YELLOW FEVER IN HAVANA.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—Dr. Burgess, United States Medical Inspector at Havana, in a report to the Marine Hospital service, received to-day, states that yellow fever is increasing at an alarming rate among the civilian population of Havana. The Marine Hospital service also informed that cholera is epidemic at Higo, Japan.

CONGRESSIONAL RETURN.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 21.—The cruiser Montgomery, having on board the United States Nicaragua Canal Commission, arrived here to-day. The Commissioners, beyond saying their trip was a success and a pleasant one, refused to talk. They will now prepare their report, which is to be presented to the Government in the fall.

THE ROWS LOCATED.

Two Iowa Defaulters Found Prospering in Mexico City.

DES MOINES, IOWA, July 21.—Chester Rowe, the defaulting Treasurer of Potosi County, Iowa, has been captured in the City of Mexico, and to-day requisition papers were issued for the arrest of him and his brother, Richard Rowe, who is with him. Rowe has been in Mexico since 1890. Owing to speculations he was in trouble, and in April last he skipped with $30,000 of the county's cash. No trace of him could be secured, and the county placed the Pinkerton agency at Chicago on the case. It tracked the Rowe brothers to Mexico. They have been running a saloon in the City of Mexico and have the $30,000 deposited in the Mexican International Bank. It has been attached. There will be trouble in getting them back here, as both have renounced all allegiance to the United States and have taken out first citizen's papers in Mexico.

JUST LIKE JOHN BROWN.

Mr. Peckles Raising Arms to Resist the Government.

OMAHA, NEBR., July 21.—United States District Attorney Sawyer arrived in this city this morning from Lincoln. He has secured a copy of the bill on which an injunction against Captain Beck and the Indian police was granted by Judge Norris. He counseled Captain Beck in the meantime that he should obey the orders of the State court. Captain Beck has returned from Sioux City to the reservation. He said: "All I know is that a man named Peckles was in town a few days ago, and that a man named John Brown tried that once and did not make a success of it."

BALTIMORE, Md., July 21.—This was the closing day of the great convention of the Young People's Baptist Union. The services included the convention sermon and annual address of President Chapman. After consecration service to-night the convention adjourned sine die. Every session and meeting held since last Thursday morning, about 100 in number, has been attended by large audiences and marked by an enthusiasm and earnestness which bodes well for the future growth and prosperity of the union.

Little Doubt That Corbett and Fitzsimmons Will Fight in Texas.

DALLAS, Tex., July 21.—The sale of seats for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons glove contest went on to-day at the headquarters of the Texas Athletic Club without intermission. The determination of the business men in last night's mass-meeting to stand by President Stuart and the other promoters of the contests and the chances are a hundred to one to-night that Corbett and Fitzsimmons, Maher and O'Donnell and Dixon and Plimmer will settle their fisty arguments in this city in October next according to the original programme, regardless of the opposition of the ministers.

AN UNSAFE BRIDGE.

The Santa Fe Consented for the Calamity at Monument, Colo.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 21.—After carefully investigating the facts in connection with the accident on the Santa Fe Railroad, south of Monument, a few days ago, in which several persons were killed and wounded, the Coroner's jury returned a verdict that J. E. Childers, one of the dead, "came to his death by the falling of a bridge as a train was passing over it." The light of the fact was shown from the testimony that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company are responsible for his death, and that said bridge was and has been for a long time in a state of falling disrepair, and we believe the said company to have been cognizant, and we believe the company should be held for damages caused by the accident.

OHIO SWEEPED BY A STORM.

At a Zanesville Camp-Meeting Two Persons Are Crushed Beneath a Falling Tree.

WADENA, MINN., July 21.—A cyclone, moving with resistless force and velocity, swept through the town of Deer Creek, twenty miles west of here, in Otter Tail County, late this afternoon. For two hours after the storm struck no word could be received from Deer Creek, and a dense cloud of dust hung over the place. It was feared that the town had been wholly wiped from the face of the earth, and that many lives had been lost. Finally telegraphic communication was restored, and it was learned that nobody had been killed outright, although a number had received fatal injuries. It was also learned that there was immense damage to buildings and grain. Surgeons have been sent over from the Northern Pacific Black Hills branch from both Wadena and Fergus Falls.

CRUSHED BY A FALLING TREE.

Two Persons Killed at a Zanesville, Ohio, Camp-Meeting.

ZANESVILLE, OHIO, July 21.—A fearful wind-storm, accompanied by a heavy rainfall, burst on the camp grounds near Roseville, Ohio, this afternoon, uprooting trees and overturning buggies. The storm was cyclonic in fury, and before it had spent itself two persons were killed and several others seriously injured.

PROPOSED RACE MEETING.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., July 21.—Prominent horsemen are discussing a proposition to give a four days' race meeting here some time in October at Pierce Bros.' fair grounds. Efforts will be made to give liberal purses and make the meeting one of the best in the State. No races have been held here for a number of years, but it is believed that it can be made a great success this fall. It is believed that a big fair will be given here next year. There is a general demand that one be held here annually.

RACE THROUGH THE SURF.

SANTA MONICA, CAL., July 21.—In the half-mile swimming race over the surf here to-day Arthur Splittstoeser of Los Angeles won. Time, 16 minutes; J. N. Rice was second, 17:05; William Rapp third, 17:45.

CYCLING TOURISTS VISITED BENO.

DEVELOPER GETS A BALL CLUB.

The Omaha Nine to Be Transferred to the Colorado City.

OMAHA, NEBR., July 21.—The Omaha Baseball Club has been transferred and when it returns from its Eastern trip, which begins to-morrow at Des Moines, it will on August 9 begin its work at Denver.

MANAGER DAVID ROWE IN DENVER LAST WEEK MADE THE CONTRACTS, WHICH WERE TO-DAY RATIFIED BY PRESIDENT KENT OF THE ASSOCIATION, WHO IS HERE FOR THAT PURPOSE.

It is said that Denver people are very anxious to have the club and have made very good terms to get it. The guarantee is to be raised to $90 a game to the visiting club and the club is to be directly benefited financially. The cause of the removal is poor patronage and inaccessible grounds.

VIGILANT AND DEFENDER.

The Two Sloops to Test Their Speed on a Triangular Course.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 21.—The yacht Defender passed down the East River at about 6:30 o'clock this evening in tow from City Island. She was bound for the anchorage at Bay Ridge, where she will remain until the morning when she will again meet the Vigilant in another contest. The contest to-morrow will be a triangular one, ten miles on each leg. The start will probably be made from the Sandy Hook lightship.

FRANK WILLIAMS DEAD.

Apoplexy Caused the Passing of the Famous Sporting Man.

He Figured as Match-Maker in Many of the Big Pugilistic Events.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., July 21.—Captain Frank A. Williams, the well-known sporting man, died this morning at 5 o'clock of apoplexy. He retired last night in apparently perfect health. During the early morning his wife was awakened by his struggles, and he died shortly afterward.

CAPTAIN WILLIAMS WAS PERHAPS ONE OF THE BEST KNOWN MEN IN THE UNITED STATES AMONG THE FOLLOWERS OF THE PRIZE RING.

He was official match-maker for the Olympic and Crescent City Athletic clubs, the latter becoming the Auditorium after the Fitzsimmons-Hall fight, on which it lost much money, forcing it into bankruptcy. His most important work was in securing the great event for the Olympic Club, the Dixon-Skelly fight for a purse of $7000, the McCallister-Meyer for $10,000 and the Corbett-Sullivan for $25,000, the largest purse put up at that time. He made numerous other matches, among which was the Fitzsimmons-Hall fight for a purse of $40,000 before the Crescent City Club.

UP TO 1890 CAPTAIN WILLIAMS WAS A SUCCESSFUL LUMBER MERCHANT.

He then took up a sporting life and was a director of all the clubs with which he was connected.
