BEEF CATTLE DROPPING OFF.

No Reason Why Retail Prices Should Be so High in the Eastern Markets.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—Secretary Morton was to-day shown the charge in the Washington dispatch to the New York Tribune of Friday, that he had said the statistics of pork exported to Germany and his figures do not correspond with the official figures of the Bureau of Statistics and shows a material aggregate than given by that bureau.

"I do not pretend to know," he added, "how the figures of the Bureau of Statistics are made up, but as some of the inspected pork is shipped to Germany by way of Holland, Belgium and other countries it is possible that the discrepancy arises from this pork being credited to those countries instead of the country of ultimate destination.

"Then asked if he thought there was any collusion between Aymar and his brother-in-law, Seely, Mr. Aymar said: "I am positive Seely did not know one thing about the thefts of Aymar and when he hears about it he will be as surprised as anybody."

WANT JUST FREIGHT RATES. The Interstate Commerce Commission meets in Denver to act.

DENVER, Colo., April 21.—W. G. Veazy of Vermont, W. R. Morrison of Illinois, W. A. Bissell of Chicago and H. B. Holliday of Washington, members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, arrived in this city to-day and with J. D. Yeomans, who had preceded them, will begin an important session at the Federal court room to-morrow.

The principal cases to be heard are those filed by the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, manufacturers of iron rails, etc., and George J. Kindel, a Denver mattress-maker, in which the railroads are charged with discriminating against Colorado manufacturers.

It is alleged in the complaints that the same rate is charged on freight shipped from New York to Denver as on that shipped from New York to San Francisco. It is also charged that the railroads charge as much for transporting Colorado-made goods to the Pacific Coast as for similar made goods from the far East, thereby depriving Colorado manufacturers of cheap raw materials and placing them in direct competition with New York prices.

Mr. Stubbs, who is vice-president of the Southern Pacific as well as general traffic agent, claims that a decision favorable to the complainants would mean a complete overturning to every through rate to California points and would affect every transcontinental line.

LIFE-SAVER SULLIVAN. The Ex-Champion Smotherer a Fire Burning a Woman's Clothes.

BOSTON, Mass., April 21.—Ex-Champion John L. Sullivan distinguished himself as a life-saver this afternoon. Just before 4 o'clock he heard a woman scream in the rear of the house in which he was stopping. He ran down the stairway and saw there was a fire in the kitchen and that Mrs. Margaret Donnell, the cook, was in danger of being burned to death, her clothing having been ignited by blazing fat on the stove. He quickly wrapped a big mat around the woman and succeeded in extinguishing the fire. She was badly burned, but the chances are favorable for her recovery.

Sullivan's hands were burned in several places and he was obliged to call on a doctor, but the wounds are not serious.

Mrs. Donnelly's burns proved fatal. She died at the City Hospital at 12:15 this morning.

SUNDAY'S CRIMES. Three Murders in Kansas City, Mo., in One Day.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21.—This was a bloody night in Kansas City. Gabriel Hicks, a negro blacksmith, was shot and killed by William Davis, colored, a dishwasher at the Union depot. The shooting occurred when Davis attempted to eject Hicks, who was boarding with him, for having slapped Mrs. Davis' face.

Charles Hang, a colored porter in a Seventh-street saloon, was stabbed by W. J. Adams, a cigar-maker, who was drunk and had been ordered out of the saloon. Hang is dying at the Receiving Hospital.

Ole Wilson, a laborer, was probably fatally stoned by a crowd of negroes who assaulted him on Twenty-first street, near Terrace. His skull was crushed.

North Carolina Gold Mining. RALEIGH, N. C., April 21.—Gold miners from the West are arriving at Piedmont section of North Carolina and there is an outbreak of mining fever. The discovery of a nugget weighing eight pounds five ounces in Stanley County has increased interest in mining. Four hundred miners from the West are expected within sixty days. The Government men purchased the McAnety mine.

AWAIT A DECISION.

Validity of Judgment in Foreign Tribunals Questioned.

IT MUST BE DETERMINED.

The Supreme Bench Expected to Hand Down an Opinion Before Recess.

MILLIONS ARE AT STAKE.

Arguments Have Been Heard and a Conclusion is Believed to Have Been Reached.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—It is generally believed the United States Supreme Court will before the adjournment of the present term render a decision in the case involving the validity of foreign judgments in courts of this country. Barring the question of rehearing in the income tax cases this is probably the most important matter now before the court, and the fact that notwithstanding the cases were argued during the terms of 1893-94 and still are undecided it would appear to indicate the members of the court have encountered difficulty in dealing with them. There are two of these cases, but the points involved are so much alike that a decision in one will in all probability be equal to a decision in the other.

The first of the cases is that of Samuel J. Ritchie vs. James W. McMullin, and it is an appeal from the decision of the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio affirming the judgment of a Canadian court in McMullin's behalf against Ritchie.

The second case is that of Henry Hilton and others vs. Gustav B. Guyot from the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York affirming a decision against Hilton & Libbey, successors to A. T. Stewart & Co., for the sum of $280,852. In the latter case Guyot appears as the official liquidator of the affairs of the firm of Charles Fortin & Co., glove manufacturers of Paris.

It appears that in 1866 Stewart & Co. entered into an agreement with Fortin & Co. to sell in this country all the gloves the French firm could manufacture and to divide the profits equally. In 1879 there was a disagreement and the French firm sued the New York house in the Tribunal of Commerce of Paris and obtained a judgment. The case was appealed to the Paris Court of Appeals, but the judgment was affirmed. In the meantime Stewart & Co. had closed the house which they had hitherto maintained in Paris and sold their property there. The Paris firm then entered suit in the Federal Circuit Court of New York and asked for the execution of the decree of the French courts, maintaining the sufficiency of the judgments of the foreign courts.

The Circuit Judge gave a judgment for the full amount. Hilton & Libbey, as the successors of Stewart & Co., then brought the case to the Supreme Court of the United States, where it was twice argued for by Messrs. William G. Choate and William D. Chipman, and by Messrs. J. C. Carter and Elihu Root for Hilton & Libbey. Enormous interests are involved in the decision. It is said judgments to the amount of $1,600,000 have been rendered in the Canadian courts alone against American citizens, the validity of which depends upon the decisions in these cases.

The lawyers agree there is scarcely any doctrine of law which so far as regards formal and exact statement is in a more uncertain condition than that relating to the force and effect of the judgments of the courts rendered in one nation by the courts of another. Many decisions have been left the question in an involved and confused condition.

Messrs. Carter and Root laid down the proposition in their argument on the Hilton case that the question of the conclusiveness of a foreign judgment depends upon the circumstances under which it was rendered, and where it was not so conclusive as to preclude inquiry into the original merits of the controversy, when the State is under its ordinary obligations to the party demanding the inquiry, to give him at least one full and fair opportunity of having his cause adjudicated upon its original merits. This opportunity, they claim, was denied them in this case.

It is understood a decision has been reached by the court in the case, but it is not known whether the opinion of the court has been prepared or when it will be handed down. It is not considered probable, however, that the court will again allow the matter to go over through a recess.

Troopers Exchange Places. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—Secretary Lamont has ordered four troops of the First Cavalry, selected by the regiment commander and accompanied by Colonel Arnold and Major Violette, now at Fort Grant, Ariz., to exchange places with four troops of the Seventh Cavalry, commanded by Colonel Sumner and Major Baldwin, now at Fort Riley, Kans. The exchange is to give the First Cavalry a chance to avail itself of the advantages of the cavalry school at Fort Riley.

Lieutenant-Colonel Carpenter of the Seventh will remain at Fort Riley as cavalry instructor.

Washington Personal. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—J. G. Burnett of Los Angeles is at the Ebbitt House. Charles W. Ashton of San Francisco is at the Hotel Page. F. C. Clift and Mrs. Burton and the Misses Burton, wife and daughters of Colonel George H. Burton, will leave next week for San Francisco to join the Colonel, who has been detailed for duty at that post.

Representative Hill's Condition. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—The condition of Representative Hill of Illinois is practically unchanged to-night. His physicians are in constant attendance, and to-night a consultation was held by two Washington physicians and a prominent specialist from Baltimore. He is desperately ill, but there is still hope of his recovery.

N. B.—Grand eye-opening and christening April 17, to which the friends and relatives of the Wardners are cordially invited. Ceremony at 3 o'clock. Dancing from 4 to 8. Refreshments. No flowers. (Chicago, New York and San Francisco papers please copy.)

It is rumored in sporting circles that a prizefight is being arranged between Jack Hill and Kit Carson, two local feather-weight pugilists, to take place in some out-of-the-way barn within the next two weeks. The pugilists are to fight for a purse and the gate receipts. It is such fights as the one about to take place that destroys all prospect of the sport of boxing under careful management being tolerated in this city. Hill and Carson had better get outside the county line.

With the exception of a few anglers who made fairly good catches of trout in the tidewaters near Point Reyes, everybody returned with almost empty baskets last evening. Old anglers say that there is yet too much food in the streams and that is exactly why fishing is poor at present.

Mr. Ryan of the San Francisco and North Pacific Coast Railroad caught a magnificent steelhead trout last Saturday at Glen Ellen which he will divide in sections to-day for his many friends.

AT SCHUTZEN PARK. Some Remarkably Large Scores Were Made by Marksmen Yesterday.

The California Schutzen Club held its spring festival at Schutzen Park yesterday, and there was a great outpouring of marksmen in consequence. It was the annual prize shoot and outsiders were allowed to participate. Captain F. Schmemann had the park and grounds in beautiful order and in consequence the women and children and picnic parties had a most enjoyable time.

The new proprietor is working hard to make the place the most popular and select picnic and shooting resort on the coast, and bids fair to make a success of his efforts.

Sunday next the Lafayette Guard and the French Legion will hold their annual outing there and a big crowd is expected. The prize winners yesterday all made exceedingly good scores. H. Strecker, in the honorary class, made 72 out of a possible 75, and took first prize. His brother made 67 out of a possible 100, and also took first prize in his class. G. Helm made the highest score on five tickets at each target and secured the champion cup.

At one target three shots are allowed for $1 and at the other four shots. D. W. McLaughlin won the prize for the first best and last best bullseye. The other prize winners were: D. B. Faktor, 35, third prize; George Helm, 34, fourth prize; J. Utshig, 33, fifth prize; D. W. McLaughlin, 32, sixth prize; and H. Strecker, 32, seventh prize.

The prize winners in the women's branch of the Verneys were: Miss K. Utshig, 71; Miss L. Utshig, 70; Mrs. Kelly, 68; Mrs. Fisher, 67; Mrs. Finking, 67; Mrs. McLaughlin, 65; Mrs. Keppler, 65; and Mrs. Egging, 65. These scores were all out of a possible 75.
