BEFORE THE ALTAR.

Hodge-Davison, Lamborn-Sylvester, Clark-Floyd and Collins-Musgrave Nuptials. One of the finest weddings of the season occurred on the bay that of Miss Frances Davison and Thomas Hodge at Berkeley last Thursday evening. The bride, a lovely young lady, is the daughter of J. C. Davison, D. D., who has charge of one of the missionary departments of the Methodist church in Japan, and is well known for her accomplishments in instrumental and vocal music. She has charge of the choir of Trinity Methodist Church in Berkeley. The groom is a widely known young business man of California, and is connected with the firm of Hodge, Davison, Clark & Co. The ceremony was held in Trinity Church, which was elaborately decorated in pink and green, the altar and dais being festooned with woodbine, which fell in folds directly in front of the choir-box. Groups and clusters of amaryllis, lilies and small exotics were profusely dispersed about the edifice, and a canopy of bamboo being added as an additional effect.

WHAT IS GOING ON.

Monterey's Week of Sport—The Moreland and Bevier Reception—Private Theatricals. Monterey will be society's mecca this week. The caravansary is crowded already, and preparations are all completed for the week's festivities. The display of horses and tournaments will doubtless be the finest ever seen in California, except last year's horse show. The program of the week's sports includes polo on Monday and Wednesday, pony races on Thursday and Saturday and the Country Club's pigeon shoot on Friday. So much interest has been taken in polo at Burlingame since the late Walla time here that many new and spirited players are being recruited. It is enabled to send down three strong teams. It is probable that there will be some additional games with the visiting players from the south on Tuesday. Besides the horses entered, for the races and polo a large number of people are expected to attend the week's sports, and there will be any number of fine tournaments. The week's sports are very interesting. Better and more throngs than were anticipated have been made.

The Horse Show Association of the Pacific Coast will hold its second annual exhibition at the Mechanics' Pavilion from December 3 to 7. The show will be interesting to the amount of $15,000 will be awarded.

Rev. H. N. Bevier, pastor of Memorial Presbyterian Church, and his wife were very pleasantly surprised Thursday evening, August 23, by an unannounced visit of the congregation to their new home, 18 Latona street. The bride was a welcome to the pastor and his wife, who were accompanied by the wedding party, as well as a house-warming for the new home which has just been set up. The affair was very interesting. Better and more throngs than were anticipated have been made.

A delightful reception was tendered to the Rev. Mr. Moreland and wife Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Theo E. Smith on Washington street. The parlor was thronged with guests, and the evening was spent in a graceful speech, presented the pastor with a handsome study-chair and Mrs. Bevier with a beautiful pair of shoes. The evening closed with a prayer for the divine blessing.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the garden party to be given next Saturday afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. M. J. O'Connor in San Rafael for the benefit of the parish church. The grounds are very large, and are beautifully laid out with flowers, ferns, etc. Refreshment booths will be erected on the spacious lawn in front of the residence; the grounds and surroundings will be decorated with flags, streamers and Chinese lanterns.

Mrs. Dr. W. J. Wickman and Mrs. James Huntington are the bride and groom at the ceremony, which will be held at the home of the bride, 727 Golden Gate avenue. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the affair, which was at first intended as a church wedding, was very quietly performed in the parlors of the Sylvester residence. The parlor was very beautifully decorated with natural flowers and vines.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Fuelling in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Miss Cora Wanz was maid of honor, Miss Lucy Smith the bridesmaid, and Albert A. Wells acted as best man. Those present were Mrs. H. Sylvester, Benjamin F. Lamborn, Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Collins of Chico, Rev. W. C. Pond was the officiating clergyman and Miss Ethel Ingall assisted at the altar. The bride was wearing a dress of white tulle, and the bridesmaid, Miss Lucy Smith, was wearing a dress of white tulle. The groom, Mr. W. J. Wickman, was wearing a suit of dark cloth, and the bridegroom, Mr. James Huntington, was wearing a suit of dark cloth. The ceremony was very quiet and unostentatious.

There was a pretty wedding on Thursday evening at the Y. W. C. A. Home on O'Farrell street, at which time Miss Bertina Musgrave of San Francisco was united in marriage to Albert E. Collins of Chico. Rev. W. C. Pond was the officiating clergyman and Miss Ethel Ingall assisted at the altar. The bride was wearing a dress of white tulle, and the bridesmaid, Miss Lucy Smith, was wearing a dress of white tulle. The groom, Mr. Albert E. Collins, was wearing a suit of dark cloth, and the bridegroom, Mr. Bertina Musgrave, was wearing a suit of dark cloth. The ceremony was very quiet and unostentatious.

Groups and clusters of amaryllis, lilies and small exotics were profusely dispersed about the edifice, and a canopy of bamboo being added as an additional effect.

The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock. The bride and groom were accompanied by a procession of little girls in white, dropping flowers before the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Davison, father of the bride, and the Rev. E. H. Dille of San Francisco and the Rev. J. C. Bentley of Berkeley. The bride's gown was of white silk, trimmed with pearls and lace. The groom wore a dark suit. The ceremony was very quiet and unostentatious.

The reception was held at the house of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hackley, which was also profusely decorated. The bride and groom were congratulated under a bower of pink and white roses, festooned with green. Supper, served by Mrs. Hackley, followed the reception. It was spread in a large pavilion on the lawn, with the surrounding grounds, was hung with Japanese lanterns, and the music was furnished by the orchestra of the pavilion. The supper was an elaborate affair and was participated in by the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davison, Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hills, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Dille, D. D.; Mr. and Mrs. E.
