

SAN FRANCISCO'S BARGAIN FIESTA.

Labels. INCORPORATED

937, 939 and 941 Market Street, San Francisco.

GOVERNOR BUDD, writing of the Floral Fiesta at Santa Rosa, says: "The festival to-day surpasses my expectations. . . . The railroad company was compelled to stop selling tickets. It had not transportation facilities to accommodate the people. . . . I look upon this Fiesta as a strong evidence of the revival of business prosperity. . . . When people suffer hard times and there is little money in sight they never spend anything on extravagance for flower displays or anything of that character. . . . When all are prosperous and happy they dress well. . . ."
