FIFTH GAME OF SERIES

HOLIDAY CROWD SEES THE GAME

Last Trench Fight is Prepared by the Brooklyn Team against Boston.

BIG FINANCIAL REWARDS

Only One Game Lays between Boston and Another World's Championship.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—The anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus observed as a holiday here coincided with the fifth game of the world's series between the Brooklyn Nationals and the Boston Americans. Thousands of persons freed from their labor by the holiday took advantage of the opportunity to go to Braves field. The result was likely to be the greatest crowd in the history of baseball. Braves field, although holding the record for attendance of 42,300 in the series last year, has not yet been taxed to capacity.

It was a last trench fight which the Brooklynians prepared to make against the Red Sox. Three of the four games already played have gone against them by force of the Boston batsmen's strength or the sureness of Red Sox pitchers. Only one game lies between the Boston team and another world's championship.

Financial rewards this year exceed those of any previous series. The Red Sox, feeling certain of final success in today's game, contemplated with satisfaction their share in the $162,927.45 which is the players' portion of the receipts of the first four games after which their participation in the gate money ends. Of this amount, sixty per cent or $97,756 will be turned over to the winners. Should this go to the Bostonians the will divide it probably on a twenty-five share basis, allowing $3,910.25 a share. Although twenty-six Red Sox players are eligible to play in the series, not all will receive full shares and it is understood the players have agreed on the division by twenty-fifths with the idea of splitting up several shares among lesser members of the club, minor officials and employees. Brooklyn, if it loses, will have $65,169.98 to divide among twenty-three players or about $2,844.47 a man.

But, if the players were pleased

DOVE, A PRISONER

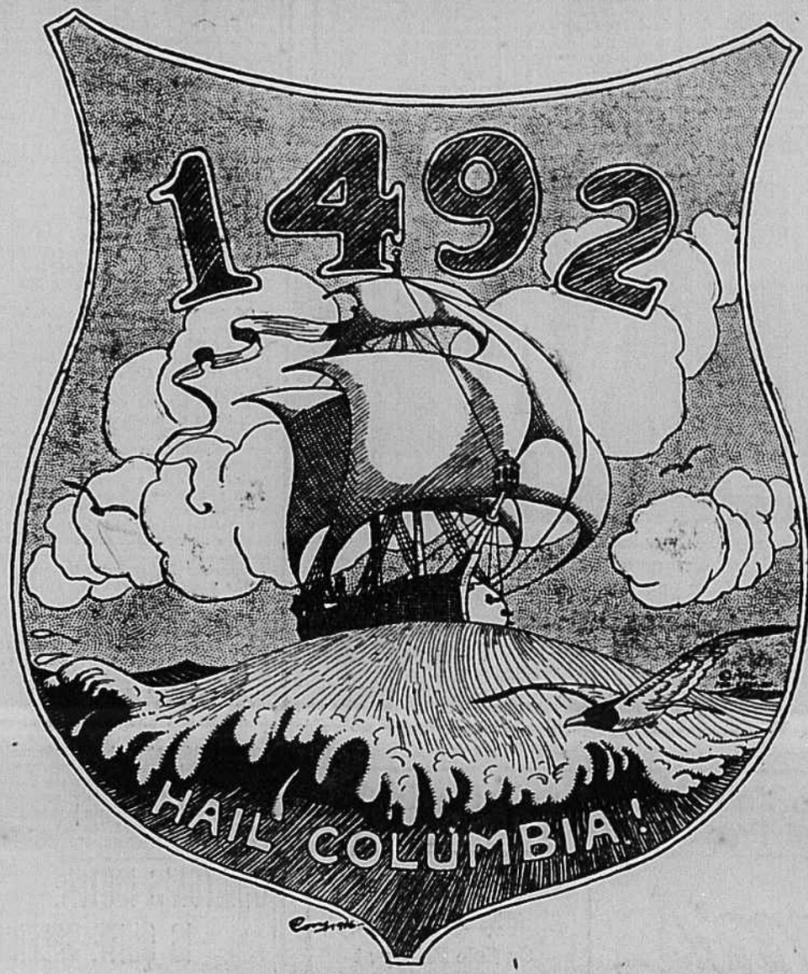

EDGWATER, N. J., Oct. 12.—The police are holding prisoner a white dove with a band of yellow metal on its leg bearing the inscription "U-53", the number of the German submarine which made its memorial raid off Nantucket last Sunday. The dove fluttered in the window of a business office here yesterday.

with the unprecedented reward, the club owners were even more satisfied with the fact that the rival teams were to play today before a probable record crowd. Except for the national commission's ten per cent the clubs receive the entire receipts, as they will in succeeding games if any are necessary. The clubs already have added $54,309 each to their coffers and with today's expenses added the share of each should aggregate approximately $90,000.

Many opinions were exchanged by the fans as to who the pitchers would be today. Smith, because of his performance in the fourteenth inning game which Boston won here on Monday, was held to be Robinson's "best card." Shore, although uncertain in the opening game of the series which Boston won, was still held worthy by Manager Carrigan's faith.

In the forenoon the day was not entirely suitable for Shore's best efforts, a frosty atmosphere prevailing while the North Carolina schoolmaster is at a disadvantage except in warm weather. But Forecaster Smith prophesied that southerly winds would be turned into Braves field in the early afternoon to the satisfaction of players and spectators alike. The probable line-up for today:

RECOVERY Of Suits Stolen from Clothing Store Gets Negro Out of Trouble.

After being arrested Thursday morning under a charge of stealing nine suits of clothes from a store of M. A. Nusbaum, Inc., where he was employed, James Daniels, a negro, broke down at the county jail and confessed the thefts. He agreed to find the suits and return them to the store and after doing so, in company with officers, the Nusbaums withdrew the charge against him and he was released from custody.

The clothing stolen was valued at $75. It had been taken to the negro's place of abode at Point Comfort, one boy's suit and a pair of trousers having been sold.

PONTIUS PILATE ACT OF WILSON

Comes in for Characteristic Notice of Roosevelt Who Says Wilson is Coward.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Taking the German submarine U-53 off the shores of America as his text Col. Roosevelt has launched another broadside against President Wilson. Mr. Roosevelt declared that the conduct of the war has led to a "complete breakdown of the code of international rights," and this he blames on the "Pontius Pilate like construction which President Wilson has put on neutrality." The sentence "He kept us out of war," which is one of the chief arguments of the Democratic campaign Colonel Roosevelt described as "the phrase of a coward," and utterly misleading.

"President Wilson declared that the war and the issues of right and wrong involved in its conduct and methods were of no concern to America, the leading neutral," says Colonel Roosevelt. "He thereby put America in the position of refusing to do its duty to others. He inspired contempt in others. This invited aggression by others. In the face of this aggression he speedily put America in a position of refusing to do its duty to its own citizens. Step by step international law has been broken down. By the attacks of German submarines upon merchantmen the lives of hundreds of Americans were sacrificed in course which culminated in the sinking of the Lusitania. In a similar fashion the commercial rights of property upon the sea were invaded by England and the whole structure of international law for the protection of commerce and private property was broken down. The invasion of the rights of men and women to their lives was far more serious than the invasion of property rights and it was this invasion that called for the first and strongest action on our part, but if we had taken such action it would have become our duty, the neatly performed, to instantly and fully protect our property rights. Many men question whether it will ever again be safe for nations to become interdependent by allowing themselves so far as their necessities are concerned to depend upon foreign sources of supply. The theory of having each nation or group of nations build a Chinese wall around its borders is being discussed because of the complete breakdown of the code of international rights.

"The responsibility for this breakdown rests primarily on the Pontius Pilate like construction which President Wilson has put upon neutrality. Now the war has been carried to our very shores. There is no American who does not realize the awful tragedy of our indifference and inaction. Nineteenth of wisdom is being wise in time. By taking the right step at the right time America's influence and leader-

FAIL TO DECIDE.

BERLIN, by wireless to the Associated Press, via Sayville, Oct. 12.—In the Reichstag today Major Ernst Basserman, leader of the National Liberals, read a written report, saying that the budget committee was unable to reach a decision on the submarine question, but had voted twenty-four to four against a discussion of the subject in open session.

"DRY" DEMOCRATS SMACK LIPS AFTER VISIT TO CORNWELL

Young Town Democrats Try to Make People Believe Court House is Crowded.

"That was an outrage," said a prominent Bridgeport Democrat after the Cornwell meeting here Wednesday night, as he stood in a group that had gathered on the outside of the courthouse. A reporter asked him what he meant. He replied: "Why that bunch of young town Democrats standing purposely in the front door of the courthouse to keep the crowd back so that the public would be deceived into believing that the house was so taxed that an overflow meeting was necessary."

And that Bridgeport Democrat was not the only countryman hot under the collar, either.

One prominent local Democrat Thursday morning in boasting about the size of the crowd said: "Why the room was half full before the speaking began."

The Exponent said the crowd began to gather at 6 o'clock in the courthouse. The janitor was there.

That parable was a joke. Boy Scouts figured in it but they didn't have their uniforms on.

Thursday morning's aftermath of the meeting reminded casual observers of that old Democratic cry of "free liquor." A well known young man about town suspected of being an active bootlegger visited the candidate's room at the hotel and there were two or three dozen "dry" Democrats on hand. The way they smacked their lips when they left the room indicated that they had had something.

EXTEND THANKS.

County Chairman Roy E. Parrish and H. C. Hoffman, president of the Harrison County Hughes Republican Club, wish to extend their sincere thanks to the members of the five committees who had charge of the Hughes meeting Wednesday morning. Each committee had its work well in hand and the meeting was one of the best conducted political meetings that has ever been held in Harrison county.

Attorney F. O. Sutton, who had been attending court at Harrisville, returned home this morning.

A. P. Russell, of Buckhannon, is in the city on a brief business visit.

WOMEN'S SPECIAL IS GREAT SUCCESS

Declares Miss Frances Kellor, an Enthusiastic Hughes Alliance Leader.

NEW YORK, October 12.—"The women's campaign special train in proving a great success," said Miss Frances A. Kellor at the Hughes alliance headquarters today. Miss Kellor who is chairman of the women's committee of the national Hughes alliance has had charge of the entire work of financing and equipping the train and of organizing both the speakers that go with the train and the state and local committees that receive it. Miss Kellor was obliged to leave the train at Minneapolis Saturday night for a business trip to New York but will rejoin it at once.

"The thing that pleases us most is the activity of the Democratic national committee," Miss Kellor said. "They have organized from the Atlantic to the Pacific to defeat the train. The honor of drawing the full batteries of the opposition has remained for the women. The stories sent out about the wealth and luxury represented by the train were enough to make every bandit left in the West hurry down to the railroad track to stop us.

"These stories are beginning to do us good. In several places where people have come to meet the train expecting to find all sorts of curiosities, they have been all the more impressed by the serious, earnest, competent women that they really did find there instead of getting into an atmosphere of diamonds and ladies' maids and manures, they found themselves in a company of intelligent, thoroughly informed, practical women with keen, broad social consciousness. I see in the morning papers that the Democratic women expect to have the use of 100,000 automobiles for a month. I wonder why it is virtuous to have 100,000 autos and wicked to have a special train. Even if all the cars are Fords they would represent an investment of at least $40,000,000, which makes the highlight of our special train seem pale and dim. If a woman is a plutocrat because she can subscribe toward the special and our subscriptions ran from $1 up why isn't she a plutocrat if she has a car to lend for a month. I wonder how expensive a car you can have and still be a Democrat in good and regular standing. The interest that our train is arousing through the West shows what people really think of it. We expected to handle three crowds a day. We are now handling eight. No one else is meeting as many groups except the candidate himself.

"The most regrettable aspects of the attack on the train is the personal tone that has intentionally been given to them. The Republican women throughout this campaign have played straight clean politics, without descending to personalities in any single case and there are personalities that could be used in this campaign too. It will be found, however, that the general feeling among American women demands that a high tone mark their national participation in political life."

German Editor Gives the Lie to That Tale about Writing a Speech.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—In a signed statement today Mr. Victor Ridder of the New York Staats Zeitung, denies absolutely the story made public by Norman Hapgood, of the Wilson Independent League, to the effect that Mr. Ridder has told State Senator Keller of Illinois that he had written a campaign speech for Mr. Hughes in which Mr. Hughes would attack England in order to hold the German vote. Mr. Ridder says there was a meeting between himself and Senator Keller. By knowing Mr. Keller he had witnessed present and he has the written statement of one of these witnesses, Henry Ables, of New York, that no such remarks are credited to him by Keller and Hapgood were even made. Instead Keller was endeavoring to persuade Mr. Ridder to call on President Wilson at the White House, and assured Mr. Ridder that Mr. Wilson "can convince you, in the course of an hour or two, that he is friendly to Germany."

Mr. Ridder declared that Mr. Keller "for his own purposes wilfully placed words in my mouth which were never spoken." Having disposed of this canard Mr. Ridder goes on to make some extremely interesting disclosures concerning the efforts of the Wilson administration to carry favor secretly with the German American voters whom Mr. Wilson publicly brands as disloyal. He says that Mr. Ables happened to be present at the meeting with Mr. Keller, having called as the

SENATOR FARNSWORTH DEAD AT BUCKHANNON

One of the State's Most Prominent and Honored Citizens is Called to Eternity.

Thomas J. Farnsworth, of Buckhannon, died at 5 o'clock Thursday morning at his home in his eighty-eighth year. The funeral will be held at the Farnsworth home at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, and burial will be in the Heaven cemetery. The Masons will assist in the burial rites. He is survived by one son and three daughters, namely, Thomas B. Farnsworth, Mrs. Benjamin Bassell, and Mrs. George B. Edminston of Buckhannon; and Mrs. N. B. McCarty, of this city.

Senator Farnsworth was born on May 17, 1829, in Buckhannon. His grandfather, Daniel Farnsworth, traded land on Staten Island, New York, for property on the Buckhannon river, now the site of the town of Buckhannon, and went there with his family in 1821. A farm was opened up from the primeval forest and it became a valuable piece of property. Senator Farnsworth's father, Nathaniel Farnsworth, came into possession of the property and the same was divided into town lots, which was the beginning of Buckhannon in 1852. After a useful and active life the father died in 1868.

Thomas J. Farnsworth was educated in the private schools of Buckhannon and remained under the shelter of the parental roof until he was 18 years of age. He then served an apprenticeship at the blacksmith trade and later conducted a shop of his own. March 8, 1852, he started for California, and after reaching Missouri a party was made up to cross the plains. Upon reaching California in the party at once engaged in mining and in a few months had accumulated $350. He then rented a blacksmith shop which he ran seven years. In 1857 he came back to Buckhannon on a visit. He became engaged to be married and returned there permanently in 1859 worth about $30,000, the result of seven years work in the blacksmith business. May 19, 1859, he and Miss Mary E. Carper were married. He purchased much property in and about Buckhannon and engaged in farming and stock raising on a large scale. After the war he became active politically and held many offices. He was elected to the house of delegates in 1874 and served in 1875. He was re-elected in nomination for the state senate. He was elected without opposition and served in the legislature of the state in 1880 and 1881. Upon the reorganization of the senate in 1883 he was elected president of that body and served two years. He then declined official positions. He served eighteen years as a regent of the university. He had been president of the Buckhannon Bank. He owned several fine and valuable farms, a dozen or so houses in Buckhannon and his livestock interests were extensive.

Mr. Farnsworth became a Mason in California in 1856 but transferred his membership to Buckhannon. He served thirteen years as grand master of the order in this state. He was a member of the Baptist church and a deacon in the same. He was a man of unblemished reputation and his name is inseparably linked with the prosperity of Upshur county. His career was marked with all that goes to make up useful and noble manhood and his imprint will long be felt in the section in which he lived.
