by the Revs. J. T. Gibbons, T. Herman Gow, J. M. Henderson, W. E. Gibbons and G. Horace Jenkins. Each of these reports elicited helpful discussion.

After the discussion the chairman, the Rev. R. R. Downs, called attention to the nomination of Louis E. Brandeis, a Jew, as associate justice on the bench of the supreme court by President Wilson. A resolution was adopted approving the appointment of Brandeis and a telegram of congratulations was wired to Mr. Brandeis.

In addition a resolution was adopted for Charles E. Hughes, the presidential nominee, and a telegram was sent. He was congratulated on the signal acknowledgment of his worth and eminence of character to insure the ultimate success of his party and a greater national career as the nation's chief.

Recess was then taken.

The afternoon session was called to order at 2:30 by Dr. Downs. The report of the committee on finances was read by the Rev. G. Horace Jenkins, which report was adopted.

The Rev. N. W. Brown spoke of the service of the Rev. R. R. Downs as a presiding elder; of his sterling worth, and the high moral tone of his character and what he has done for the work in West Virginia.

He also made a motion that the members of conference present the elder with a handsome suit as an expression of their appreciation. The motion was unanimously carried and the Rev. F. Herman Gow, of Charleston, was appointed to take charge of the funds.

The Sunday school convention was organized at the rise of the conference. The Rev. J. T. Gibbons was elected chairman, and Miss Lila G. Benson, of Bluefield, secretary.

The evening services were opened at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Gibbons in charge, giving an excellent sermon on play and religion, or should a Christian go to theaters and dances, or play cards, billiards, pools, etc.

Miss Gertrude Downaway read a splendid paper, followed by an address by the Rev. W. E. Gibbons.

The presiding officer, the Rev. J. T. Gibbons, in appropriate terms, introduced Major Gordon, of Clarksburg, who was received with applause.

The mayor spoke in terms of felicitous greeting and paid glowing tributes to the influence of the individual on the community, saying that if one were to fully appreciate one's influence one should be surprised at its far reaching effect.

The Rev. Brown, of Bluefield, responded in appropriate terms, accepting the hearty greetings on behalf of the city and speaking of the work and success of the church. He was not unkind of the co-operation and substantial material help that has come from the white citizens.

Dr. Henderson was presented and addressed himself more especially

HOW TO BE SLIM

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system, or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to Bland's Drug Store, Farrell's Drug Store, or any good druggist and get a box of Oil of Korein capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body. It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.—Advertisement.

to the significance of an official welcome. In the course of his remarks he emphasized the loyalty of the colored people and useful citizenship, insisting that the very name "America" means opportunity.

The excellent choir of Prides chapel made the service one of complete inspiration.

At the close of the service the delegation and visitors retired to the reception room, where an excellent repast was served by the local church.
