The Steamboat-Owners Gained Victory at the Lake Front.

MADE A GREAT UPROAR.

So the Railroad People Were Compelled to Remove Obstructions.

ALLOWED PASSENGERS ASHORE.

Ten Thousand Persons and the Police Attracted by a Deafening Din at Chicago.

CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 7.—The triangular fight which has been going on for the last three days between the Illinois Central Railroad Company, the steamboat-owners and the city resulted to-day in an agreement by the railroad company to build immediately a temporary viaduct across their tracks at Van Buren street and to permit the public to have free access to the lake at all times.

Shortly after 4 o'clock the excursion steamer Macatwa from Windsor Park landed fifty passengers at the Van Buren street dock.

The Macatwa immediately started blowing her whistle and other boats at the dock joined in, creating a deafening uproar.

The police were notified of the gathering crowd and Captain Koch, with two lieutenants and a squad of police officers, was soon on the scene.

The captain of the boat refused to stop the whistle and further trouble was averted. The special officers of the Illinois Central Company refused to allow them to cross the tracks and a long train of freight-cars was drawn across the right of way.

After a long parley between the Illinois Central police, the city officials and the Chicago police, the passengers from the boat were allowed to land and proceed along the tracks to Randolph street, where they were permitted to reach a street.

When this was done the boats ceased whistling and further trouble was averted. About 6 p. m. the steamboatmen were informed that passengers could cross the tracks without hindrance, and that a temporary viaduct would be placed in position by noon to-morrow.

OUTRAGES IN CHINA.

Consul Nixon Has Traced Several of the Assassins.

MANY LEADERS KNOWN.

Further Reports From the Interior of the Persecution of Foreigners.

ENERGETIC MEASURES WANTED.

English Naval Commanders Instructed to Enforce the Demands of Great Britain.

LONDON, ENGL., Aug. 7.—To-morrow the Standard will print a dispatch from Shanghai that J. R. Nixon, United States Consul at Foo Chow, has, in the course of his inquiry into the recent outrages, obtained a list of names of more than fifty natives who are known to have been actually engaged in the outrage at Wua Sang.

Nixon has collected abundant evidence to prove conclusively that the district officials were fully cognizant of the fact that mischief was brewing before the commission of the crimes.

The dispatch further says that reports arrive daily from almost every province in the empire of horrible persecutions to which native Christians are subjected by the officials and of the molestation and insults to foreigners residing in the interior.

The Telegraph will say that the settlement of the French claim for the sacking of Cheng Tu and other outrages in the month of May is proceeding rapidly.

Bishop Dunaud has elicited much damaging evidence, convicting the ex-Viceroy, Lu Ping Chang, of having instigated and fomented the uprising.

The English colony at Shanghai is clamorous that measures equally as energetic as those taken by the French shall be adopted.

The message sent by Dr. O'Connor, British Minister to China, to Consul Mansfield, fails to give satisfaction, and the appointment of a Chinese guard to protect the English Consul at Ku Cheng during his investigation is looked upon with derision.

The Government has instructed the British naval commander in Chinese waters to enforce, if necessary, Great Britain's demand looking to the protection of British subjects throughout China and the prompt punishment of all who were implicated in the recent massacres.
