

BOWED TO THE BOSS.

Democrats of Maryland Followed Gorman's Dictates.

STATE TICKET SELECTED.

Decisive Victory Scored by the Senior United States Senator.

HAYES THROWN DOWN HARD.

Then He Boldly Charged the Dictator With Deceit and Double Dealing.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 31.—John E. Hurst, senior member of the dry-goods firm of Hurst, Purnell & Co., was this afternoon nominated for Governor by the Democratic State convention on the first ballot.

The ticket was completed by the nomination of Marion de Kalb Smith of Kent County, to succeed himself as Comptroller of the Treasury, and of State Senator Charles C. Crothers of Cecil County, for Attorney-General.

The surprise of the convention was the almost total desertion of the reassessment advocate, State Senator Thomas G. Hayes. He received but two votes on the rollcall.

A stormy scene is said to have taken place between Mr. Hayes and Senator Gorman just before the convention met, which undoubtedly accounts for Mr. Hayes' lack of votes.

The convention was called to order at 12:30 o'clock by Chairman Talbot of the State Central Committee. Not fifty delegates were present, and there was an entire absence of decorations in the auditorium.

Nominations being in order the names of John E. Hurst, William A. Fisher, Spencer C. Jones and Thomas G. Hayes were presented. The rollcall resulted in 74 votes for Hurst, 31 for Fisher, 5 for Jones and 2 for Hayes.

Nominations were made for members of the State Central Committee. A resolution was adopted endorsing the plan to hold a centennial exposition in Baltimore in 1897, and favoring a State appropriation therefor, and the convention, at 3:30 o'clock, adjourned sine die.

Upon the declaration of principles set forth in the National Democratic platform of 1892, and under the inspiring leadership of our great candidate, Grover Cleveland, the Democracy of the Union obtained control of the executive and legislative departments of the Government in the memorable contest of that year.

We heartily commend his administration for the vigor and success with which it has met and overcome the many and great difficulties with which the administration of President Harrison and the Republican party left it to deal.

Our platform denounces the McKinley tariff as the culminating atrocity of class legislation. It has been repealed and in its stead we have a law, which, while not containing all that the advanced advocates of tariff reform hoped would be secured, gives us, nevertheless, the best tariff which the country has had for thirty-five years.

There was no allusion whatever in the platform to Senator Gorman. It was stated this was his desire, and he gave as a reason that his course at Washington was not an issue in this campaign.

It Will Be Waged by His Friends With Much Caution.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—L. T. Michener, ex-Attorney-General of Indiana and a close personal and political friend of ex-President Harrison, is generally regarded as the man most likely to be acquainted with the intentions of Mr. Harrison, as for years the two worked together in the greatest harmony in all political matters.

CLEVELAND NOT A CANDIDATE.

But He Thinks His Influence Will Cut Some Figure.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 31.—The Herald's Washington special says the positive statement in the Herald that Cleveland will not be a candidate for a third term is confirmed in administration circles here.

Cleveland is a man of strong conviction and would like to see a man nominated who would stand for the principles which he advocates.

There is one man in the Cabinet, however, who does not regard Carlisle favorably for the nomination and that is Secretary Lamont.

SAN SALVADOR, July 31.—The streets are filled with a mob yelling, "Death to Gutierrez and Castellanos!"

The people are in a frenzy because thirty citizens belonging to leading families were arrested to-day, and it is rumored that they were shot inside the barracks.

The city has been declared in a state of siege. Business places are closed.

The city officers have issued a proclamation calling on the people to return to their homes and warning them that the city is under martial law.

The crowd seems undecided what to do, lacking leadership.

The report that General Regaladilus has been condemned to death as a traitor is denied. He is not in the government's hands, it is declared.

General Rivas offers to submit to the government, it is said, but wishes to remain at Santa Tecla.

SOCORRO, N. Mex., July 31.—Late yesterday afternoon a heavy rain from the east met a cloud from the west near Snake ranch, eight miles from Socorro. A wave twenty feet high came down the arroyo and submerged Chihuahua and Guba, two small suburbs, washing down houses and rushing through others.

There were many narrow escapes. Mrs. A. Mayer and her mother were washed away by the waves, but were rescued.

The Queen Mab led the fleet around Race Rock. The Lasca led the schooners. The Defender overtook the last of the schooners within twenty minutes and sailed past them one after the other.

The Volunteer was a mile astern. The wind freshened to about 15 knots, and the Wasp and Mayflower got some advantage from the northerly breeze.

The Wasp led all the smaller single-stickers and the Mayflower led all the chooners. The Vigilant jibed before reaching Point Judith, but all the others swung their booms over to starboard and reset spinnakers on the port side of the run up into harbor.

The race was won by the Britannia. The finish was as follows: Britannia, 5:14:56; Ailsa, 5:15:30; Isolda, 5:35:48; and Niagara, 5:46:31.

Editor Von Landberg of Syracuse Takes a Sensational Departure.

Printed a Farewell Message in His Paper and Then Flew From the City.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 31.—A tremendous sensation was caused to-day by the publication in the Syracuse Union, the German newspaper owned and edited by Alexander von Landberg, formerly Internal Revenue Collector for the district of New York, of a statement to the subscribers that Editor von Landberg had shaken the dust of Syracuse from his feet and would probably never return.

The letter, which was dated Hoboken, July 29, gave domestic infelicity as the reason of his unexpected departure, and related a story of unhappy married life that was already known to Mr. von Landberg's intimate friends.

In his letter he says: "I leave no debts of an kind, and I stand upon the ragged edge of despair. My position seems utterly lost. My whole aim during the last twenty-five years, was in all the many offices with which my fellow-citizens have honored me, in my position of Canal Collector and as Collector of Internal Revenue, to do honor to the German name. I believe I have succeeded and I deserve a better fate in my declining days."

SUIT AGAINST CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 31.—H. M. Stowe filed a suit yesterday in the United States Circuit Court for $3,000,000. This he claims is due him from the city of Chicago in royalties on the use of his patent of navigating spars with cedar blocks.

His idea was patented in 1874, and, although the patent has run out he claims that the royalties on the piling done before the expiration of the patent amount to $3,000,000.

MEMPHIS, TENN., July 31.—The Populists of Mississippi held their State Convention at Jackson to-day, naming the full ticket headed by Frank Burkitt for Governor.

Among the Indians for a score of years, are afraid to remain longer on their ranches.

On the Sedolph ranch, twenty miles east of Market Lake on the other side of Snake River, two bands of Indian bucks headed toward Jacksons Hole gave three sheep-herders a bad scare.

No fairer scene could be imagined than that presented by the fleet at anchor in New London harbor this afternoon. With the green hills of Croton for a background, the glistening sails of yachts, the graceful lines of their hulls, the brilliance of their brass-work and the trimness of their towering spars, the picture presented was one of great beauty.

HUNTERS AND THE GRIZZLY WHICH THEY KILLED IN THE BANNOCK COUNTRY.

There are seventy-five men in Jacksons Hole, who are fortified at three points. Colonel Randall was told to-day by three troops, and settlers are flocking in from all sides. The settlers' houses at the foot of the Teton Mountains are all fortified, and the people are much alarmed, as they fear that when the soldiers enter Jacksons Hole the Indians may retreat through Teton Pass.

The squadron did not move until after 9 o'clock. Then three rows of code pennants fluttered in the breeze from the flagship Sylvia. The Defender, which had
