

WAS EL CARDINAL LOVED BY THE PEOPLE.

Royal Welcome of Baltimore Catholics to Gibbons. Thousands Gathered at the Archbishopal Residence to Extend Greetings.

MANY NOTED PRELATES THERE. With All the Homage Paid, His Eminence Found Time to Preach on "Love Your Neighbors."

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 25.—The reception tendered to Cardinal Gibbons to-night by the Catholic Club was an event long to be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to gain entrance to the rooms of the club. Long before 8 o'clock, the hour set for the arrival of the guests, thousands of persons had gathered on Charles street in front of the archbishopal residence and the clubhouse directly opposite in the hope of personally conveying their congratulations to the Cardinal upon his safe return, after an absence in Europe of nearly four months, to his home and among his loved people.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the Cardinal, leaning upon the arm of James R. Wheeler, president of the Catholic Club, emerged from his residence and picked his way through the immense throng to the clubhouse, closely followed by Mgr. Satolli, Mgr. Sherrett, Bishops Foley of Detroit and Donohue of Wheeling, and the clergy of Baltimore, headed by the venerable Mgr. McColgan.

The hall of the clubhouse where the reception was held was handsomely decorated with flowers, ferns and plants. The Cardinal's red chair was overhung with ferns and festoons with flowers, resembling a fairy throne. The procession entered the hall the cathedral choir, under the direction of Professor F. X. Hale, sang "Viva el Cardinal," a march chorus. When the Cardinal was seated, with Mgr. Satolli and Bishop Foley on either side, Assistant District Attorney Edward H. Gans welcomed him on behalf of the Catholic Club and the citizens. His eminence responded briefly, thanking the committee, the club and the assembled hosts for the unmistakable warmth of their greeting.

MORTON TO BE LEWOWED. Western Congressmen Iraite Over the Loss of Sugar Stations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 25.—There is a great row over Secretary Morton's action in closing sugar experimental stations which were authorized by Congress, and Congressmen declare that Secretary Morton's administration of the Agricultural Department will certainly be investigated next winter. Twenty-two sugar experimental stations in different parts of the United States, including that in California, were closed by Secretary Morton arbitrarily, and he says if sugarmen want to experiment let them do it themselves and at their own expense.

Morton's action in thus setting aside the law of Congress is even more astonishing than that of Comptroller Bowler, who also seeks to nullify a law. In his last annual report Secretary Morton expressed the opinion that "the Agricultural Department, as organized, presents ample opportunities for most pronounced paternalism." He considered distribution of seeds gratuitously to farmers to be paternalism, and cut them off in defiance of the expressed wish of Congress, which passed an appropriation for their purchase. Now he has abolished sugar stations as being paternalistic and "no good."

Secretary Morton said to THE CALL correspondent to-day: "The Government has been steadily losing money in the maintenance of the sugar experimental stations without accomplishing any real good so far as the industry was concerned. Upward of $500,000 was spent in Nebraska and nearly $200,000 in Kansas since the inception of this work of education of the farmers of the West in the culture and production of cane and beet sugar, and it can safely be said that the benefits derived therefrom have been merely nominal. There were ten stations originally, most of which were situated in Kansas and Nebraska, but by some legerdemain they have been spirited away one after another, so that now we are able to find but five of them upon the map. I have therefore decided that it would be best to do away altogether with these experimental stations, which, being of no practical utility, have been the means of feeding the Government annually out of large sums of money.

In his argument at the bounty hearing before Comptroller Bowler a few days ago, Senator Manderson praised the work which had been accomplished by these experimental stations in Nebraska in the way of teaching the farming element out there the secrets of the "sun plants." The possibilities of that branch of agriculture were said by Mr. Manderson to be so great that with the repeal of the bounty by Congress a movement was set on foot to secure State aid for the industry.

UNCE SAYS SHIPS. Superiority of Cruisers Over Those of Other Nations.

THIS SHOWN AT KIEL. One Speedy Performance That Greatly Astonished Emperor William. ENGINES QUICKLY UNCOUPLED.

To Perform the Same Feat Required Fifteen Times as Long On a British Vessel. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 25.—An unofficial report to the Secretary of the Navy, recently received, contains further evidence of the general superiority of the new ships of the United States Navy over the best of the navies of the European countries, especially those of Great Britain.

Mention has already been made of the fact that at the Kiel celebration, at midnight, without a moment's warning or preparation, the engines of one of the vessels were coupled and uncoupled at the request of Emperor William, who was spending the evening on board, the whole operation requiring but two minutes and forty-five seconds, greatly to his Majesty's astonishment. But it has not been published that the same operation on board the cruiser Blake, the crack ship of the British navy, at drill, which every preparation had been made for, required thirty-three minutes for its performance.

LUBIN'S GREAT SCHEME. He Would Grant a Bounty on All Staple Agricultural Exports.

The National Implement Manufacturers Willing to Indorse His Plan. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 25.—David Lubin of Sacramento is at the Ebbot House. To interested listeners he expounded his scheme to grant a bounty on staple agricultural exports. Bernard Wilkins, editor of the Post, was among those who were deeply interested in Mr. Lubin's scheme, and after listening to the able Californian, stated emphatically that its adoption would be nothing more than justice to the farmer.

Mr. Lubin has succeeded in interesting Senator Frye of Maine and Senator Quay of Pennsylvania. Both of them, after listening intently, said that such bounty would be equitable and just. Mr. Lubin has a letter from A. L. Conger of Ohio, president of the National Association of Agricultural Implements and Vehicle Manufacturers' Association, in which he says: "We are ready to unite with the agricultural people of the United States, and to extend our trade and influence to the protection of our industry, shall be so modified as to remove any injustice or inequity."

This association will hold a meeting this fall in Chicago, when it is expected that Mr. Lubin's plan will be indorsed. Mr. Lubin is very much encouraged at his success thus far. Having enlisted numerous ship-builders, prominent among them being the Cramps of Philadelphia, he will, after speaking in Virginia, go to Pennsylvania, and while there endeavor to gain converts and recruits among iron manufacturers. Then he will go to Missouri and Illinois. Mr. Lubin said to a call correspondent to-night: "The plan is not only making very strong headway among farmers of the different sections, among business men as well as men of highest National reputation."

THE SITUATION UNCHANGED. Crowds of Politicians in Evidence at the Harrisburg Convention.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 25.—The hotels here are beginning to have a State Convention appearance. Decorations and crowds of politicians are always in evidence about this time. Ex-Senator Thomas V. Cooper, Congressman Jack Robinson, David Martin and other well-known leaders are here and large delegations are expected to-morrow.

There is practically no change in the situation respecting the condition of the convention, each side claiming a majority. Governor Hastings has sent the following letter to each delegate: "I am very glad to hear that you are all well and that you are all here. I am very glad to hear that you are all well and that you are all here. I am very glad to hear that you are all well and that you are all here."

CHILE'S STRANGE ACTION. A British Captain Claims He Was Driven From an Island.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 25.—A strange story was brought to Philadelphia to-day by Captain Quick of the British steamer Stuart, who claims that he was driven from a guano island in the South Pacific Ocean by the Chilean ironclad warship Esmeralda. Captain Quick says the Stuart had been ordered to proceed to the islands, which are known as the Lobos de Apele, to load guano for Liverpool. It had taken about 300 men when the Esmeralda came in sight and ordered the Stuart to leave. He weighed anchor and bore away to Callao, 200 miles distant. The reason assigned for the order from the Esmeralda was that Peru owned the islands until a short time ago, when they were seized for a war debt owed to Chile. Captain Quick says the Esmeralda demolished the dock used to load guano by dynamite. Railroad tracks were torn up and the work of years was laid waste. The few residents of the island were made prisoners of war aboard the warship, which bore away for Valparaiso. The report of the Stuart's affair was quickly picked up by the offices of the English Government.

Legge, editor of the Sunfield Sun, was instantly killed in this city this evening by jumping off an electric car in front of a trolley going in the opposite direction at a high rate of speed. His body was cut in two and horribly mangled.

MISLED THE EMPEROR. German Officials Say American Papers Exaggerated.

FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR. Further Fetes Commemorative of That Conflict Will Be Held in Berlin. A RIOT NARROWLY AVERTED.

Soldiers and Unarmed Civilians Had a Hand-to-Hand Conflict at Spandau. BERLIN, GERMANY, Aug. 25.—Misled by exaggerations of the American newspapers, which represented that about 2000 Franco-American veterans of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 were coming here to take part in the fetes commemorative of that conflict the German officials, acting under the orders of the Kaiser, prepared to give them a reception which should be of a national character.

The Emperor expected that about two regiments of these veterans would parade before him and would have made a special occasion of his reception of them. Official information has since been received, however, which shows that the promised 2000 men have dwindled down to about 210. Although the official and public reception of these veterans will be of the most cordial character the officials feel that the small number will not justify a national demonstration in their honor and the programme contemplated will in consequence be very much modified.

SAM JONES' HOT TALK. At Asbury Park the Noted Evangelist Spoke in His Usual Style.

Parkhurst's Work in New York Enlarged and Old Party Politicians Deceived. ASBURY PARK, Aug. 25.—Rev. Sam Jones was the star attraction at Asbury Park to-day. He preached morning and evening in Educational Hall. The morning text was "For God so loved the world," etc. He spoke of parental love and told how much greater was God's love to his children. He said in part: "Woman, if you play cards and don't want your son to be a gambler, you are a fool. If I got a telephone call from my son to-day saying that my wife had a progressive edge party or gave a wine supper last night, I would write back to my son, 'Watch mother; she must be demoted.'"

A gambler worth hundreds of thousands will go to New York and nearly every one will bow down to him. He will try to get in and try to get away without paying his board bill and the police department will be called out to get him out of the city. RE-INFORCEMENTS FOR CUBANS. Several Steamers Heavily Laden With War Stores on Way to Havana.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 25.—The Standard will to-morrow publish a Madrid dispatch saying that the concentration of re-inforcements for Cuba is proceeding rapidly throughout the kingdom. Several heavily laden steamers belonging to the Spanish Trans-Atlantic line started from Barcelona, Santander, Coruna and Cadiz for Cuba during the past week. Eight thousand cavalry, forming the first body of a total of 30,000, will be landed in Cuba before September 20. Though Captain-General Campos declared that 30,000 would be sufficient the Government will prepare 25,000 more, who will embark at the end of October if their services should be necessary.

The cost of war in Cuba up to the present time has been $20,000,000. Since February transport service alone has cost $1,600,000. Official advices received in Madrid from Havana are to the effect that in several recent encounters the Government troops have been successful. On August 22 fifty-nine soldiers repulsed 350 men led by Maceo, who made an attack on the Union Sugar Works. The Government lost one killed.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 25.—A special from the City of Mexico says: The Noticiero states that there exists in this city a Central Mexican committee with the designation of Cuba Libre, whose object is to aid the patriots of that island in securing their independence. It adds that persons of good character and armed with proper documents, clothing them with the character of special agents, will personally be engaged in the matter of raising recruits and supplies for Cuba.

ESPIONAGE LAW IS BARBAROUS. The United States Will Protect Ex-Consul Waller.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 25.—The Daily News will to-morrow publish a dispatch from Paris saying: The Waller affair ought to show the French the danger of their revised espionage laws. The United States will protect this convicted spy as firmly as if he were a white man. The spy law, as it stands, is barbarous. It was devised by General Boulanger when he was fishing for popularity. France ought to be obliged to the United States for giving this demonstration of its evils. The Under-Foreign Secretary of the United States is now here and he has been telling Ambassador Eials what the public expected him to do. Representations were made to the Government and passes were immediately given to the Ambassador to enable him or his representative to visit Clairvaux prison, where Mr. Waller is confined, to-day. It is believed that the court-martial that sentenced Mr. Waller will be disavowed if the United States makes out a good case.

WERE KILLING CATTLE. Stockmen Retaliated by Attacking the Camp of the Reds.

SQUAWS AMONG THE DEAD. The Whites Led by "Rye" Smith, Long a Terror to the Braves. BURNS, OR., Aug. 25.—A courier from Diamond Valley reports the killing of fifteen Bannocks by cattlemen under the leadership of "Rye" Smith. Smith's reason was revenge for the murder of his father in 1878 in Diamond Valley.

There is great excitement in the town and throughout the county. Troop A is ready to march on short notice and is awaiting orders from the County Sheriff for authority to act. While particulars are difficult to obtain it is learned that the matter has no bearing on the Jacksons Hole troubles. Ever since Smith's father was killed in 1878 by warriors of the Bannock tribe he has been on their trail and not a few have met death at his hands.

It seems that a party of Indians were on a summer hunt near Diamond Valley and killed a number of cattle belonging to the stockmen whose herds pasture in that vicinity. A party of cattlemen were organized to punish the marauders and Smith readily undertook to lead them. The pursuers located the Indians about an hour before sundown at their camp near the western edge of the valley and without warning opened fire on them. The Indian bucks were thrown into a panic and fled for the hills, the squaws following suit. The stockmen pursued them and fired a volley at the fugitives, dropping several of them, including one or two squaws. The pursuit was not continued, the cattlemen believing sufficient punishment had been inflicted.

The courier reports fifteen dead Indians after this one-sided battle. FURTHER DETAILS NOT LEARNED. The Scene of the Reported Trouble Near From a Railroad.

PORTLAND, OR., Aug. 25.—The nearest telegraphic station to the scene of the reported killing of Bannocks is Ontario, where it is believed there is some truth in the report, but nothing further can be learned until the stage, which is expected to-night, arrives. There is a stage daily from Baker City, Heppner and Ontario to Burns, but the place where the killing is reported to have occurred is over 100 miles southeast of Burns. The recognized leader of the cowboys, "Rye" Smith, is known to be a bad character.

PRINCETON STUDENTS ESCAPED. Crossed the State Line Before They Could Be Arrested.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 25.—The Princeton students whose arrest was ordered yesterday by Governor Richards succeeded in getting out of the State before the machinery of the Wyoming laws for their detention could be put into use. In response to an inquiry sent to Casper this evening the following answer was received: "The students made their escape before the Attorney secured information which would authorize the issue of a warrant the boys had crossed the State line, going East."

PORTLAND'S PUGILISTIC MISS. Miss Edmunds Blacked Her Father's Eyes in a Street Scrimmage.

PORTLAND, OR., Aug. 25.—Miss Carrie Edmunds of the East Side is an athletic young woman with a mind of her own. Her father, A. C. Edmunds, a well-known business man, strenuously objected to her going downtown evenings and frequently meeting young men and women of her acquaintance.

About eight Mr. Edmunds, failing to secure obedience by persuasive arguments, attempted to corral his daughter in the parental mansion. The young lady broke a window and forced her way out. Father and daughter engaged in a street scrimmage before a big crowd of spectators. The girl broke away and ran down the street, followed by her father, who caught her arm.

A wrestling match followed. Miss Carrie jettied loose from her father's grasp, and then smashed him in both eyes, and followed this up with a blow on the jaw. The police were telephoned for, but when the officers arrived the cause of excitement had subsided.
