Mr. Pugh Leaves City.

The many friends of Mr. A. Wesley Pugh, who for the last seven or eight months has been local manager for the Bradstreet Company, will be interested in learning of his leaving the city on Saturday, October 14. He is a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city and has made a host of friends not only in the church but also in the social and business world. To Speak at West Milford.

Dr. Effie Colburn Jones, of Iowa, will speak at the West Milford Baptist church Saturday, October 14, at 7:30 p. m. Dr. Jones is an eloquent and forceful speaker. She is a keen thinker and carries her discourse to a logical conclusion. Dr. Jones has filled many positions of honor and trust, among them the very responsible position of trustee for twelve years of Lombard College, which institution conferred upon her the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. She is one of fewer than half a dozen women to be so honored.

Born on a farm and having received her early education in a district school, Dr. Jones well knows the problems that confront those living in the country or the rural communities. Those who know Dr. Jones intimately think of her not as a lecturer or a leader in a big movement but as a home woman, the mother of two beautiful daughters and a charming hostess over a home where many distinguished persons have been entertained.

GERMAN U-BOAT; ONE OF ITS VICTIMS; SCENE OF OPERATIONS

German submarine of U-53 type; British steamer Strathdene; map showing where submersible made raid on British commerce off Massachusetts coast.

The operations of the German submarine U-53 has brought the European war to the very doors of the United States. Terror has seized shipping circles from Maine to Florida, Capt. Hans Rose, who brought the armed submarine across the Atlantic, said on his arrival at Newport that his vessel needed no supplies, and in fact carried provisions and fuel for three months' cruising. If still other submarines of this character are brought to this side of the Atlantic it is believed that great interference to the shipment of munitions will result.

The British steamer Strathdene was one of the U-53's victims.

RADICAL CHANGES

In the Treatment of Mails Are Promised in the British and French Reply.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Radical changes in the treatment of mails on neutral ships are promised in the reply of the British and French governments to the American protest against interference with mails. The change while short of an abandonment of the contention of the right of search for information of value to an enemy are regarded by the Allies as sufficient to meet the wishes of the United States. Otherwise the two notes which are now under consideration at the state department are devoted to an extensive academic discussion of the whole subject of the treatment of the mails in times of war with voluminous quotations from the history of the American Civil war and of other wars up to date.

WILSON ACCEPTS

Invitation to Make Speeches in the Cities of Buffalo and New York.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—President Wilson has accepted an invitation to speak in Buffalo October 30 and in New York October 31. Both meetings will be under non-partisan auspices, but the president's campaign managers are counting on them to help the party in New York state. These two trips and those to Chicago and Cincinnati are his only remaining campaign journeys before election day. He will, however, make a number of porch speeches at Shadow Lawn.

KILLED

Instantly is O. B. Garvin, a Brakeman, When He Falls between Cars of Train.

O. B. Garvin, about 35 years old, a Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, was instantly killed at 12:15 o'clock Friday noon when he fell between two cars which he was attempting to uncouple and several cars passed over him.

A yard engine was switching a number of cars at the plant of the Clarksburg Zinc Company at the west end of the yards when the accident occurred. Garvin was standing on the step of a car reaching in between the two cars to cut the coupling when in some manner he lost his balance and fell between the cars. A fellow workman saw him fall but before the train was stopped he had been killed.

His right arm was cut off near the shoulder and he received several bad cuts on his head and face. It is thought that his death was caused from a bad wound near his right ear. Garvin was married and lived at Adamstown. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

SMALL CROWD

Greets Wilson When He Stops at Harrisburg on Way to Shadow Lawn.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 14.—When President Wilson stopped here for a few moments early Friday a small crowd was at the station. He shook hands with as many as possible. He did not remain on the observation platform, as usual, but stepped down into the station to greet the people.

The president received word on his way from Indianapolis Friday that Pennsylvania day at Shadow Lawn tomorrow will be attended by 3,000 voters. Led by Vance McCormick, chairman of the Democratic national committee, the delegation will go to hear the president deliver one of his front porch campaign speeches.

The president was due to arrive at Shadow Lawn at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

FOR ARBITRATION.

I stand for the principle of arbitration in industrial disputes. Labor, least of all, can afford to have that principle surrendered. It is a civilized method, as opposed to the injurious contests of force, which impoverish labor and imperil the social order. The essence of the matter is a fair and reasonable hearing of all parties concerned and a just determination according to the facts. To say that fair and prompt arbitration could not have been had in this case is to indict both the administration and the American people.—CHARLES E. HUGHES.

NOT RUNNING

For Governor and the Nominee of the Progressives Asks to Be Dropped.

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 14.—Henry R. Pattengill, of Lansing, national Progressive candidate for governor of Michigan, Friday requested Secretary of State Vaughn to have his name removed from the election ballots.

"I am not running for office this fall," said Pattengill. Pattengill received one vote for governor on the Progressive ticket at the August primary. As there was no other vote cast for governor on the Progressive ticket the secretary of state ruled that Pattengill's name should be placed on the ballot.
