Birthday Reception.
The home of Mrs. Carrie Morrison at Wilsonburg was the scene of a delightful birthday reception a recent evening in honor of Miss Helen Metheby, of Billings, Mont. Over fifty guests were invited. Miss Metheby was the happy recipient of many beautiful gifts. The house was elaborately decorated in autumn flowers and ferns. Refreshments to match the color scheme of red, white and green were served.

To Celebrate Anniversary.
Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge No. 89, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will celebrate the sixty-fifth anniversary of the Rebekah degree at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening at the Odd Fellows hall on West Main street. Mothers' Club to Meet.

This will be the first meeting under the regime of the new officers and no pains have been spared to make it a success. The program is intended to interest mothers of children of all ages. Attendance is not limited to members of the club but every woman, young or old, who is interested in the welfare of children is cordially invited to be present. Try to get there at least ten minutes before 3 o'clock so that you may get comfortably settled and quiet before the program begins. One feature of the arrangements which promises to be very attractive will be a nursery for babies and little folks, which will be under the supervision of Miss Frances Robinson, assisted by Miss Margaret Robinson and Miss Mabel Smith. These young ladies are well qualified to care for and amuse the kiddies and no mother need hesitate to trust her children to their care.

SALEM SCHOOLS START OFF VERY WELL

While Salem Knights of Pythias Begin Lodge Anniversary Celebration.

SALEM, Sept. 23.—The Salem public schools opened September 11 with an enrollment of about 700. About 120 are enrolled in the high school. The new school in the college building now gives to each ward of the city a grade school covering the first six grades. However, each of the three schools is located considerably west of the center of population of its ward, thus making the yearly adjustment of the changing population quite difficult.

Many of the teachers of last year are back in their accustomed places and have rendered very valuable service in starting smoothly the work of the year. The new teachers are all teachers of experience and professional training, and are starting off the year's work with promise of success.

Two new departments have been added to the high school—chemistry and cooking. The chemistry equipment is most all in and set up, and is a fine addition to the high school equipment. The cooking equipment is coming in and is creating considerable interest and enthusiasm as it is being set up.

The school buildings have all been put in excellent condition during the summer, and their attractive appearance will, we believe, all much to the good order of the schools. Every thing indicates that this will be the best year in the history of the Salem schools.

Pythians to Celebrate.

The local Knights of Pythias lodge will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization here. The first of the several days program will be at 3 p. m. when a sermon will be delivered before the lodge at the Baptist church by the Rev. John T. Heckman of the Methodist Episcopal church. The local order will attend in a body with the Pythian Sisters.

Home on Furlough.

Fred E. Swiger was home on a five-day furlough this week from Camp Hatfield at Kanawha City, where he has been the last two months in camp as a member of the Second regiment of West Virginia national guards. He leaves today to join his regiment, and will probably get to go to the border yet. Fred was looking fine and soldier life seems to agree with him.

Carnival Again.

Salem is to be visited again by a carnival and the Great Mister and Franklin shows will appear here all next week, and will be quartered on the Williams lot in the east end. R. J. Booth, the advance man, was here Thursday billing the town and adjacent territory. The carnival consists of eight shows—two rides and various vaudeville performances, reputed to be of the Keith Circuit and highly recommended.

In Braxton.

The Rev. A. J. C. Bond spent part of the last week in Braxton county where he represented the state Sunday school convention at the Braxton county convention.

Purchases Store.

J. E. Helmick has purchased the W. R. Smith general store in East Salem of the receiver recently named for that firm. He has assumed charge of the business.

Suffrage Speaker.

Ten Mile district will be invaded next week by a strong suffrage speaker in the person of Miss Pala Trax, of Baltimore. She is scheduled to speak at Bristol Wednesday afternoon and at Wolf Summit at night.

Hughes Club.

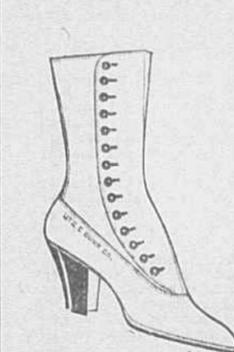

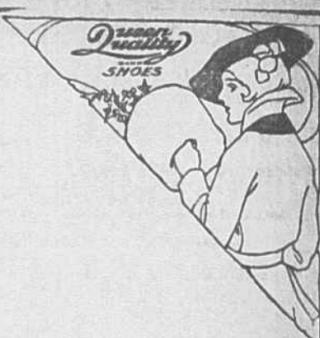

A large list of names have been secured, with little effort, to organize a Hughes club here. An early meeting will be called to perfect the organization.

Personals.

Miss Margaret Freeman, who will teach in the public school at Bristol,
