

Blue Ribbon Feature Is Showing at Bijou

It is "The Alibi," With Betty Howe and James Morrison in the Leading Parts.

"The Alibi," a five act Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature with Betty Howe and James Morrison in the principal parts, is the feature today at the Bijou theater. It is a story of an assistant cashier who was tempted, and who failed to steal, but who was caught in the crash when a steal was discovered.

nearly five hundred people took part in the scenes. Formerly the ranchers in the vicinity of the Lasky place turned out en masse for the big scenes, but now when they see a lurid glare in the sky in the dead of night, they merely remark, "Them there Laskys is up to their doin's again," and then return to their peaceful sleep. The added attraction is the Burton Holmes Travels.

from another source. Of course the banker had a beautiful daughter and also of course she got into the affair. It is a good picture and will please.

Thursday, two of America's leading actresses will be at the Bijou. Billie Burke in "The Midnight Riot" chapter thirteen of "Gloria's Romance," and Florence Turner in "Doorsteps," a five act Mutual star comedy.

Two hundred thousand feet of negative was shot in filming the big feature "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," based on a story by Jules Verne, which is now being assembled. It will consist of from ten to twelve reels.

Mrs. Blanche Rice, the widow of the late Billy Rice, the famous minstrel and comedian, is in "God's Half Acre," in the Metro-Rolle motion picture in which Mabel Tallafiero is the star. In her youth Mrs. Rice was a protegee of the famous singer, Parepa Rosa. Mme. Rosa wanted to adopt her and educate her for grand opera, but the girl's marriage to the comedian caused her to give up all thought of a stage career for twenty-six years. It was not until Charles Frohman's production of "Rupert of Hentzau," that Mrs. Rice returned to the stage, playing the part of Mother Hoff. Since then she has appeared under the management of Henry W. Savage and of David Belasco, as well as in other Frohman productions. She has been in the cast of "Du Barry," "The Merry Widow," and has appeared in the support of Elsie Janis and other stars. She has now adopted motion picture acting as a profession and is also engaged in writing scenarios.

A small village was burned one night recently for the filming of "The Selfish Woman," the Wallace Reid-Cleo Ridgley production which is showing at the Grand today under the direction of the Lasky company. It is a Paramount release. The village was selected at the Lasky ranch and Peace," with no advance in prices, will be the feature, and the Beatrice Fairfax story, "Billie's Romance," will be the added attraction.

Not since she appeared in the big London Gaiety production, "Tonight's the Night," which served to introduce her to American audiences, has Kamy Wehlen been seen upon the stage. Motion pictures have occupied all her time since.

Mary Miles Minter, youngest of the Mutual stars, has been christened Mary "Smiles" Minter by her friends.

Dorothy Davenport and Emory Johnston are starred in "The Yoke of Gold," a Red Feather photoplay, at the Orpheum theater today. The story is laid in the days of the California missions, when that part of the United States was infested with Mexicans and Spaniards. It contains many thrilling events and its scenic effects are unsurpassed. The whole offering is splendid and will please all who see it. Francis Ford and Grace Cunard appear in chapter thirteen of "Peg o' the Ring," the famous circus romance, as an added attraction.

Tomorrow, J. Warren Kerrigan assisted by a pleasing cast, will be seen in "The Silent Battle," a Blue Bird offering in five acts.

The sketch, "The Meenest Man in the World," by Everett Ruskey, in which Allan Dinehart is appearing, is to be expanded into a three-act play for presentation next season.

It is said that E. H. Sothern has entered into an agreement to act in moving pictures, taking his success in the speaking drama. It is thought "David Garrick" will be the first play to be presented.

Klaw and Erlanger are to make an elaborate dramatic production next fall of a play by Bayard Veiller, with the title "Danger." The piece tells a Scene from "The Man Who Would Not Die"

President Samuel S. Hutchinson of the American Film Company, Inc., announces the release of the latest five-reel feature of the William Russell series. It is "The Man Who Would Not Die," for August 31.

The theme is based on the lives of twin brothers, totally unlike in disposition and mode of life, although identical in size and appearance. The dissolute brother marries a rich girl for her money, after she has been given up by his twin brother because of lack of fortune. The story carries forceful portrayals of self-sacrifice, love, intrigue, strength and weakness of character; ending in the dominance of good, love and happiness.

William Russell and Charlotte Burton are the principals. Luxurious and appropriate settings, scenic splendors, virile acting and excellent photography, all under the direction of Mr. Russell, make this a strong contribution to the series of William Russell features.

Like a Boy at 50 Bubbling Over With Vitality--Taking Iron Did It

Doctor says Nuxated Iron is greatest of all strength builders—Often increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous folks 200 per cent, in two weeks time.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a prescription for his ailments. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man. In fact a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking Nuxated Iron. He had filled him with iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prizefighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the fray, while many another has gone down to ignominious defeat simply for the lack of iron.—E. Sauer, M. D.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. This manufacturer has such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $1000 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days time. It is dispensed by all druggists.
