

The National View

Serving Humanity.—President Wilson has made it perfectly clear that his purpose in invading Mexico is to "serve humanity" and that his conception of "serving humanity" is to note the fortunes of all bandits, ex-bandits and near bandits. Nothing better or more forcibly expresses the Wilson policy than the statement of his confidential agent, John Lind, who wrote, "To make a dog feel that he is a cur he must be whipped by another dog, and preferably a cur. Consequently, let this house-cleaning be done by home talent. It will be a little rough, and we must see that the walls are left intact, but I should not worry if some of the verandas and French windows were demolished." Villa was the "cur" selected to whip the other "dog," Huerta, and to enable Villa to do it he was permitted to get all the arms and ammunition which enabled him to make his successful raid on Columbus, N. M. The falsity of President Wilson's pretensions that he went into Mexico to compel Huerta to salute the flag is proved by the declaration of Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, who has written, "We did not go into Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag. We did go there to show Mexico that we were in earnest in our demand that Huerta must go, and he went before our forces were withdrawn." Probably Secretary Baker is right in explaining that only when one considers that President Wilson regards the actions of the American Revolution as in the same class as the professional bandits of Mexico, can one understand his Mexican policy.

Campaign Claims.—The wild raving charges of one Vance McCormick, of the Democratic national committee, strikingly recalls another piece of rainbow chasing. It reads, "Within the last two weeks I have caused a careful poll to be made by captains in hundreds of precincts in New York, Indiana and Ohio, for the purpose of obtaining the percentage of Republican loss over four years ago. The results of that poll were amazing. In no instance have the reports shown the percentage of Republican loss in this state (New York) to be less than twenty-five per cent, and in Erie county as high as forty per cent. Equally large losses are shown to the Republicans, not only in Ohio and Indiana, but in twelve other states which the two parties are contesting. These figures mean only one thing, the election of the Democratic candidate by a tremendous plurality." The author of this prediction was Norman E. Mack, Democratic national chairman, and it was made a few days before the election of 1912, in which Mr. Taft carried New York by 203,000, Ohio by 70,000, Indiana by over 10,000 and Erie county by 7,000, defeating Mr. Bryan by 1,265,000 plurality.

As Princeton Sees It.—The material victory of Governor Hughes over President Wilson in a poll of Princeton University has led one of the deans there to make another poll to ascertain the causes of Mr. Wilson's repudiation. His figures show that those who have left Wilson to support Hughes explain their reasons as follows: Mexico, thirty-five per cent; other foreign relations, fifteen per cent; unpreparedness, ten per cent; Clayton act, civil service raids, Adamson law, Colonel House, et al, violation second term plank, tariff and shipping acts, waste of public moneys and rhetoric (notes and words) five per cent each. Perhaps the most surprising feature of these reasons is the small number who have deserted Wilson because of the Underwood tariff. An explanation of that is doubtless to be found, however, in the fact that the men at Princeton are rarely wage-workers or business men, and that they have not experienced, or have forgotten, the business depression produced by that bill before the European war created an abnormal temporary protection of American industries.

Oppose Adamson Act

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Ed Dwyer, former chief engineer of the Central Division of Brotherhood Locomotive Engineers, in an interview states that "of all the absurd half baked legislation ever enacted in Congress the Adamson law 'takes the cake.'" To complete the absurdity, it ought to have added: "Be it enacted that on and after January 1, 1917, the time for moving trains engaged in the inter-state commerce of the United States shall be limited to eight hours daily, commencing at 8 o'clock a. m. and ending at 4 o'clock p. m., during which time trains may be moved, at all other times must remain stationary." "Do the railroad trainmen realize they are not paid by the day, but by the mile? The present wage agreements read, 100 miles or less, constitutes a day's work. These two words—or less—cost the railroads millions of dollars annually—they are not in the Adamson absurdity. One hundred miles is the minimum day's pay and the payment for extra miles over and above that amount costs the railroads about one-half as much as the regular wages. All trainmen know how eagerly the railroads would grasp the opportunity to return to the old system of wages by the day.

REAL HAIR SAVER

Found at Last. Shows Results in Three Days says Local Druggist.

If you are rapidly losing your hair and fear baldness, Wells-Haymaker Company invites you to make a three days' test of Parisian Sage. If it does not stop the excessive loss of hair and make your hair and scalp look and feel at least 100 per cent better, they will return your money. Hundreds of men and women have written telling of the phenomenal results obtained by using Parisian Sage. People who were bald say they now glory in their beautiful hair. Others who have had dandruff for years say they got a clean, healthy scalp after just a few applications of this splendid treatment.

No matter whether you are bothered with falling hair, premature gray hair, dry, dull and brittle hair, oily, greasy, stringy hair, dandruff or itching scalp; this well known local firm invites you to try Parisian Sage at their risk. If it succeeds the cost is trifling, and should it fail the cost is nothing. No string or red tape to this moneyback offer. If your hair is worth saving, Parisian Sage is worth trying, and a large bottle is inexpensive at your favorite drug or toilet counter.—Advertisement.

"The Adamson law is published in full in the official organs of the four brotherhoods in the October number. I ask the intelligent trainmen of the United States to read the law thoroughly, ponder over it deeply and see what a genuine lemon Woodrow Wilson has given them.

"The law reads, 'Be it enacted by the Senate of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

"That beginning January 1, 1917, eight hours in contracts for labor and service be deemed a day's work and the measure and standard of a day's work for the purpose of reckoning the compensation for service.' The language is plain and comprehensive—there can be but one interpretation of it. It supersedes all existing contracts and agreements, completely, ignoring the question of miles covered.

"Under the law, all pay can be adjusted at the same rate, one-eighth of a day's pay for one hour's service up to the present legal limit of a day's work, sixteen hours.

"Trainmen who are employed on long passenger runs can demand no more eight hours work than men in other service. It means that engineers running a fast flyer and work-two hundred and fifty miles in eight hours would only receive one half of the pay for that service, that he would get if he was blocked on a

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—Advertisement.

side track for sixteen hours without turning a wheel.

"Read section four of this law: 'Sec. 4. Any person violating any provision of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both. This is a chain that binds you as well as the railroad managers.

"Do the railroad employees of the United States realize that the railroad managers are not making any efforts to have the pseudo eight-hour law repealed, or to have it declared unconstitutional, and that since the enactment of the law, several influential railroad presidents have announced their intention of supporting Wilson.

"Are the railroad employees gullible enough to believe they are doing this because the Adamson law increases their pay?

"As a stern rebuke to President Wilson for his flagrant effort to bribe them, and as a just punishment for his bold attempt to double cross them with the blundering Adamson law, the railroad trainmen of the United States should vote unanimously for the election of Charles E. Hughes."
