They refused to disperse and were charged by Hussars. Five Hussars were killed and forty wounded and about forty civilians were killed and three hundred armed with revolvers were arrested.

BROKEN PROMISE RECORD IS SHOWN

Nominee Hughes Calls Democrats to Account in His Peoria Speech.

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 20.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president, said in his speech here Tuesday: "Our opponents present a record of broken promises. They promised to reduce the cost of living. They have not touched it."

They promised to prevent waste and extravagance. They have been more extravagant in the recent Congress, as I am informed on unimpeachable authority, than any preceding Congress.

Our opponents promised to supply the principles of the merit system. They have betrayed the merit system. Our opponents promised to reduce useless offices. Instead they have created useless offices.

Fail to Protect Citizens. Our opponents promised that the rights of American citizens should be maintained throughout the world, their rights with respect to life and property. They have shamelessly failed to perform that promise.

Acts are facts, and extravagant claims cannot deceive the intelligent electorate. Our opponents claim they have clarified the anti-trust law by definition. I may say here and now that they have done nothing of the sort. They claim to have recuperated the merchant marine. They have done nothing of the sort.

The federal reserve act as indorsed by the administration and presented to Congress was a wholly unworkable bill. It was finally worked out by students and others until it emerged in different form, but that system as it is contains dangerous possibilities of inflation.

Child Labor Not Emancipated. Our opponents claim to have emancipated child labor. As a body they have not emancipated child labor. If our opponents are genuinely devoted to the interests of children let them act in states under their control and in the United States.

It is said that American business has been added—and it is the most extraordinary claim of all—by the passage of the Underwood law. There is the true relation of our opponents to our American enterprise. It was a bill which closed factories, halted industry and sent forth our working men in hundreds of thousands upon the street looking for employment.

An aid to business—yes, that is the conception of our opponents of what is an aid to American industry. The sooner we get away from that situation and trust American enterprise and believe in the Republican doctrine of protection to American industry, the sooner we will lay the basis for enduring prosperity in this country.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Sept. 20.—President Wilson swung into campaign form Wednesday. With his plan for discussing public questions before non-partisan organizations instead of making campaign tours fully decided upon, he actively took up his political plans after a lull of more than a week caused by the illness and death of his sister, Mrs. Anna E. Howe.

Administration leaders here predicted that from now on there will be plenty of activity in the Democratic campaign. The attacks of Charles E. Hughes, they say, will be fully met by the president himself, members of his cabinet and by Democratic leaders who will tour the country.

FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT IN JUSTICE'S COURT

Results in Lawyer Duthie Swearing Out a Warrant against John Siers.

Resulting from a free-for-all fight which occurred in Magistrate Jackson V. Carter's court Tuesday evening at the conclusion of the trial of Frank Caparatto, a Water street merchant, who had been charged with violating the prohibition law, G. H. Duthie, a well-known member of the bar, swore out a warrant in Magistrate Carter's court Wednesday morning for John S. Siers, an employee of Sheriff Ross F. Stout, charging him with assault and battery, and Dominick Serrao said he intended to swear out a similar warrant against John Vannort, a similar officer.

Magistrate Carter dismissed the warrant against Caparatto when the witnesses for the state failed to prove that the liquid in ten beer bottles found in a refrigerator at his store on Water street was beer.

As the crowd was leaving the court room, Mr. Duthie alleges, John Siers said "the dirty hunkie dog will now give it to his friends". Mr. Duthie resented this and told Siers that he must not talk that way about his client.

Other words followed between the two and Duthie alleges that Siers struck him in the mouth with his fist, knocking one of his teeth loose. At this point Dominick Serrao stepped between Duthie and Siers to prevent any further blows being struck and Mr. Duthie alleges Vannort struck Serrao in the face, and Siers tried to hit Duthie again. Mr. Duthie said he seized a chair to protect himself but Constable Reuben J. Bartlett, who was one of the state witnesses, pushed him into a corner and would not let him use the chair. Cooler heads interfered and the fight was stopped.

Magistrate Carter took no action in the matter last night and when asked Wednesday morning whether he was going to do anything about the affair he said he would make no statement yet.
