

& Brilliant Notes of Saving in Our Removal Sale

HERE'S a sale in perfect harmony with lower living cost--in tune with every purse that is in earnest about making every dollar do its most. It is a symphony of savings, written in plain figures which every one can understand, and in low prices that cause the feet of customers to dance a merry two-step around counters and tables picking out the things they need for their personal needs. The buying music is set in "Allegro Spiritoso"---spirited and lively, and thruout the store big values are in unison with our determination to sell all present stocks before we move, and notice, please, that the music is marked "repeat," which means that a full chorus of enthusiastic salespeople are in attendance here daily, courteously ready to show you the brilliant notes of saving in our big Removal Sale.
