WEDDED FIFTY YEARS.

Dr. and Mrs. Gallaudet Felicitated Upon Their Golden Anniversary.

TALK IS AT A DISCOUNT.

A Milestone in a Romance Begun Under the Walls of the Institution.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 15.—A most remarkable golden wedding was celebrated this afternoon by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Gallaudet, at the New York Institute for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb.

The anniversary marked a romance which was begun under the walls of the institution in 1834. Sixty-one years ago Miss Elizabeth R. Budd, then a slip of a girl, descended from an old New York family, prominent in medical lines, entered the New York institution to receive instruction as a deaf-mute.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 15.—Ex-Congressman Roswell G. Horr, one of the most forcible and conclusive orators of the day, representing the gold standard, will meet to-morrow night, as a challenge circular states, his opponent, William H. Harvey, the exponent of the theory of a silver standard at 16 to 1, and author of "Coin's Financial Schools," to discuss the monetary system of the United States with the purpose to "reach the truth in the most direct and convincing manner, stripped of all romance and all rhetoric, not upon the public platform, where the excitement of the hour might sway judgment, but with the quietness and calm of deliberate discussion."

HORR TO MEET HARVEY.

A Ten Days' Debate Between Champions of Gold and Silver.

Their Object to Reach the Truth in the Most Direct and Convincing Manner.

Dr. and Mrs. Gallaudet were escorted to the church, where the formal ceremonies began. This is vacation time, and only about forty out of four hundred pupils are staying at the school, but a number of prominent alumni were present, and there were visitors from surrounding cities as well as leading New Yorkers.

MENACED BY NEGROES.

The Lynching of a Murderer Causes an Uprising of Blacks.

TROOPS ORDERED OUT AT GREENVILLE, S. C., TO PREVENT THEM FROM RETALIATING.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 16.—Johnson, the negro who one week ago murdered Frank Langford at Piedmont, Greenville County, because he told him to put up a pistol he had drawn on Langford's companion, was taken out of the Greenville Jail at 2 o'clock this morning, conveyed a mile out of town and hanged.

There is great excitement in the town of Greenville to-night. At midnight two military companies have been ordered out. One is at the jail and the other resting on their arms at the armory. The fire engines have steam up and citizens are guarding their homes. This is caused by a threat to lynch Lewis, a white man charged with murdering a negro and confined in jail, and by the further dread that the people fear the application of the torch to their houses during the night.

MURDER OF BARBER ULLERY at the Town of Downey.

MONTEREY'S WHITE CITY

Preparing the Ground for the Encampment of the Regulars.

COURT-MARTIAL AT TUCSON.

An Insane Passenger Jumps From a Rapidly Moving Train and is Killed.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., July 15.—Frank Romer shot and killed B. M. Ullery at Downey, a little after 8 o'clock this morning. Three shots were fired, all entering the right breast in close proximity to the heart. Ullery died almost instantly.

Ullery had many friends in town, and they believe his killing was cowardly and unjustifiable. He was a barber and not over 26 years of age. Romer is a laborer and does such work as he can find. The men had some trouble the night before.

MONTEREY'S ENCAMPMENT.

Ground Being Prepared for the Great Sham Battle.

MONTEREY, CAL., July 15.—Far up in the foothills, near a pretty grove of oak trees, a little white city of tents has sprung up. These are to be the homes of about 800 regular soldiers from the Presidio, who will arrive on Wednesday next. Already there have arrived several troops, who have been busy preparing for this great outing.

The soldiers will be in camp for two months, and in that time some lively times will be had. All kinds of amusements and sports have been arranged, but the biggest event will be the sham battle, which is a month past a detachment of privates have been busy clearing the chaparral and making paths through the woods for the battle. It promises to be the largest and most exciting one ever held in Monterey.

Among other characteristics will be the representations of old-time battles and skirmishes that took place in Monterey during the late trouble with Mexico, when General Sherman was in camp at Monterey, then the capital of California.

COURT-MARTIAL AT TUCSON.

Three Militia Officers to Be Tried on a Number of Charges.

TUCSON, ARIZ., July 15.—A court-martial composed of the following officers of the National Guard of Arizona is now sitting in Tucson: Major J. A. Black, presiding; Captains Ingalls, Mullen, Wiekham; Lieutenants Carpenter and Jones; Major R. A. Lewis, judge advocate, assisted by Lieutenant Lavall, United States regular army.

Captain Trayer and Lieutenant Riesgo, of Company F, and Lieutenant Hughes of Company N are to be tried. In the Fourth of July procession the bicyclists and the bicycle "horribles" were assigned to lead the procession. After marching a block Captain Trayer ordered Company F to disband and their accoutrements turned in, and the court-martial is trying the above-named officers on a number of charges. Great interest is manifested all over the Territory in the outcome.

JUMPED FROM A TRAIN.

Sad Fate of a Prominent Memphis Citizen Who Had Become Insane.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., July 15.—J. M. Terzevant, a prominent resident of Memphis, Tenn., became violently insane at Cheyenne while en route to this coast. He was placed in charge of Dr. Cleveland of San Francisco.

Last night he escaped from his keeper at this side of Ocean and sprang from the rapidly moving train. As soon as possible a search was instituted. This evening his body was found under Butte canyon bridge, where he is supposed to have jumped from the train. His death must have been instantaneous. The body was discovered by the fireman on the engine of the overland passenger train, known as No. 2. It was taken to Cisco county, where the coroner will hold an inquest.

SONOMA AND MARIN FAIR.

Unless the Horsemen Put Up Entrance Money There Will Be No Races.

PETALUMA, CAL., July 15.—The board of directors of the Sonoma and Marin Agricultural Association are very much in doubt as to the advisability of holding their annual fair in August. The citizens here readily subscribed $1000 to aid the directors in making the fair this year more successful than ever before.

Liberal purses were offered and entries were numerous, but the necessary 3 per cent entrance money was not forthcoming, except in a few cases. As there is nearly $3000 due the society in forfeited entrance money from last year the directors are a little suspicious of the horsemen, and have notified all those making entries to send on their entrance money immediately or the races will be declared off.

REDDING FIRES.

Four Thousand Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed.

REDDING, CAL., July 15.—Two fires in the course of twelve hours destroyed $4000 worth of property here this morning. The first fire broke out on Mrs. Hart's two-story frame residence on Pine street at 1:20 o'clock and destroyed the building and contents. It was caused by the explosion of a lamp. The loss is $3000 and insurance $1700. One roomer had a narrow escape and was compelled to jump from the second-story window.

Another fire broke out in a frame residence on Court street, occupied by a family named Smith. The building and contents were destroyed. Loss $1000; no insurance. The father and mother were away at the time and their several small children were rescued with difficulty.

STOCKTON, CAL., July 15.—Mrs. Jennie Himmelmann, ex-wife of A. A. McLean of San Francisco, who has the custody of the three children for whom the husband was searching here last week upon a warrant

FUNERAL OF JAMES H. KNOWLES.

PETALUMA, CAL., July 15.—The funeral of James H. Knowles, one of the oldest settlers in this section of the country, occurred yesterday from his home at Canfield Corners, in Blucher Valley. Hundreds of people drove out to the old settler's ranch and sorrowfully followed the funeral procession to the cemetery, at the top of a knoll just a few hundred yards in front of the old homestead.

SAN DIEGO'S CONSTABLE EXERCISED.

FRESNO, CAL., July 15.—The north-bound train ran into a butcher-wagon at 3 o'clock this morning, near the city limits, smashing up the team and fatally injuring August Modenbach, the driver. He is a German, 35 years of age, and recently arrived in this country.

LOS ANGELES COUNTERFEITERS.

Ormandy and His Entire Family Arraigned Before a Commissioner.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., July 15.—J. H. Ormandy, the man held last week to await the action of the United States District Court for wholesale counterfeiting, his wife, his pretty 17-year-old daughter and his 12-year-old son, constituting the entire family, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Van Dyke this afternoon on a charge of having made and passed counterfeit halves, quarters, dimes and nickels.

It was the first time that a whole family has been arraigned before the Commissioner and there were many spectators taking in the queer spectacle. Mrs. Ormandy and her daughter were much affected and wept copiously during the examination.

CAMP LEDYARD PASTIMES.

The Lads of the Boys' Brigade Spend a Most Enjoyable Day.

A Trip on a Steam Launch and a Drive to the Grove of Big Trees.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., July 15.—The Boys' Brigade camp is back again to the regular routine of duties. The drilling shows a marked improvement over last week, and the discipline of the camp is perfect. The boys are keeping up the reputation of being the best behaved set of boys ever in town.

Captain Fred Howe was the officer of the day and Lieutenant Ede officer of the guard to-day.

A dress parade the brigade was reviewed by State President Ledyard, and the boys did well. To-night at the Sea Beach Hotel parlors a grand reception was tendered the commissioned officers by Brigadier-General Russell.

A large part of the day was devoted to pleasure, swimming, boating and fishing being the chief pastimes. At the campgrounds ball was enjoyed and the lads, not to be outdone by the militia, were enjoying themselves immensely by tossing the smaller lads of the camp in the air with the aid of a blanket.

President Ledyard, with a large number of the boys, took a trip on the steam launch on the bay and stopped at Capitola for a few hours. The boys enjoyed the trip immensely. A party of twenty-one passed the day at the big trees, driving to the grove through the beautiful San Lorenzo Canyon. At the grove they had dinner, and after returning to town went to the natural bridge and took the famous cliff drive. Those in the party were Brigadier-General Russell and Major-General Woodham and their wives, President Smith, J. M. Case, a party of ladies, and the general's non-commissioned staff.

The band took part to-night in an entertainment at the Blunge baths. To-morrow night a grand concert will be given at the carnival pavilion, and on Wednesday a baseball game will be played at Veude l'Eau Athletic Park between the brigade team and the town team.

SEATTLE'S MURDER MYSTERY.

No Definite Clue to the Slayers of Rancher Stokes.

SEATTLE, WASH., July 15.—The mystery surrounding the death of Ransom B. Stokes, the wealthy Sunnyside rancher whose body was found in a brush heap, partly charred a few days ago, deepens. The authorities seem to have had a rather weak case against Charles and Fred Kindling, who are under arrest on suspicion of being his murderers.

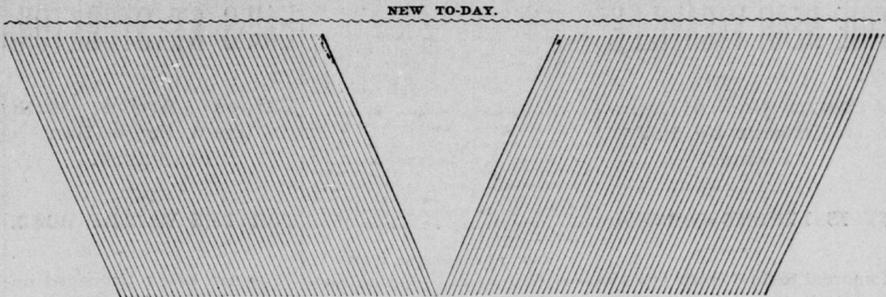

The inquest will probably not determine anything. To-day it was ascertained that Stokes had nearly $2000 on deposit in a local bank. The authorities have also learned that two watches belonging to Stokes are missing and believe they were pawned in Tacoma, and that the Kindling boys were in that city recently. Clothing belonging to the Kindling boys has been found which bears stains resembling blood, and just now a discussion is going on between the coroner and the County Commissioners as to whether an analysis of the clothing should be made.

Kindling has been confined in his house seems to be certain. He was an eccentric man. When a laborer had finished working for him he would never pay him, but ask him to call the next day when a money order would be forthcoming, although Stokes had never visited town in the meantime. He had evidently taken it from his hiding-place.

THE HAWLEY BULLION STEAL.

Judge Hawley Refuses to Fine Superintendent Adams for Contempt.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., July 15.—The modified application of Judge T. J. Jones heard before Judge Hawley in the Circuit Court to-day. The application is to have Superintendent Adams fined for contempt of court for refusing defendants in the mint bullion case permission to examine certain bars of gold and silver bullion to determine the time they were molded. Clarke and United States District Attorney Jones argued against holding Adams in contempt, and Torreyson and Coffin appeared for Plaintiff Jones. Judge Hawley denied the application, but stated that when the case came to trial he would issue a subpoena against holding Adams in contempt in the presence of Inspector Mason. This is exactly what the Jones side asked for.

ANGELS CAMP FATALITY.

A Miner Blown to Pieces by a Blast at the Bottom of a Shaft.

His Death Due to His Gross Disobedience of the Rules of the Mine.

ANGELS CAMP, CAL., July 15.—A terrible accident occurred in the Blair mine near here last night. Two blasts had been set off, but one of them failed to fire. Lazarus Castro and Jose Costa were let down the shaft to again ignite the fuse that communicated with the charge that had failed to explode.

The rules require that when men are in the bucket six bells shall be rung, when the pucker should be raised four feet to show that everything is in order. One bell then means to hoist.

When Costa was ready to light the fuse he asked Castro if all was ready, and the latter replied yes. Costa applied the candle, which was extinguished by the fuse, but Castro had failed to ring the precautionary six bells. The bucket had caught on the skid, but when one bell was rung the engineer apprehended that a mistake had been made and attempted to hoist, but the bucket would not move.

Costa realized the danger and sprang for a drift about eight feet above, yelling at his comrade to follow. The latter hesitated and the blast went off while he was in the bucket. He was literally torn to pieces. Although Costa had but one foot in the drift at the time he was uninjured, as the force of the flying missiles was spent against the bucket and its human load.

PORT TOWNSEND FEARS.

The Revenue Launch Black Pup Supposed to Have Been Capsized.

She Has Been Out Four Days on a Run That Usually Takes but Eight Hours.

PORT TOWNSEND, WASH., July 15.—The non-arrival of the United States revenue launch Black Pup from Roche Harbor occasions the general belief here that the little vessel has been swamped in the straits. She left Roche Harbor Thursday last, bound for this port, and although the run usually consumes eight hours, the launch has not yet arrived and so far no report of the vessel has been received.

The vessel is regularly attached to this district to assist customs officers in the suppression of smuggling contraband opium and Chinese from British Columbia. She is under command of Lieutenant Horace B. West, who until recently was first lieutenant of the United States cutter Wolcott. He was detached from the cutter upon arrival here from San Diego recently, bound for her station at Sitka.

The Black Pup carries also four sailors from the cutter Grant, now in Berine Sea. She has been stationed at Roche Harbor for some years and has been most successful in the smuggler chasing service. Two years ago, under command of West, she captured the launch Sibyl with ten contraband Chinese aboard. The Sibyl was later confiscated by the Government and is now under special detail, testing coal on the Sound for the Government.

If the Black Pup is not reported by daylight to-morrow the fleet of searching vessels now out under the direction of Captain Frank Tuttle will be doubled and a systematic search of all the islands will be made for the vessel or her wreckage.

SERIOUS TROUBLE AVERTED.

It Arose From the Mysterious Disappearance of Some Money.

ANGELS CAMP, CAL., July 15.—Dick Raggio, who resides a couple of miles above Murphy's, has been in the habit of keeping quite a large sum of money in his house. The Raggio brothers, besides owning the local stage lines, also have the contract for delivering logs to the Utica Company, and had driven one of the teams. He had stowed $160 in gold and some silver away in his house, although his wife had admonished him against such carelessness.

When he went to get the money the gold had disappeared, but the silver remained. A young man of this place had been visiting at the house and he was accused of the theft. The boy's elder brother went up to Raggio's place with blood in his eye, intending to compel the latter to retract the charge. Two of Raggio's relatives got wind of the young man's intentions and the three arrived at Dick's house about the same time. As there was no evidence against the lad, the matter was amicably settled and hostilities avoided. The affair has created quite a sensation here, as both families are prominent.

A Grand Firemen's Tournament.

ANGELS CAMP, CAL., July 15.—A grand firemen's tournament will be held here on the 9th and 10th of September. The companies of all adjoining counties will be invited to participate, and at least $500 will be given in cash prizes and trophies. There will probably also be horse-races and other amusements. On the night of the 9th a fireman's ball will be given at the park.

Joy for a Week.

SAN DIEGO, CAL., July 15.—Paymaster Reynolds of the United States steamship Thetis is here on a week's leave to see his affianced, Miss Belle Stewart, one of the city's handsomest young ladies, prominent in amateur theatricals and concerts.
