

THE DAILY TELEGRAM

The Leading Newspaper of Central West Virginia.

Published Every Week-day Evening and Sunday Morning by CLARKSBURG TELEGRAM COMPANY, Clarksburg, W. Va.

Entered at the postoffice at Clarksburg, W. Va., as second class mail matter.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Editorial Rooms, Business Office, Consolidated - 117-1/2 Consolidated 117-1/2 Bell - 800/Dell. - 283

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier.

Daily, per week $1.00; Daily, per year in advance $5.00; Sunday, per week $0.50; Sunday, per year in advance $2.50; Daily and Sunday, per week $1.50; Daily and Sunday, per year in advance $7.50.

By Mail, in advance. Daily, per month $2.50; Daily, per year $25.00; Sunday, per year $10.00; Daily and Sunday, per year $35.00.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS. When changing address give old as well as new address.

All communications must be signed, or they will receive no attention whatever.

CLARKSBURG TELEGRAM COMPANY

Off to the Front!

Put yourself in top-notch condition by eating Shredded Wheat Biscuit, a food that supplies the greatest amount of body-building material with the least tax upon the digestion. You cannot get to "the front" in any business with a poorly nourished body. Delicious for breakfast with sliced peaches and cream.

Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

to organized labor from the time he was in the state senate, when he dodged the fellow servant bill, until the time a year ago when he wrote a series of articles attacking the proposed full crew law in particular, and the demands of organized railroad labor in general.

Come Home to Roosevelt. When I began this campaign I announced that personalities would not be indulged in; that I proposed to make no personal attacks on Judge Robinson, whom I had known for a long time and with whom my relations had always been cordial.

When I began this campaign I announced that personalities would not be indulged in; that I proposed to make no personal attacks on Judge Robinson, whom I had known for a long time and with whom my relations had always been cordial.

Economy vs. Greed. The state paid $3,150.58 for gas for the buildings at the Fairmont state normal school, West Liberty state normal school and Marshall College at Huntington last year.

Marion county paid $3,622.91 for gas for the court house and jail last year. The government of Marion county is a model of Democratic efficiency and completeness.

A careful study of not only Republican claims, but of the Democratic arguments based on the New Jersey primaries, leaves no ground whatever for putting that state in the doubtful column.

There are few counties in which rousing Republican clubs have not been organized and got right down to the business of whooping up the campaign. That doesn't look like old General Apathy was on the job, so far as the Republican party of West Virginia is concerned.

It was had enough when President Wilson gave away the Panama canal to England, but when he surrenders the government in an effort to secure enough votes to gain his re-election, it is time for an army of real old-fashioned patriots like our forefathers to appear on the scene and put a stop to such high-handed treason and demagoguery.

It comes with ill grace from John Cornwell to charge his distinguished opponent, Judge Robinson, with failing to keep an alleged agreement entered into with politicians who opposed him in the primary. The charge is false, and of course, unprovable. But there is no flaw in the evidence to convict Cornwell of betraying John T. McGraw in 1911, and following up that betrayal with a cruel political persecution of his party Godfather.

In 1910 the Democratic party said that the protective tariff was the cause of the high cost of living and it promised if it won that it would reduce the high cost of living by abolishing the cause. It won all right, and it did away with protection, but it didn't do away with the high cost of living. It is thirty-five per cent higher now than it was in 1914, according to figures just issued by Secretary Redfield of the Wilson cabinet.

Their Labor Records. Wilson's labor record, like his record on one out of ten public questions, lines up first on one side and then on the other. But that cannot be said of John Cornwell's labor record. It has been consistently opposed for Martine, against Mr. Wilson's embittered protest and against all the influence their own machine could exert. "Jim" Martine, who is far less fit to be senator than is the defeated Westcott, who has been a bad joke in the Senate, publicly announced that he would rather "go back to the farm" than go to the White House every day for his "orders," and the Democrats of Jersey endorsed his position.

Westcott's defeat in the first unimpeachable manifestation of that resentment which Democrats generally feel toward Mr. Wilson and his two secretary detested advisors, McAdoo and Burleson.

Not Embarrassed. "Nobody can be embarrassed by talking about Americanism," said Mr. Hughes at Green Bay, Wis. "I am not for this one or that one, I am for the United States, first, last and all the time, without regard to another consideration."

This declaration was made in a state where the proportion of foreign-born citizens is regarded as large, where there has been thought to be a harsh feeling toward those who do not flatter their patriotism with reservations, and where some timid folk have believed it imprudent to preach what Hughes has always called an "undiluted Americanism."

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one only adopts the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the slices of the system each morning and flushing out the stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism, others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Advertisement.

THE DAILY NOVELET. THE DAWN. "I wish I were a bird," she sang. The men all ran but one. He muttered, with a sportsman's pang: "I wish I had my gun!"

It was the last scene of the last act of Bishop's tragedy, "The Stolen Wrist Watch," the scene in which Chauncey Frother, at his very best, always brought down the house. The scene in which the heroine, although she had promised to meet him on the beach at daybreak, fails to show up, and Chauncey blows out his brains.

"The dawn!" cried Chauncey. "Day breaks over yon horizon!" But the stage remained steeped in murky darkness. "The dawn!" cried Chauncey somewhat louder. A faint hammering sounded from behind the scenes, but that was all. "The dawn! The dawn!" shouted Chauncey in a frenzy.

More hammering and sounds as of stage hands oathing round oaths, but still no sign of daylight on yon horizon. "Ah!" cried Chauncey. "I am forgetting! Today is the day of the big collapse! There will be no dawn to-day. The wrench has deceived me with a base trick!"

And then he blew out his brains with an effective bang, and brought down the house as never before as the curtain descended on the still gloomy stage.

LIGHT OCCUPATION. Polishing shoes with sunshine.

GRAFTON: Standoe Molice, a coal miner, was crushed to death between a coal car and the wall of the Rosemont Coal Company's mine at Rosemont.

CHARLESTON: Officials of the state house have been informed of a number of changes in officials of Mingo county and the city of Williamson, the county seat of that county. O. H. Boote, who resigned as member of the city commission, has been made president of the county court. He is succeeded on the commission by C. R. Shannon, who resigned from the court to accept the appointment. T. J. Reynolds, of Devon, has been appointed a member of the commission to succeed A. H. Moore, who resigned because of leaving the county. Other changes in the official roster of both city and county are proposed.

WHEELING: George B. Fletcher, deputy commissioner of internal revenue, will reach Wheeling shortly to start an investigation of stogie and cigar manufacturing here and in Pittsburgh. The investigation results from a bill introduced in Congress by Representative Porter, of Pittsburgh, contemplating reduction of federal tax on cheaper grades and increase on higher grades.

MORGANTOWN: Owing to the large enrollment this year at the state university here, its cadet corps this year will consist of eight companies besides the band. The total strength will be about 550 with an average of about seventy officers and men to a company. Last year there were only six companies.

CHARLESTON: Charleston voters have ratified the issuance of $150,000 bonds for the purpose of constructing a high school building in West Charleston. The vote was light but decisive, the total being 397 for and nine against the issue.

MARTINSBURG: Announcement is made of the marriage of Vernon B. Garton, news editor of the Martinsburg Evening Journal, and Miss Mary R. Martin, of Nain, Va.

HUGH DORSEY TO BE GEORGIA'S GOVERNOR. Hugh M. Dorsey has been named by Georgia Democrats for governor and will be elected in November. He won the nomination on the strength of the fact that he had successfully prosecuted Leo M. Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan.

THE DAILY NOVELET

THE DAWN. "I wish I were a bird," she sang. The men all ran but one. He muttered, with a sportsman's pang: "I wish I had my gun!"

It was the last scene of the last act of Bishop's tragedy, "The Stolen Wrist Watch," the scene in which Chauncey Frother, at his very best, always brought down the house.

The scene in which the heroine, although she had promised to meet him on the beach at daybreak, fails to show up, and Chauncey blows out his brains.

"The dawn!" cried Chauncey. "Day breaks over yon horizon!" But the stage remained steeped in murky darkness.

"The dawn!" cried Chauncey somewhat louder. A faint hammering sounded from behind the scenes, but that was all.

"The dawn! The dawn!" shouted Chauncey in a frenzy. More hammering and sounds as of stage hands oathing round oaths, but still no sign of daylight on yon horizon.

"Ah!" cried Chauncey. "I am forgetting! Today is the day of the big collapse! There will be no dawn to-day. The wrench has deceived me with a base trick!"

And then he blew out his brains with an effective bang, and brought down the house as never before as the curtain descended on the still gloomy stage.

LIGHT OCCUPATION. Polishing shoes with sunshine.

GRAFTON: Standoe Molice, a coal miner, was crushed to death between a coal car and the wall of the Rosemont Coal Company's mine at Rosemont.

CHARLESTON: Officials of the state house have been informed of a number of changes in officials of Mingo county and the city of Williamson, the county seat of that county.

WHEELING: George B. Fletcher, deputy commissioner of internal revenue, will reach Wheeling shortly to start an investigation of stogie and cigar manufacturing here and in Pittsburgh.

MORGANTOWN: Owing to the large enrollment this year at the state university here, its cadet corps this year will consist of eight companies besides the band.

CHARLESTON: Charleston voters have ratified the issuance of $150,000 bonds for the purpose of constructing a high school building in West Charleston.

MARTINSBURG: Announcement is made of the marriage of Vernon B. Garton, news editor of the Martinsburg Evening Journal, and Miss Mary R. Martin, of Nain, Va.

HUGH DORSEY TO BE GEORGIA'S GOVERNOR. Hugh M. Dorsey has been named by Georgia Democrats for governor and will be elected in November.

He won the nomination on the strength of the fact that he had successfully prosecuted Leo M. Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan.

Advertisement for Nerv-Worth medicine.

The Watts-Lamberd Company

ONE HUNDRED HATS JUST RECEIVED--PRICE $5.00

There's Lively Interest in Rugs, Curtains and Draperies

There is so much cheerful choosing, so many beautiful new Rugs, Curtains and Draperies, Cretonnes, Handsome Silks and Nets, all are so very new, so many pleased comments on the price of our Rugs, Curtains and Draperies and Drapery fabrics.

Special Sale of $10 New Plaid Skirts, $6.75

Women's Fashionable Jersey Sport Coats, $14.75

THEIR FAVORITE SENATOR. Fraternal man's Lodge.

CITY WATER TODAY. Following is today's test for I ever and other germs as made by the Water Board's chemist and bacteriologist at the filtration plant.

THE ADVERTISING OF A STORE IS A "CONTINUED STORY" WHICH THE READER MAY BEGIN TO READ AT ANY TIME!

STRAIGHT GOODS. A ukulele is a jitney guitar.

GOES TO PANHANDLE. Judge Ira E. Robinson, of Grafton, Republican nominee for governor, spent Sunday night in the city, coming in from Point Pleasant, where he attended a big barbecue and political rally Saturday afternoon.

AFTER 29 YEARS CHAS. CHURCH'S TROUBLE CAME. But Two Bottles Nerv-Worth Drove 'Em from Their Trenches.

THERE'S A LESSON. to be found in the lives of those who reached the top. It wasn't "LUCK!" They worked and saved to be ready for every advance in their career.

THE LOWNDES SAVINGS BANK AND TRUST COMPANY. Resources over $1,000,000

Republican National Ticket

For President CHARLES EVANS HUGHES, of New York

Vice President CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS, of Indiana

United States Senator HOWARD SUTHERLAND, of Maryland

Congress—Third District STUART E. REED, of Harrison

Republican State Ticket

Governor IRA E. ROBINSON, of Taylor

Secretary of State HOUSTON G. YOUNG, of Harrison

Superintendent of Schools MORRIS P. SHAWKEY, of Kanawha

Auditor JOHN S. DABST, of Jackson

Treasurer WILLIAM S. JOHNSON, of Fayette

Attorney General E. T. ENGLAND, of Logan

Commissioner of Agriculture JAMES H. STEWART, of Putnam

Judges of Supreme Court W. S. MILLER, of Wood

HAROLD A. RITZ, of Mercer

State Senator—Twelfth District WALLACE B. GRIBBLE, of Doddridge

Republican County Ticket

Sheriff LLOYD D. GRIFFIN, of Clarksburg

Judge Criminal Court CHARLES A. SUTTON, of Bridgeport

Prosecuting Attorney WILL E. MORRIS, of Clarksburg

County Commissioner DORSEY W. CORE, of Mt. Clara

Assessor IRA L. SWIGER, of Clarksburg

Surveyor CUTHBERT A. OSBORN, of Clarksburg

House of Delegates ROSSI M. FISHER, of Wilsonburg

E. R. HARRISON, JR., of Clarksburg

JOHN MOORE, of Bridgeport

GEORGE W. STUM, of West Milford

MONDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1916.

An Evening Echo. Our preparation must be industrial and economic as well as military. Our severest tests will come after the war is over. We must make a fair and wise readjustment of the tariff, in accordance with sound protective principle, to insure our economic independence and to maintain American standards of living.—CHARLES E. HUGHES.

No Democratically controlled state in the union has as low a tax rate, a more equitable and less burdensome system, than West Virginia has had under Republican administrations for the last twenty years.

There are few counties in which rousing Republican clubs have not been organized and got right down to the business of whooping up the campaign. That doesn't look like old General Apathy was on the job, so far as the Republican party of West Virginia is concerned.

It was had enough when President Wilson gave away the Panama canal to England, but when he surrenders the government in an effort to secure enough votes to gain his re-election, it is time for an army of real old-fashioned patriots like our forefathers to appear on the scene and put a stop to such high-handed treason and demagoguery.

It comes with ill grace from John Cornwell to charge his distinguished opponent, Judge Robinson, with failing to keep an alleged agreement entered into with politicians who opposed him in the primary. The charge is false, and of course, unprovable. But there is no flaw in the evidence to convict Cornwell of betraying John T. McGraw in 1911, and following up that betrayal with a cruel political persecution of his party Godfather.

In 1910 the Democratic party said that the protective tariff was the cause of the high cost of living and it promised if it won that it would reduce the high cost of living by abolishing the cause. It won all right, and it did away with protection, but it didn't do away with the high cost of living. It is thirty-five per cent higher now than it was in 1914, according to figures just issued by Secretary Redfield of the Wilson cabinet.

Their Labor Records. Wilson's labor record, like his record on one out of ten public questions, lines up first on one side and then on the other. But that cannot be said of John Cornwell's labor record. It has been consistently opposed for Martine, against Mr. Wilson's embittered protest and against all the influence their own machine could exert. "Jim" Martine, who is far less fit to be senator than is the defeated Westcott, who has been a bad joke in the Senate, publicly announced that he would rather "go back to the farm" than go to the White House every day for his "orders," and the Democrats of Jersey endorsed his position.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA. COUNTY OF HARRISON, ss. OF THE DAILY TELEGRAM, published every evening, except Sunday, at Clarksburg, W. Va., for October 1, 1916.

Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared J. J. Devine, who, having been duly sworn according to law, depose and say that he is the general manager of the Daily Telegram and that the following is to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editors and general manager are: Publisher, Clarksburg Telegram Co., Clarksburg, W. Va. Editors, W. C. Morrison and W. L. Grafton, Clarksburg, W. Va. General Manager, J. J. Devine, Clarksburg, W. Va.

2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or if a corporation, give its name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock.) V. L. Higland, Clarksburg, W. Va. S. C. Devine, Clarksburg, W. Va. J. J. Devine, Clarksburg, W. Va. W. C. Morrison, Clarksburg, W. Va. C. B. Higland, New Martinsville, W. Va.

3. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is 6,758. (This information is required from daily publications only.) That the average number of copies of The Daily Telegram printed and circulated each issue during the month of September, 1916, was 7,212. J. J. DEVINE, General Manager. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 24 day of October, 1916. A. P. COMBES, Notary Public. My commission expires June 15, 1921.

HUGH DORSEY TO BE GEORGIA'S GOVERNOR

Hugh M. Dorsey has been named by Georgia Democrats for governor and will be elected in November. He won the nomination on the strength of the fact that he had successfully prosecuted Leo M. Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan.

THE ADVERTISING OF A STORE IS A "CONTINUED STORY" WHICH THE READER MAY BEGIN TO READ AT ANY TIME!

STRAIGHT GOODS. A ukulele is a jitney guitar.

GOES TO PANHANDLE. Judge Ira E. Robinson, of Grafton, Republican nominee for governor, spent Sunday night in the city, coming in from Point Pleasant, where he attended a big barbecue and political rally Saturday afternoon.

AFTER 29 YEARS CHAS. CHURCH'S TROUBLE CAME. But Two Bottles Nerv-Worth Drove 'Em from Their Trenches.</