

OUT AT THE RACETRACK.

Raphael and Kathleen Finished First at Surprisingly Long Odds.

MIDAS PUT UP A GOOD RACE.

Blizzard, an Even-Money Favorite, Had a Hard Time Downhill Tar and Tartar.

Sam Hildreth will train but one portion of the Baldwin string.

With any sort of a ride Dara should have won her race. The jockey should have learned the art of riding.

Stretch runners fared poorly yesterday. The heat that went into the jump and secured the path was the one that got the coin.

Ed Pariser bet $1000 on Thornhill as soon as the odds were posted against him but later put a bet on Midas. The second thought was a good one.

Blizzard pulled up very lame, but it is said this ailment is always more pronounced when the brown horse is entered in a selling race to be sold for $400.

After perusing a few pages of chapter I of the dope book Ed Pariser concluded to put a few stray dollars on Raphael, which proved a very profitable investment.

Notwithstanding the many outsiders that won yesterday, the majority of the bookmakers quit behind on the day. Hughie Jones, it is said, was touched up heavily.

Vick Hall thought the fates very unkind to him yesterday. He got as good as 4 to 1 against the race and had a good-looked bet on the speedy mare. For once she did not bleed, but was beaten out by a "whisker" by a 4 to 1 chance. On top of this Vick's Tar and Tartar was beaten out a head in the race by Blizzard.

Tar and Tartar ran a greatly improved race yesterday over the one he ran when beaten four lengths by Rear Guard. That day with Hildreth on he apparently could not get to the front part of the race, but yesterday went out in the lead with the speed of a sprinter. The St. Louis Garrison is a wonder.

Yesterday was reception day at the track for the rank and file, and the levee was a most pronounced success. Among those that distinguished themselves during the afternoon festivities were Raphael and the Little Alp sprinter Kathleen. The former won the second race at odds of 30 to 1, and the black mare downed Nick Hall's Sweet Alice in an eyebrow finish, with as good as 10 to 1 marked against her. Old Inker-man and Blizzard were the only favorites that met with success.

The track was heavy, with a five and a half inch of rain on the extreme outside, and to secure this was the bone of contention among the jockeys in the different heats. The card was an excellent one, made up of sprinting and distance events, and that the attendance was so light was surprising.

Inker-man, Dara and San Luis Rey were all well backed to win the opening race, at six furlongs, and the former was the favorite at 11 to 5. Bobobink had the field until turning into the stretch, when Chevalier, on the favorite, secured the hard path on the outside and he won by three lengths, gaining his lead from Dara. Reserve was a fair third.

The second race, a five-furlong scramble, was run over the inside steeplechase course. Joe Cotton was a decided first choice, going to the post 5 to 5, with Sligo second and the third, North and Last Chance received some support. At the last moment Raphael's price came down from 30 to 20 to 1.

Sligo took the lead ascending the second hill and led until the stretch hill was reached, where he threw it up. Raphael struck the flat in front with Joe Cotton at his heels. In a drive Burns lanted the one shot first by half a length. Sligo was a fair third.

Most of the handicappers received a hard setback in the mile race for three-year-olds and upward. Thornhill was the favorite for a moral, going to the post 11 to 10. Some of the wise ones fancied Midas and Malo Diablo with their light weight and, there was a heavy play on them toward the close of the betting.

Malo Diablo followed by Thornhill, made the running until nearing the stretch, when Midas came from third place and took the lead. The latter and Malo Diablo then had it ding down to the wire, Chevalier on Midas getting the decisive lead through superior riding. Thornhill was a good third.

Fourth on the card, a short six-furlong race, ended in another dump for followers of the favorite. Conde and Terra Nova won both hands, with Chevalier and the closing price against each. Bob Inova, on Duches of Milpitas, the third choice, took the lead entering the stretch and passed the stand pulling up, three lengths in front in a drive that beat Terra Nova a length for second place.

But the star long shot of the day was to follow. The going was thought to be just suitable for Banjo, and he opened an even money chance for the fifth race, a five and a half furlong spin. He went back in the betting to 7 to 5, from the force of money that was played in on Sweet Alice. Nearing post time Kathleen's price was cut from 40 to 1.

Sweet Alice and Kathleen were the only ones in it from the start, which was of the straggling order. Hall's mare had a lead of three lengths into the stretch, with Kathleen rapidly closing the gap. The latter collared her near the wire, and the two passed the judges noses apart. Kathleen's nose was the longest and she won. Arctic was a close third.
