PARADE OF THE WHEELMEN.

The Denver Contingent Takes First Prize Both for Numbers and Appearance.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 9.—The second day of the National League of American Wheelmen met here proved most enjoyable.

Following close upon the Denver, Pittsburg and Harrison contingents, which arrived yesterday, came large delegations of the Chicago Cycle Club, Pennsylvania Wheelmen, Time Wheelmen, Century Wheelmen and Press Cycle Club of Philadelphia.

The only Arthur Augustus Zimmerman, looking like a typical Jersey farmer, and his side partner, Harry Wheeler, took the Denver men in tow last night and promanaded them about town and over the beach until the travel-sore hearts of the Rocky Mountain men were faint and their shoes were full of sand, but with no discouraging effect upon their irrepresible lungs and wild Western yells.

To-day the only excitement have been the run to Long Branch, through the Interlaken and Elberon, by the famous Surf road, the great parade and the discussion of Miss Kittie Knox's case.

Then the discussion commenced. Ninety-nine out of every hundred members interviewed express the heartiest sympathy for her and condemnation of the hasty action of the badge committee.

The principal thoroughfares were lined with citizens, visitors and excursionists, and the scene was one of extraordinary beauty. The Denver Wheel Club carried first prize for both numbers and appearance, parading fifty-four men and women, all attired in spotless white linen suits and yachting caps.

The ladies' division, led by Mrs. Boughton of New York, showed fifty-seven women, thirty-three of whom wore the bloomer costume, ten short skirts and the remainder the conventional habit.

the different State weather services. The synopsis of the reports telegraphed to Chicago are as follows:

The temperature conditions of the week have been generally favorable throughout the country. Corn has made very rapid growth during the week, and, except in Michigan, the general outlook for this crop is excellent.

THE WOMAN ON THE WHEEL.

She Has Not Been Condemned by Ex-President Harrison.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—A special to the Recorder from Indianapolis says: General Harrison to-day was questioned regarding his reported statement that he was against the woman cyclist. He spoke with some warmth, saying:

"I have never told any newspaper man that I was opposed to women riding the wheel. Many of my women friends and neighbors here in Indianapolis ride the wheel and write it well. I consider it a health-giving exercise when not carried to an extreme, but it is one that may be attended with some danger to a careless rider."

"My daughter, Mrs. McKee, is at Saratoga with her father, Benjamin McKee, and both ride; new wheels were shipped to them last week. I have frequently spoken to friends on the subject, but have not said what is said in the story printed in New York. I do not believe a man's opinion would go far if it were against so popular a form of amusement."

The friends of General Harrison are laughing at the attempt to make political capital out of the wheel. The story originally started from a letter from a citizen of Dana, Indiana, where General Harrison was recently squirrel hunting. In this letter the Dana citizen says General Harrison said he thought the woman in question was giving a very unpleasant exhibition.

TALK OF SCHOOL WORK.

Fifteen Thousand Educators Begin Their Annual Session.

Californians Are Honored With High Offices in the National Council.

DENVER, Colo., July 8.—The first session of the thirty-fourth annual convention of the National Educational Association was held at the Central Presbyterian Church this afternoon, in the presence of 4000 persons, the utmost capacity of the building, thousands of others being turned away from the doors.

At the session of the National Council this morning State Superintendent Black of California was appointed on the committee to investigate and report a plan for reorganization of ungraded schools. Earl Barnes of Palo Alto, Cal., was elected vice-president of the National Council, and Charles H. Keyes of California was elected a member to fill a vacancy.

The opening session of the general convention was called to order at 2:30 o'clock, and after prayer by Dr. J. N. Freeman, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, Aaron Gove, Superintendent of Schools of Denver and chairman of the arrangements committee, made a brief address of welcome. He was followed by Lieutenant-Governor J. L. Brush, who represented the State of Colorado in the absence of Governor McIntyre in St. Louis.

After music by the Apollo Club, with twenty male voices, on motion of General John Eaton, ex-commissioner of Education of the United States, a cablegram of greetings was sent to Commissioner of Education Harris and his traveling companion, Professor Greenwood of Kansas City, now in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Professor E. F. Hermans of the Denver schools gave a short address on the subject of physical training, calling attention to the necessity for keeping the body in proper condition during mental labor. He was followed by classes in physical training, conducted by Professor Jacob Schmitt, of the school of physical training of the Denver schools.

Notice was given that to-morrow morning constitutional amendments relative to elections and other matters would be submitted.

SAD CAUSE OF A CRIME.

Charles Gorman's Love for His Child Led Him to Become a Robber.

Shot to Death After He Had Stolen Money to Enable Him to Attend His Funeral.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 9.—The well-dressed robber, supposed to have been C. E. Cole, who was shot and killed outside the Auditorium last night by Detective Rosenthal, after he had held up a saloon-keeper named McGloin and wounded two men on the streets, was identified to-night as Charles Gorman, a bartender, who came here three weeks ago from New York, where he had worked at 1276 Broadway.

Gorman was out of employment, and was living with C. E. Cole, also a bartender, at the Somerset House, Twelfth street and Wabash avenue. Last Sunday he received word from his home in St. Paul that his child had died, and he was dependent on the charity of friends. He was offered $6 at a pawnshop for his revolver, but he needed $3 more to get to St. Paul to see his child buried, and it was in the effort to get money by crime that he met his death.

POURING INTO BOSTON.

Bands of Endeavorers Invade the Athens of the East.

EVERY TRAIN CROWDED.

Reception Committees Kept Busy Receiving the Arrivals.

GAY IN CRIMSON AND WHITE.

Streets of the City Beautifully Decorated in the Colors of the Order.

BOSTON, Mass., July 9.—What might be called the spray thrown in advance of the great waves of the Christian Endeavorers struck Boston to-day in the shape of detached delegates, who came in by the regular trains. Among the stragglers was a party of nearly 200 Nebraskans, who reached the union station this forenoon.

Most of the Endeavorers, however, came in singly or in groups of two or three, and they kept the reception committee on the jump, for few of them knew anything about the city or where they were to go.

Three hundred Michigan delegates reached the Albany station shortly after noon. On the Chicago special, which was due at the Albany station at 3 o'clock, there were about fifty delegates, chiefly from Chicago.

The Chicago and Cincinnati express, which arrived at 9:45 last evening, brought more than fifty delegates from Michigan and Pennsylvania. On the 10:20 train from the West yesterday morning five Idaho delegates arrived and were directed to the Clarendon-street Church, which is to be their headquarters.

There was also a small party from Indiana, but they proceeded immediately to Newton, where they were to be entertained by personal friends. Three Illinois delegates also came in on this train.

As the visitors enter the city they cannot fail to be delighted at the beautiful decorations of the nations. In one or two cases these approach the superb; the National colors intermingled finely with the crimson and white—the Christian Endeavor colors. Upon many of the great buildings of the city, the homes of Boston's shrewd and enterprising people, are seen outward decorations which have never been surpassed in elaborate arrangement even on political occasions or National holidays.

From roof to sidewalk many of these buildings are hung with the red and white, while mottoes and inscriptions bid the visitors welcome. In the windows of the shops throughout the city the presence of the visitors is recognized both in decorations and in the arrangement of goods displayed for sale. The decorative effect in these windows is exquisite in the extreme.

FOSTER ON CANDIDATES.

Says Harrison Is Making No Effort for the Nomination.

The Indiana Delegation Will Go to the Convention Without Any Pledge.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—A Washington special to the Press says: John W. Foster, who has just returned from his fruitless mission in China, has lost no time since his arrival in learning the political conditions. As Secretary of State under the Harrison administration, he naturally is in close touch with the President, and has availed himself of the earliest opportunity to discover what the prospects are of a return to the White House of his former chief.

In the course of his hurried journey across the continent he had an opportunity to meet the political lieutenants of the ex-President, and his views of the conditions are therefore of interest. He said to-day that he did not regard ex-President Harrison as in any way a candidate for another term.

"I do not know," he said, "how the Indiana delegation will stand. Of course, if Mr. Harrison were a candidate they would go to the convention pledged to him, for they are loyal to his interests and would rejoice to see him in the White House again. But Mr. Harrison is not a candidate. He is making no effort for the nomination."

"If it comes to him it must be through the general voice of the Republican party, and any movement for his renomination could not properly secure its impetus from his own State."

"The feeling throughout the party in favor of Mr. Harrison should be so strong as to make it evident that the general desire was for his renomination, then, of course, the delegation from Indiana would gladly fall in line, so that as matters now stand, with no candidate from their own State, I think the Indiana delegates will go to the convention without any pronounced preference. Some of them will be for Allison, some for McKinley, others for Reed, if the inclinations of the Republicans in the State are to be taken as an indication of their probable action."

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE CZAR.

Discovery of a Plot of Nihilists to End His Life.

PARIS, FRANCE, July 9.—The Journal's correspondent at St. Petersburg announces the discovery, near Moscow, of an extensive conspiracy against the life of the czar. The chief of the secret police, after tracing the conspiracy for months, succeeded in arresting eight of the conspirators, six of whom were recently pardoned Nihilists. The czar rewarded the chief with a present of 10,000 rubles.

WANTED IN NEW YORK.

Charles Schlesinger Guilty of Many Petty Crimes.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—Word was received at police headquarters to-day from the authorities at San Francisco that Charles Schlesinger had been arrested in that city. He is wanted here.

A year ago he opened a big clothing-store at Broadway and Eighth streets. The establishment was burned out. Two months ago Schlesinger took a troupe of pickaninies to Europe. He left them there. Two weeks ago he went to the jewelry establishment of Henry Levy & Co., in Maiden lane, and procured $400 worth of diamonds to sell on memorandum. He either pawned or sold the diamonds and kept the money. Then he fled from the city.

The detectives of this city learned he had gone to San Francisco and the police of that city were notified to arrest him. Detective Sergeant Herdubler will leave for San Francisco in a few days with requisition papers to bring him back.

QUIET AT GRAY CABLES.

The President Steals Away on Another Fishing Trip.

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass., July 9.—Everything is moving along nicely at Gray Gables as regards Mrs. Cleveland and her little daughter. The President, with Dr. Brant and Joe Jefferson, spent a few hours at bass fishing in a pond near Crows Nest to-day.

The lighthouse tender Verbena conveyed Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle and Secretary and Mrs. Morton to Falmouth this afternoon, where they spent the day with Secretary of State Olney and family, returning to Marion to-night. Secretary Carlisle will address the Bankers' Association at Saratoga to-morrow. Secretary Morton expects to start to-morrow on his trip through the West. Private Secretary Thurber was at Gray Gables while this afternoon. Mrs. Perine, Mrs. Cleveland's mother, arrived to-day on a visit to her daughter.

THEIR BOAT CAPSIZED.

Five Persons Drowned While Trying to Cross a Lake.

BATH, N. Y., July 9.—A drowning accident occurred just off Bluff Point on Lake Kenaka to-day, in which five persons lost their lives. Terry Tull, with his wife and three children, left Gibbons' Landing in a small boat to cross the lake. A strong wind capsized their boat and the whole party were drowned.

DIES IN A TURKISH JAIL.

An American Tourist Placed Under Arrest Without Cause.

The Hardships He Is Made to Endure End His Life While Still a Captive.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—An American gentleman who returned to this city on Saturday from the Orient brought information of the arrest and death of an American citizen in Eastern Turkey, in the early part of April last. The arrest was made without warrant of law and death, induced by the hardships endured, occurred in a Turkish prison.

Every one who has anything to do with the sentiment against the Americans in Turkey is under suspicion, but matters are gradually assuming the condition which puts all Armenians in the line of opposition to the government and they no longer strive to keep their feelings to themselves. While on shipboard crossing the Black Sea one of the wealthiest and most influential Armenian merchants was one of my fellow passengers. He talked in the most radical fashion about the oppression of the Turks. I warned him that he might be talking to Government spies and that he had better be more guarded in the expression of his views. He replied that he would be robbed and his property all in a few years any way and he felt that the end might come early as well as late.

"Such is the absolute despair manifested by all in that unfortunate land. Perhaps the sentiment against the Americans on the part of the officials of the Ottoman empire is best shown by a recent edict of the Sultan which forbids any subject of the empire to visit the United States."

INJURY TO THE DEFENDER.

The Flyer Partially Disabled While on Her Second Trial Trip.

Steel Piping Twisted Out of Shape by the Strain of Carrying the Sails.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 9.—The Defender strained her strengthening yesterday while on her second trial trip off the south end of Prudence Island.

When she arrived at her anchorage in Bristol harbor it was discovered that the two steel pieces of piping that are bolted from the angle iron deck braces to the bilge brace strainers of angle iron were bent and twisted out of shape on account of the great strain they were subject to in carrying the sails. It is likely that she will not have another trial before Saturday next, as the rigging will be again set up this week.

All information regarding the sail area of the Defender has been and is carefully guarded.

Nantucket's Celebration. BOSTON, Mass., July 9.—A three days' celebration was inaugurated at Nantucket Island to-day in commemoration of the incorporation of the county of Nantucket on June 22, 1895, and also in memory of the change of the name of the town from Sherburne to Nantucket, which occurred on June 8, 1785.

A Novel Plea Made on Behalf of a Famous Crook.

INHERITED VICIOUSNESS.

His Mother Claims She Is Responsible for His Crimes.

STOLE FROM HER HUSBAND.

Went Through All the Brain Sensations of a Burglar Before the Boy's Birth.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 9.—"Jimmy" Logue, the noted all-round crook, whose reputation extends all over the country, is still in Moyamensing Prison, where he is detained as a witness in the case against young Cutlar for the murder of Johanna Logue. It is now learned that Mrs. Jennie Sullivan, the nurse of his mother, who died recently in St. Louis, is coming with papers to secure a pardon for Logue on the ground that his criminal tendency is altogether due to parental influences. Logue does not expect the pardon, as he is simply detained as a witness.

The principal document, which Mrs. Sullivan is reported to be bringing to this city, is a letter from Mrs. Logue to her son, in which, after telling him of the sorrow he had caused her, the dying woman wrote:

"Neither our folks nor you have ever known the reason which I believe to have been your ruin. They know your father and myself to have been respectable and honest."

"I was particularly careful in raising you, from reasons only known to myself, but in spite of all you have been a desperate blow to me when you were first sentenced. But knowing what I do I cannot feel hard toward you, for it is now my firm belief that I, myself, your poor old mother, am responsible for your bad and unlawful habits."

"Just before you were born, your father was drinking much more than was good for him, and would spend all his wages in drink if he had an opportunity. I found it very hard to get any money from him for our bread and meat. At last it got so that the only way I could get his money was by waiting until he was asleep at night, and then picking his pockets."

"Many and many a night I have got up when he was asleep in the bed by my side, tiptoed over to where his clothes lay and like a thief gone through his pockets and taken what money I found there. Then he had a hot temper, and I was always afraid when I would be picking his pockets that he would wake and find me doing it."

"Thus I went through all the brain sensations of a daring burglar, even such as I am informed you have become. Shortly after that you were born, and I firmly believe you came into the world a thief, owing to that crime-like though necessary practice of mine. Your ever affectionate mother, MARY LOGUE."

Logue's record is probably unsurpassed in the history of crime, for the number of burglaries, frauds and thefts he has perpetrated throughout the country.

TO FIGHT WITH DYNAMITE.

A Shipload of the Explosive Ready to Start for Cuba.

Will Be Dropped in the Camp of the Spaniards by Means of Miniature Balloons.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—"Our dynamite expedition is to start in about ten days," said the secretary of the Cuban Club of Harlem to a reporter to-night. "The recent action of the Spanish Government will force the Cubans' hand sooner than was intended. According to the plan of campaign agreed on in May, guerrilla warfare was to be kept up until the close of the yellow fever season in the autumn. Then large bodies of troops were to attack all along the line."

"Whether the dynamite expedition will start from near Perth Amboy, New London or Philadelphia I cannot tell. We shall have about 150 men ready to embark on a sailing vessel. We shall not carry a large supply of arms and ammunition. The feature will be dynamite. We propose to send a couple of expert engineers by another boat a few days ahead, so that they will be on the island ready to co-operate when the dynamite arrives."

"We shall carry a lot of Fourth of July balloons to be used in a new and startling way for war purposes. These balloons are propelled by the fumes of burning alcohol. They can easily be kept afloat ten or fifteen minutes, according to the size of the sponge and the amount of alcohol in the sponge when lighted."

"One of these toy balloons will carry three to five pounds of dynamite. By starting the balloon on the windward side of a town the current will easily carry it high enough above the buildings to drop the dynamite among the Spaniards and blow up their works."

"Our experiments prove that the feat will be attended with no peril and will be sure to work terrible destruction in the enemy's towns. No matter how the wind may blow, we shall be on the right side of a fort for the wind to waft our balloons directly over the point to be destroyed, and the amount of alcohol will be adjusted to drop the dynamite exactly where we want it to fall."

"Suppose we are on the west side of a town of 20,000 inhabitants, with a breeze blowing from the west, at 4 o'clock in the morning we can start three or four of these balloons, each carrying say five pounds of dynamite, making twelve or fifteen pounds in all. Thunderbolts and earthquakes could not be more dreadful in their havoc. I fancy that any escaping soldiers who may chance to survive the dynamite would be glad to be taken prisoners, even by the most desperate Cubans. Death by the machete would be far preferable to being torn to pieces by dynamite. When we drop our explosives into forts the air will be black with flying masonry and missiles far more destructive than grape and canister."

gotten when we begin to rain dynamite on balloons."

CUBAN COAST PATROL.

Filibusters Not Active on the Florida Coast.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9.—The cruiser Atlanta, which arrived at Port au Prince Saturday night directly from New York under orders to cruise in Cuban waters to prevent the violation of neutrality laws, left that port yesterday for Santiago de Cuba. The instructions of Captain Cromwell, her commander, directed him to cruise to the south of Cuba, performing duty similar to that of the Raleigh on the north of Cuba.

Since the return of the Raleigh to Key West on July 3 Secretary Herbert has been considering the advisability of relieving her with the Atlanta, as Captain Merrill Miller's reports show conclusively that little or no filibustering is actually contemplated by residents of Florida and that the activity on the part of the friends of the revolutionists there consists almost entirely of talk. It is probable that had the Atlanta stayed a day or two longer at Port au Prince she would have received orders to proceed directly to Key West and let the Raleigh come north. The latter vessel has been in southern waters only twenty days, however, and it is likely that she will remain two weeks longer. After that it will be the policy of the department to keep only one warship on guard to supplement the revenue steamers.

Admiral Bunce will probably successively order vessels of his command to patrol Florida waters for thirty days each.

DRILLING YOUTHS FOR CUBA.

School of Instruction Conducted by a Patriot in New York.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—Colonel Terence Maguire, an old Cuban patriot who fought in the last insurrection, recently hired from John J. Clancey, a Broadway real estate agent, the second floor at 177 Broadway for $45 per month. He assumed all responsibility for the rent and said that the place would be occupied by him for at least six months.

Since then people in the vicinity of Fifty-seventh street and Broadway have noticed that many young men enter the two-story building. A reporter succeeded yesterday in obtaining admission to the drillroom, where fifty young Cubans were under instruction in the manual of arms. Their uniform consisted of a white canvas helmet, a blue sweater such as is worn by bicyclists, a belt and black trousers. The colonel demanded to know how he had been discovered. Addressing the men he said:

"I shall make a rigid investigation. If I learn that a member of this company supplied the information which led to the visit of the reporter I shall punish him severely. It is absolutely necessary at this time," he added, "that our movements be conducted secretly. I shall make an example of the informer."

The colonel was visibly agitated and at once ordered his company to disperse. He acknowledged that his men were prepared to go to Cuba and fight for the independence of the island.

JOSE MARTI'S SUCCESSOR.

Senior Palma Chosen Civil Representative by the Cuban Patriots.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—The Cuban election for a successor to Jose Marti as Civil Representative was practically decided last night in favor of Senor Thomas Estrada Palma. It has been announced that the election was to be held on the 10th, but as editor Enrique Trujillo explained to the delegates by telegram, and the decision is known in advance, the delegates in the principal large cities of the Union and Mexico represent thousands of voters in their respective states. The returns were from Vera Cruz, Mex., Ocala, Key West, and from Tampa, Fla., and from New Orleans. New York also cast her entire vote for Senor Palma.

THREATENED BY THE BEAR.

Why China Agreed to Accept the Russian Loan.

LONDON, Eng., July 9.—The Morning Post to-morrow will print a dispatch from Peking saying it is stated there that China agreed to the Russian loan under the threat that Liao Tung Peninsula would be restored to Japan if she failed to agree. The Chinese Government decided to pay the war indemnity immediately, so as to save interest and the expenses of Japanese occupation, but this course was found to be impracticable, Russia insisting that no fresh loan should be negotiated within six months.

GLADSTONE'S MESSAGE.

Urges English People to Meet the Just Claims of Ireland.

LONDON, Eng., July 9.—The Westminster Gazette a few days ago asked Mr. Gladstone to write a message to the people to be displayed upon magic lantern slides, together with cartoons and election news at the National Liberal Club. Mr. Gladstone complied with the request by sending the following:

HAWARDEN, July 5.—Above all other present purposes vindicate the rights of the House of Commons as the organ of the nation and establish the honor of England, as well as consolidate the strength of the empire, by conceding the just and constitutional claims of Ireland.

BI-METALLIC MANIFESTO.

It Calls Upon the Voters of England to Consider Monetary Reform.

LONDON, Eng., July 8.—The Bimetallic League has issued a manifesto declaring the depression in trade is due to the fall in prices. It says that it is also noticeable that the transference of productive industry from the gold to the silver standard countries is menacing many of the chief manufactures here, yet Great Britain blocks the way to an international attempt to reconvert silver. The manifesto asks the electors to give the monetary reform the foremost place when they are deciding how to vote.

SLAIN BY INDIANS.

Yaguis Make a Bloody Raid on Rancheros and Cowboys.

HERMOSILLO, Mex., July 9.—News has been received here, another bloody depredation of seventy-five Yaqui Indians upon a settlement of ranchmen and cowboys southwest of here, in the Yaqui River Valley. The Indians were fully armed and equipped for war, and made an attack at night. A cattleman, his son and three cowboys were killed. The Indians loaded their horses with grain and vegetables stolen from the houses, and escaped into the mountains.

CORNELL'S MEN WIN.

Roosevelt, Lieutenant-Commander Cowles and Commodore McNeil and wife.

Messrs. F. G. Mackay and W. J. Ritchie and their wives, of California, will entertain hundreds of guests on board their launch. The party will include C. M. Palmer and wife of Minneapolis, Lord and Lady King, Lady Peyton and General Sayer of the Royal Dragoons. The music will be furnished by the Hungarian band. They will also give a large dinner-party on Thursday.

Elias Jessurun, London director of the New York mercantile house of Gordon & Ditsworth, will entertain a party of Americans on board his launch. On Newton Crane's launch the guests included Judge Lefevre of Colorado, E. M. Judson of St. Louis, Miss Kirkpatrick of Colorado, Miss Stinger of Memphis and Miss Jackson of St. Louis.

There was a great deal of friendly interchange of visits among the occupants of the houseboats and launches. Ambassador Bayard made brief calls on most of the houseboats. There is great rejoicing among the Americans on the Cornell's success in getting their first heat, they having backed their crew heavily. Enormous as the attendance of spectators was, it would have been a good deal larger but for the fact that it was settling day on the Stock Exchange, which detained in London large numbers of brokers who are habitués of the Henley regatta.

The drawing of lots for to-morrow's heat in the grand challenge cup resulted in the pitting of Cornell on the Berks side of the contest against Trinity Hall (Cambridge) on the Bucks side for the fourth heat, and Eton against New College (Oxford) on the Berks and Bucks side for the fifth.
