Maccabees to Meet.
There will be a business meeting of the Maccabee Rifle Company tonight at 8 o'clock at the Economy furniture store. Plans are being made to secure a suitable armory for drill practice, as it is getting too cool to drill outside. The main business to be discussed tonight is about the next general encampment of the different Maccabee rifle companies, which will take place along Lake Erie somewhere. The Stonewall Jackson Maccabee Rifle Company of this city is endeavoring to go and plans will be laid so that every member will be able to attend and enjoy this outing next summer.

Will Meet Tonight.
The Macedonian Bible class of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South, will meet tonight, beginning at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Gordon B. Grisdor at 139 West Pike street.

Miss Gordon is Appointed.
Miss Susan G. Gordon, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. G. H. Gordon, has been appointed organizer in Clarksburg for the West Virginia Republican Women's Club by Mrs. Todd Sharpe, the state organizer, who has been in the city several days in the interests of the organization. Mrs. Virgil L. Highland, Mr. Frank B. Haymaker and other prominent Republican women are to co-operate in the activities of the club.

To Hold Convention.
The Third district convention of the Pythian Sisters will be held all day Tuesday in the Pythian hall on Third street. All members of Fern Leaf temple are urged to attend. There will be an evening session with refreshments.

To Meet Tuesday.
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. N. W. Musgrave in her home at Stealey Heights at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday. "Korea" will be the subject for discussion with Mrs. Mortimer Smith as leader.

Club to Meet.
The Marcato Choral Club will hold its weekly rehearsal of the opera "Faust" at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening in the Central Christian church. All members are urged to be present. Mrs. Lee Williams, director, and Mrs. Homer Williams, pianist, will be in charge.

To Hold Reception.
Invitations are issued Monday by Mrs. Henry Raymond for a reception

"THE LAST CARTRIDGE," A DRAMATIC MOMENT IN ALSATIAN RUIN

This picture was granted first prize as the most realistic war photo ever taken at the recent War Photographic Exposition held in Paris. It shows a little group of French soldiers trapped in a ruined Alsatian village and about to use the only remaining cartridge. A wounded soldier is handing his last bullets to a companion and an officer who has been hit is seen dropping his rifle.

which she will give from 3 to 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon in her home on West Main street, complimentary to her granddaughter, Mrs. James Edwin Watson, Jr., of Fairmont.

To Meet.
At 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South, will hold a meeting in the church, which will be in charge of Mrs. H. P. Woods.

Ladies' Aid Meets.
A very interesting meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church was held in the home of Mrs. Estelle Shuttleworth Monday afternoon. Plans and arrangements were made and discussed for the fall and winter work of the society.

Suffrage Tea.
Every one is cordially invited to attend a suffrage tea which will be held in the home of Mrs. Charles S. Smiley from 3 to 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Year Books Ready.
The members of the program and year book committees of the Marcato Music Club expect to issue the year books for 1916-1917 to the members of the club some time during the week.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Light Biscuit.
When you bake take a pint of sponge bread dough, one tablespoonful of melted butter, one tablespoonful of sugar, the white of one egg beaten to a foam. Let rise until light, mold into small biscuits when light; bake.

Take one cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter beaten to a smooth cream; add three well beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of vanilla extract, four cups sifted flour, one cup of raisins and one cup of currants, one-half teaspoonful of vanilla extract, four in a little water; drop this batter in drops on well-buttered tins and bake in a quick oven.

Salmon crumbs, little rolls, pickles, crackers, guava jelly, camember cheese and coffee.

MRS. OLIPHANT TO SPEAK.
Mrs. O. D. Oliphant, of Trenton,

N. J., will speak against woman suffrage in the court house at 8 o'clock tonight. Mrs. Oliphant is in the state in behalf of the West Virginia Association opposed to woman suffrage. Reports from other places she has visited say that she is a pleasing speaker. Admission to tonight's meeting will be free and the public is cordially invited to attend.

GOES TO DETROIT.

Miss Ella Howard, of Northview, went on No. 1 Saturday night for Detroit, Mich., where she has accepted a position in one of the leading department stores of that city. Miss Howard is well known as she has been in the employ of the D. M. Orden Company for the last five years. Her many friends regret to learn of her departure.
