

PERSHING WARNED BY TREVINO

AMERICANS TO MAKE NO MOVE

Pershing is Told He Must Not Move South, West or East in Mexican Territory.

AN ATTACK IS THREATENED

War Department Says Pershing is Prepared for Any Possible Eventuality.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—General Funston advised the war department today that he was informed by General Bell at El Paso that General Pershing had been warned by General Trevino, the Carranza commander at Chihuahua, that any movement of the American expedition to the south, west or east would be a signal for an attack by the Mexican forces.

No word has come so far from General Pershing himself, but even before the arrival of General Funston's message, department officials were inclined to credit newspaper despatches telling of the Trevino warning.

OUTLAW BAND ACTIVITIES LOOKED AFTER ON BORDER

SAN ANTONIO, June 17.—General Funston and his staff gave careful attention today to the activities of outlaw bands along the Mexican border but far greater interest was displayed in the attitude being assumed by the troops of the de facto government.

General Hicout's warning that the crossing of the international boundary by American troops for any cause would be regarded as an overt act and would be the cause for an attack by the de facto government troops did not disturb General Funston.

CONSULS ARE ORDERED TO COME BACK HOME

SAN ANTONIO, June 17.—The arrival at Laredo today of Phillip Hanna, consul general at Monterey, developed the fact that the state department ordered both him and J. H. Silliman, consul at Saltillo, to the American side of the river.

MUCH UNREST EXISTS NEAR MONTEREY CITY

LAREDO, Tex., June 17.—There is an undercurrent of unrest, according to reliable reports here, among the Mexican civilians and soldiers in the territory between Monterey and Nuevo Laredo. It has become openly known that General Carranza has given orders that if American soldiers enter those sections of Mexican territory not already occupied by Mexican troops, it would be considered an act of war and the Mexicans have orders to give battle.

WILD REPORTS APPEAR IN MEXICAN "SHEETS"

SAN ANTONIO, June 17.—Texas is in the throes of a revolution, led by negroes, who are seeking independence for this state and complete equality with the whites, according to a special despatch from Saltillo, Coahuila, published June 15 in an extra of La Voz De La Patria at Piedras Negras. Copies of the Mexican newspaper were received here today.

Jack Curley, Noted Fight Promoter, is in the City

Man Who Staged the Willard-Johnson Battle Here Representing Circus.

Jack Curley, prize fight promoter and one of the best known men in the world of sports, blew into town today with a happy smile on his face and a hand shake for every member of the sporting fraternity hereabouts. Curley is manager of the athletic features of the Sells-Floto circus, which exhibits here next Wednesday, and he was enthusiastic over the merits of that department of the circus. He had a right to be enthusiastic over the sporting features of the circus, for the organization carries the two world's champions of the mat and roped arena—Frank Gotch and Jess Willard.

Tinplate Men to Hold Annual Picnic July 8

Employees of the Phillips Sheet and Tinplate Company will hold their third annual picnic at Norwood park Saturday, July 8. A feature of this year's picnic is the invitation extended to the public to attend. There will be an ox roast and everyone is invited to come out and help the tinplate employees eat the delicacies they will have on hand for the occasion.

DEDICATION

Of New Sunday School Rooms and Remodeled Church at Northview.

Beginning at 10:30 Sunday morning an all day service will be held at the Barnes memorial Baptist church at Northview, in which will take place the dedication of the new Sunday school rooms and remodeled church building. The Rev. T. B. Lawler, of Shinnston, will have in charge the dedicatory service, preaching the sermon in the morning at 11 o'clock. Other speakers will give short addresses at the afternoon services. Dinner in abundance will be served at the church. A program for the night is being provided for.

ROOSEVELT

Is Better Today and He Hopes to Return to Oyster Bay. NEW YORK, June 17.—Theodore Roosevelt passed a comfortable night, coughing a little but not violently and today was stronger. He hoped to return to Oyster Bay in the afternoon. The colonel, his physicians announced, has suffered a slight attack of pleurisy. They consider his condition satisfactory.

SUNK

Sunk is a British Destroyer in the English Channel in Collision.

LONDON, June 17.—The British destroyer Eden has been sunk. Thirty-one members of the crew were saved. Three officers are missing. The Eden was sunk in the English channel last night after a collision. This announcement was made by the official press bureau.

MEETINGS CLOSE.

The evangelistic meetings being conducted by the Revs. Karl Wittman, of Toledo, O., and F. J. Topping, of Grafton, at Union Heights, will come to a close Sunday evening. Two services will be held Sunday, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening. The meetings have been very successful, over forty persons having been converted.

The Saltillo despatch says the information was brought there by travelers from Laredo. "The revolutionists, who are in great numbers, have already blown up many trains and torn up great stretches of track," the despatch says.

LUNACY CASE.

A warrant has been issued against Morgan Wahl, colored, upon complaint of H. M. Schutte, of Adams-town, charging him with being a lunatic. He is in jail. The county lunacy commission will examine him later.

NEW ASSISTANT MANAGER.

James Walker Wooddel, Jr., is the name of the new assistant manager of the Waldo hotel who arrived at that popular hostelry between 4 and 5 o'clock Saturday morning. He is the first son in the family and the father and mother and three sisters are wild with joy over his arrival. Mr. Wooddel, if the old order prevailed, would be serving wines at the Waldo, serving them, free, in celebration of the stork's visit. The junior J. W. is a healthy youngster and the mother is getting along quite well.

VOTING

Will Be Brisk during the Closing Hours of the Triple Vote Offer.

Tonight at 9 o'clock marks the close of the triple vote offer which has been in force since the opening of the Telegram's "10,000 Club" a few days ago. All the members are alive to the fact that this is an exceptional opportunity to get votes for a small amount of business and voting will be brisk up to the closing hour tonight. Remember that you can get votes today that will have to be paid for later and votes are what you will have to have in order to win. To those who have not started yet, we would say that it is hardly fair to your friends, to let them pay their subscriptions and place the votes to your credit and you not even make a start.

Public Cordially Invited to Assist in Eating a Roasted Ox.

Employees of the Phillips Sheet and Tinplate Company will hold their third annual picnic at Norwood park Saturday, July 8. A feature of this year's picnic is the invitation extended to the public to attend. There will be an ox roast and everyone is invited to come out and help the tinplate employees eat the delicacies they will have on hand for the occasion. A conservative estimate is that there will be 5,000 persons in attendance at the picnic. Those having charge of the arrangements for the picnic stated today that the representation from the tinplate company, including the families of the employees, will be over 2,000. About 3,000, and probably more, citizens will no doubt accept the generous invitation to attend the picnic.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Are Suggested as Substitutes for the County Institutes for Teachers.

A conference of county institute instructors and county superintendents of schools was held in the Washington Irving high school building here Saturday morning, presided over by M. P. Shawkey, state superintendent of schools. It was attended by about forty persons. The main question submitted by the state superintendent and discussed by those present was: "What to do with the County Institutes?"

BOULKE KILLED

According to the Prevalent Belief of the City of London, England.

LONDON, June 17.—Captain Boelke, the champion German aviator who received an autographed letter from the emperor recently complimenting him on his success in bringing down French aeroplanes, is believed to have been killed in an aerial combat with the French aviator Roger Ribrie. A Fokker painted yellow and of the type known to have been piloted by Boelke, was shot down by Ribrie two days ago between the German and French lines at Verdun.

STATE BOARD

Of Education Will Hold Meetings Here to Pass on Certificates and the Like.

The state board of education will meet tonight in room 204 of the Waldo hotel and hold sessions until Tuesday night inclusive, with Sunday excepted. The board will issue life certificates, pass on normal departments of high schools and on classes of the normal department of denominational schools in the state. The recently appointed member of the board is J. A. French, county superintendent of McDowell county. The other members are M. P. Shawkey, of Charleston, president; F. L. Burdette, of Clarksburg, school superintendent; Dr. J. N. Deahl, of Morgantown; a member of the state university faculty; Prof. Walter Barnes, of Fairmont, a member of the Fairmont normal school faculty; and J. D. Garrison, of Middlebourne, principal of the Tyler county high school.

ADMIRAL FISKE RECEIVES UNIQUE ALBUM AND BOUQUET ON RETIREMENT

WASHINGTON, June 17.—On his retirement from the navy because of old age, Rear Admiral Fiske was the recipient of two unique gifts. One was a scrapbook album containing correspondence, newspaper and magazine clippings and articles from all over the country relating to his recent controversy with Secretary of the Navy Daniels in regard to naval efficiency. The other was a red, white and blue bouquet of flowers presented by the daughters of the American Revolution through the society's president, Mrs. William Cummings Story. The bouquet was composed of red carnations, white peonies and blue cornflowers. Rear Admiral Fiske was born in Lyons, N. Y., June 13, 1854, and was appointed to the Naval Academy in 1870. In 1889 he devised an apparatus for lowering boats in a seaway; in the same year he invented a naval telescope sight; in 1892 he produced the stadiometer, by means of which the distance of a ship can quickly be measured if the height of mast is known; in 1896 he invented the electric warning whistle, by means of
