

AMUSEMENTS. BALEWIN THEATRE.—"The Masked Ball." COLONIAL THEATRE.—"The Major's Appointment." METROPOLITAN TEMPLE.—"The Grand Conjuror." MECHANICAL THEATRE.—"The Grand Conjuror." STATE BOARD OF TRADE EXHIBIT.—575 Market street, below Second. Open daily. Admission free.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Pacific Mail steamship Peru sailed yesterday for China and Japan. The American ship Shenandoah arrived yesterday, 117 days from San Francisco. Local times, height and brief, can be found on this page of the CALL every morning.

A RACE AGAINST FIRE.

Five days on fire, a race around the Horn to Port Stanley, stunk to the scuppers in order to drop the fire, and 2000 tons of smoldering coal thrown into the bay before all danger was past are features of the record of the British bark Brunel during her last voyage.

CARGO A SMOLDERING MASS.

The vessel arrived last Monday from Newcastle, N. S. W., after a remarkably fine passage of six days, beating the Crocodile seventy-two days and the Marpesia sixty-nine days, while the Criciethi 75 days, and Glenloch 71 days, Stanmore 67 days and Scotch Moors 61 days are still anxiously looked for.

THE CREW OF THE SHENANDOAH COMPLAIN OF THE OFFICERS' BRUTALITY.

The big American ship Shenandoah arrived yesterday morning, 117 days from Liverpool, with 4505 tons of coal. She left this port December 2, 1894, making a remarkably fast round trip.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

McLean stated to Warrant Clerk Graham that he was the victim of a conspiracy to get him discharged, and Anderson was the chief conspirator. Anderson had preferred charges against him to Collector Wise that on August 22 he stole a shirt belonging to Sun On, a passenger by the Belgic.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Toner, wife of State Senator Hugh Toner, met with sudden death at her home, 239 Ritch street, near Bryant, yesterday. While hanging out some clothes to dry the balcony railing gave way and she fell to the basement, thirty feet below. Her skull was crushed and her neck broken. Death was instantaneous.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Senator and Mrs. Toner, with their two children, occupied the upper flat at 239 Ritch street. About 1 p. m. she and Mrs. McCarthy went out on the porch. Mrs. Toner had been washing, and while preparing to hang out the various articles of clothing, Mrs. McCarthy took charge of the baby.

WAR OVER THE BEER-MUG.

The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

ACCIDENT IN THE PARK.

George MacLeod and Miss Marian Hall were thrown from a tandem bicycle in Golden Gate Park yesterday morning and seriously, if not fatally, injured. Miss Hall had her right collarbone broken and suffered concussion of the brain.

TRUP A PREFERS CHARGES AGAINST THE ATHLETES OF BATTERY F.

The Cavalrymen claim the Trophy because Professionals Ran In the Games. The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Names of the Patrons Working for the Open-Air Play. Preparations for the performance of "As You Like It" on Mayor Sutor's grounds at Suto Heights on Saturday afternoon, September 21, for the benefit and under the auspices of the Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work go steadily on, and the indications are that the representation will be the most elaborate affair of the kind ever attempted in America.

FILLMORE'S ENEMY.

Andrew J. Collins Bound Over in One Thousand Dollar Bonds to Keep the Peace for Six Months. Andrew J. Collins, the ex-employee of the Southern Pacific, appeared for sentence in Judge Joachimsen's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to kill General Superintendent Fillmore.

SUDDEN DEATH OF RALPH ELLIS.

He Came Here for Treatment, but Died on His Arrival. Ralph Ellis, business manager of the Woodland Mall, died suddenly at the Hughes House, 214 Third street, yesterday. He had been ill for a long time with catarrhal jaundice, and had been treated for that disease in Woodland. He grew worse, and came to San Francisco, but before he could undergo any treatment he died.

AN ELEGANT SOUVENIR PROGRAMME.

The Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work have arranged to get up a souvenir programme for the first open-air performance of "As You Like It," which will take place on Suto Heights, Saturday afternoon, September 21. Mr. A. H. Baldwin has been engaged to exclusively canvass for advertisements for the souvenir, the number of which will be limited.

EXCURSION RATES TO ATLANTA.

The Southern Pacific Company has issued a circular letter to ticket agents announcing that an excursion rate to the Atlanta Exposition from New Orleans had been established. Tickets to be sold from September 5 to 12, and return from September 19 to 26.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

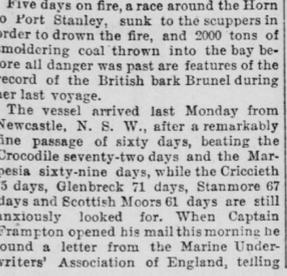

The Crew of the Shenandoah Complain of the Officers' Brutality.

SCRUBBED DECKS WITH BLOOD. A Street-Sweeper on East Street Run Over by a Heavy Truck and Killed.

TESTING THE BONDS. A Knotty Case on Builders' Contracts Submitted in Court.

Captain Frampton and the Crew Rewarded for Their Bravery on That Occasion.

THE BRITISH BARK BRUNEL, WHOSE CREW TOOK HER AROUND THE HORN WHILE A FIRE RAGED IN THE HOLD.

THE BRITISH BARK BRUNEL, WHOSE CREW TOOK HER AROUND THE HORN WHILE A FIRE RAGED IN THE HOLD. [Sketches by a "Call" artist.]

him that over $1000 in American money had been subscribed for the officers and men as a small recognition of their gallantry in fighting the fire when all hope seemed gone. Of this sum $80 goes to Captain Frampton, $40 to Second Mate Hilliard, $30 to Third Mate Lesmar, $25 to Carpenter McCurdy, $25 to Boatswain Smith and $10 to ordinary Seaman Reddin.

THE CREW OF THE SHENANDOAH COMPLAIN OF THE OFFICERS' BRUTALITY.

The big American ship Shenandoah arrived yesterday morning, 117 days from Liverpool, with 4505 tons of coal. She left this port December 2, 1894, making a remarkably fast round trip.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

McLean stated to Warrant Clerk Graham that he was the victim of a conspiracy to get him discharged, and Anderson was the chief conspirator. Anderson had preferred charges against him to Collector Wise that on August 22 he stole a shirt belonging to Sun On, a passenger by the Belgic.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Toner, wife of State Senator Hugh Toner, met with sudden death at her home, 239 Ritch street, near Bryant, yesterday. While hanging out some clothes to dry the balcony railing gave way and she fell to the basement, thirty feet below. Her skull was crushed and her neck broken. Death was instantaneous.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Senator and Mrs. Toner, with their two children, occupied the upper flat at 239 Ritch street. About 1 p. m. she and Mrs. McCarthy went out on the porch. Mrs. Toner had been washing, and while preparing to hang out the various articles of clothing, Mrs. McCarthy took charge of the baby.

WAR OVER THE BEER-MUG.

The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

ACCIDENT IN THE PARK.

George MacLeod and Miss Marian Hall were thrown from a tandem bicycle in Golden Gate Park yesterday morning and seriously, if not fatally, injured. Miss Hall had her right collarbone broken and suffered concussion of the brain.

TRUP A PREFERS CHARGES AGAINST THE ATHLETES OF BATTERY F.

The Cavalrymen claim the Trophy because Professionals Ran In the Games. The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Names of the Patrons Working for the Open-Air Play. Preparations for the performance of "As You Like It" on Mayor Sutor's grounds at Suto Heights on Saturday afternoon, September 21, for the benefit and under the auspices of the Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work go steadily on, and the indications are that the representation will be the most elaborate affair of the kind ever attempted in America.

FILLMORE'S ENEMY.

Andrew J. Collins Bound Over in One Thousand Dollar Bonds to Keep the Peace for Six Months. Andrew J. Collins, the ex-employee of the Southern Pacific, appeared for sentence in Judge Joachimsen's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to kill General Superintendent Fillmore.

SUDDEN DEATH OF RALPH ELLIS.

He Came Here for Treatment, but Died on His Arrival. Ralph Ellis, business manager of the Woodland Mall, died suddenly at the Hughes House, 214 Third street, yesterday. He had been ill for a long time with catarrhal jaundice, and had been treated for that disease in Woodland. He grew worse, and came to San Francisco, but before he could undergo any treatment he died.

AN ELEGANT SOUVENIR PROGRAMME.

The Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work have arranged to get up a souvenir programme for the first open-air performance of "As You Like It," which will take place on Suto Heights, Saturday afternoon, September 21. Mr. A. H. Baldwin has been engaged to exclusively canvass for advertisements for the souvenir, the number of which will be limited.

EXCURSION RATES TO ATLANTA.

The Southern Pacific Company has issued a circular letter to ticket agents announcing that an excursion rate to the Atlanta Exposition from New Orleans had been established. Tickets to be sold from September 5 to 12, and return from September 19 to 26.

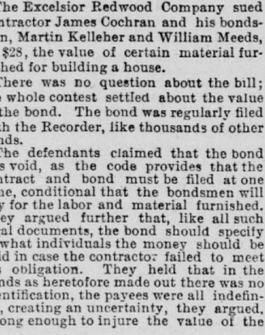

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

The Crew of the Shenandoah Complain of the Officers' Brutality.

SCRUBBED DECKS WITH BLOOD. A Street-Sweeper on East Street Run Over by a Heavy Truck and Killed.

TESTING THE BONDS. A Knotty Case on Builders' Contracts Submitted in Court.

Captain Frampton and the Crew Rewarded for Their Bravery on That Occasion.

THE BRITISH BARK BRUNEL, WHOSE CREW TOOK HER AROUND THE HORN WHILE A FIRE RAGED IN THE HOLD. [Sketches by a "Call" artist.]

him that over $1000 in American money had been subscribed for the officers and men as a small recognition of their gallantry in fighting the fire when all hope seemed gone. Of this sum $80 goes to Captain Frampton, $40 to Second Mate Hilliard, $30 to Third Mate Lesmar, $25 to Carpenter McCurdy, $25 to Boatswain Smith and $10 to ordinary Seaman Reddin.

THE CREW OF THE SHENANDOAH COMPLAIN OF THE OFFICERS' BRUTALITY.

The big American ship Shenandoah arrived yesterday morning, 117 days from Liverpool, with 4505 tons of coal. She left this port December 2, 1894, making a remarkably fast round trip.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

McLean stated to Warrant Clerk Graham that he was the victim of a conspiracy to get him discharged, and Anderson was the chief conspirator. Anderson had preferred charges against him to Collector Wise that on August 22 he stole a shirt belonging to Sun On, a passenger by the Belgic.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Toner, wife of State Senator Hugh Toner, met with sudden death at her home, 239 Ritch street, near Bryant, yesterday. While hanging out some clothes to dry the balcony railing gave way and she fell to the basement, thirty feet below. Her skull was crushed and her neck broken. Death was instantaneous.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Senator and Mrs. Toner, with their two children, occupied the upper flat at 239 Ritch street. About 1 p. m. she and Mrs. McCarthy went out on the porch. Mrs. Toner had been washing, and while preparing to hang out the various articles of clothing, Mrs. McCarthy took charge of the baby.

WAR OVER THE BEER-MUG.

The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

ACCIDENT IN THE PARK.

George MacLeod and Miss Marian Hall were thrown from a tandem bicycle in Golden Gate Park yesterday morning and seriously, if not fatally, injured. Miss Hall had her right collarbone broken and suffered concussion of the brain.

TRUP A PREFERS CHARGES AGAINST THE ATHLETES OF BATTERY F.

The Cavalrymen claim the Trophy because Professionals Ran In the Games. The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Names of the Patrons Working for the Open-Air Play. Preparations for the performance of "As You Like It" on Mayor Sutor's grounds at Suto Heights on Saturday afternoon, September 21, for the benefit and under the auspices of the Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work go steadily on, and the indications are that the representation will be the most elaborate affair of the kind ever attempted in America.

FILLMORE'S ENEMY.

Andrew J. Collins Bound Over in One Thousand Dollar Bonds to Keep the Peace for Six Months. Andrew J. Collins, the ex-employee of the Southern Pacific, appeared for sentence in Judge Joachimsen's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to kill General Superintendent Fillmore.

SUDDEN DEATH OF RALPH ELLIS.

He Came Here for Treatment, but Died on His Arrival. Ralph Ellis, business manager of the Woodland Mall, died suddenly at the Hughes House, 214 Third street, yesterday. He had been ill for a long time with catarrhal jaundice, and had been treated for that disease in Woodland. He grew worse, and came to San Francisco, but before he could undergo any treatment he died.

AN ELEGANT SOUVENIR PROGRAMME.

The Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work have arranged to get up a souvenir programme for the first open-air performance of "As You Like It," which will take place on Suto Heights, Saturday afternoon, September 21. Mr. A. H. Baldwin has been engaged to exclusively canvass for advertisements for the souvenir, the number of which will be limited.

EXCURSION RATES TO ATLANTA.

The Southern Pacific Company has issued a circular letter to ticket agents announcing that an excursion rate to the Atlanta Exposition from New Orleans had been established. Tickets to be sold from September 5 to 12, and return from September 19 to 26.

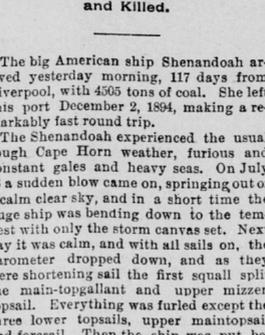

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

The Crew of the Shenandoah Complain of the Officers' Brutality.

SCRUBBED DECKS WITH BLOOD. A Street-Sweeper on East Street Run Over by a Heavy Truck and Killed.

TESTING THE BONDS. A Knotty Case on Builders' Contracts Submitted in Court.

Captain Frampton and the Crew Rewarded for Their Bravery on That Occasion.

THE BRITISH BARK BRUNEL, WHOSE CREW TOOK HER AROUND THE HORN WHILE A FIRE RAGED IN THE HOLD. [Sketches by a "Call" artist.]

him that over $1000 in American money had been subscribed for the officers and men as a small recognition of their gallantry in fighting the fire when all hope seemed gone. Of this sum $80 goes to Captain Frampton, $40 to Second Mate Hilliard, $30 to Third Mate Lesmar, $25 to Carpenter McCurdy, $25 to Boatswain Smith and $10 to ordinary Seaman Reddin.

THE CREW OF THE SHENANDOAH COMPLAIN OF THE OFFICERS' BRUTALITY.

The big American ship Shenandoah arrived yesterday morning, 117 days from Liverpool, with 4505 tons of coal. She left this port December 2, 1894, making a remarkably fast round trip.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

McLean stated to Warrant Clerk Graham that he was the victim of a conspiracy to get him discharged, and Anderson was the chief conspirator. Anderson had preferred charges against him to Collector Wise that on August 22 he stole a shirt belonging to Sun On, a passenger by the Belgic.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Toner, wife of State Senator Hugh Toner, met with sudden death at her home, 239 Ritch street, near Bryant, yesterday. While hanging out some clothes to dry the balcony railing gave way and she fell to the basement, thirty feet below. Her skull was crushed and her neck broken. Death was instantaneous.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Senator and Mrs. Toner, with their two children, occupied the upper flat at 239 Ritch street. About 1 p. m. she and Mrs. McCarthy went out on the porch. Mrs. Toner had been washing, and while preparing to hang out the various articles of clothing, Mrs. McCarthy took charge of the baby.

WAR OVER THE BEER-MUG.

The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

ACCIDENT IN THE PARK.

George MacLeod and Miss Marian Hall were thrown from a tandem bicycle in Golden Gate Park yesterday morning and seriously, if not fatally, injured. Miss Hall had her right collarbone broken and suffered concussion of the brain.

TRUP A PREFERS CHARGES AGAINST THE ATHLETES OF BATTERY F.

The Cavalrymen claim the Trophy because Professionals Ran In the Games. The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Names of the Patrons Working for the Open-Air Play. Preparations for the performance of "As You Like It" on Mayor Sutor's grounds at Suto Heights on Saturday afternoon, September 21, for the benefit and under the auspices of the Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work go steadily on, and the indications are that the representation will be the most elaborate affair of the kind ever attempted in America.

FILLMORE'S ENEMY.

Andrew J. Collins Bound Over in One Thousand Dollar Bonds to Keep the Peace for Six Months. Andrew J. Collins, the ex-employee of the Southern Pacific, appeared for sentence in Judge Joachimsen's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to kill General Superintendent Fillmore.

SUDDEN DEATH OF RALPH ELLIS.

He Came Here for Treatment, but Died on His Arrival. Ralph Ellis, business manager of the Woodland Mall, died suddenly at the Hughes House, 214 Third street, yesterday. He had been ill for a long time with catarrhal jaundice, and had been treated for that disease in Woodland. He grew worse, and came to San Francisco, but before he could undergo any treatment he died.

AN ELEGANT SOUVENIR PROGRAMME.

The Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work have arranged to get up a souvenir programme for the first open-air performance of "As You Like It," which will take place on Suto Heights, Saturday afternoon, September 21. Mr. A. H. Baldwin has been engaged to exclusively canvass for advertisements for the souvenir, the number of which will be limited.

EXCURSION RATES TO ATLANTA.

The Southern Pacific Company has issued a circular letter to ticket agents announcing that an excursion rate to the Atlanta Exposition from New Orleans had been established. Tickets to be sold from September 5 to 12, and return from September 19 to 26.

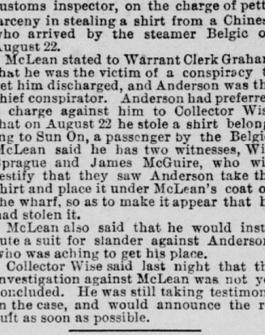

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

The Crew of the Shenandoah Complain of the Officers' Brutality.

SCRUBBED DECKS WITH BLOOD. A Street-Sweeper on East Street Run Over by a Heavy Truck and Killed.

TESTING THE BONDS. A Knotty Case on Builders' Contracts Submitted in Court.

Captain Frampton and the Crew Rewarded for Their Bravery on That Occasion.

THE BRITISH BARK BRUNEL, WHOSE CREW TOOK HER AROUND THE HORN WHILE A FIRE RAGED IN THE HOLD. [Sketches by a "Call" artist.]

him that over $1000 in American money had been subscribed for the officers and men as a small recognition of their gallantry in fighting the fire when all hope seemed gone. Of this sum $80 goes to Captain Frampton, $40 to Second Mate Hilliard, $30 to Third Mate Lesmar, $25 to Carpenter McCurdy, $25 to Boatswain Smith and $10 to ordinary Seaman Reddin.

THE CREW OF THE SHENANDOAH COMPLAIN OF THE OFFICERS' BRUTALITY.

The big American ship Shenandoah arrived yesterday morning, 117 days from Liverpool, with 4505 tons of coal. She left this port December 2, 1894, making a remarkably fast round trip.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

McLean stated to Warrant Clerk Graham that he was the victim of a conspiracy to get him discharged, and Anderson was the chief conspirator. Anderson had preferred charges against him to Collector Wise that on August 22 he stole a shirt belonging to Sun On, a passenger by the Belgic.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Toner, wife of State Senator Hugh Toner, met with sudden death at her home, 239 Ritch street, near Bryant, yesterday. While hanging out some clothes to dry the balcony railing gave way and she fell to the basement, thirty feet below. Her skull was crushed and her neck broken. Death was instantaneous.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY.

Senator and Mrs. Toner, with their two children, occupied the upper flat at 239 Ritch street. About 1 p. m. she and Mrs. McCarthy went out on the porch. Mrs. Toner had been washing, and while preparing to hang out the various articles of clothing, Mrs. McCarthy took charge of the baby.

WAR OVER THE BEER-MUG.

The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

ACCIDENT IN THE PARK.

George MacLeod and Miss Marian Hall were thrown from a tandem bicycle in Golden Gate Park yesterday morning and seriously, if not fatally, injured. Miss Hall had her right collarbone broken and suffered concussion of the brain.

TRUP A PREFERS CHARGES AGAINST THE ATHLETES OF BATTERY F.

The Cavalrymen claim the Trophy because Professionals Ran In the Games. The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Names of the Patrons Working for the Open-Air Play. Preparations for the performance of "As You Like It" on Mayor Sutor's grounds at Suto Heights on Saturday afternoon, September 21, for the benefit and under the auspices of the Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work go steadily on, and the indications are that the representation will be the most elaborate affair of the kind ever attempted in America.

FILLMORE'S ENEMY.

Andrew J. Collins Bound Over in One Thousand Dollar Bonds to Keep the Peace for Six Months. Andrew J. Collins, the ex-employee of the Southern Pacific, appeared for sentence in Judge Joachimsen's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to kill General Superintendent Fillmore.

SUDDEN DEATH OF RALPH ELLIS.

He Came Here for Treatment, but Died on His Arrival. Ralph Ellis, business manager of the Woodland Mall, died suddenly at the Hughes House, 214 Third street, yesterday. He had been ill for a long time with catarrhal jaundice, and had been treated for that disease in Woodland. He grew worse, and came to San Francisco, but before he could undergo any treatment he died.

AN ELEGANT SOUVENIR PROGRAMME.

The Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work have arranged to get up a souvenir programme for the first open-air performance of "As You Like It," which will take place on Suto Heights, Saturday afternoon, September 21. Mr. A. H. Baldwin has been engaged to exclusively canvass for advertisements for the souvenir, the number of which will be limited.

EXCURSION RATES TO ATLANTA.

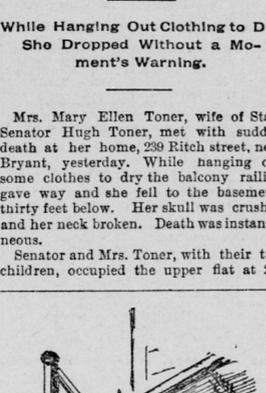

The Southern Pacific Company has issued a circular letter to ticket agents announcing that an excursion rate to the Atlanta Exposition from New Orleans had been established. Tickets to be sold from September 5 to 12, and return from September 19 to 26.

HER NECK WAS BROKEN.

Senator Hugh Toner's Wife Fell Thirty Feet and Died.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY. While Hanging Out Clothing to Dry She Dropped Without a Moment's Warning.

THE BALCONY RAIL GAVE WAY. While Hanging Out Clothing to Dry She Dropped Without a Moment's Warning.

The Balcony From Which Mrs. Toner Fell. [Sketches by a "Call" artist.]

Ritch street. About 1 p. m. she and Mrs. McCarthy went out on the porch. Mrs. Toner had been washing, and while preparing to hang out the various articles of clothing, Mrs. McCarthy took charge of the baby. A pulley-line crossed the yard and in order to reach it Mrs. Toner had to lean heavily on the balcony railing. This she had done hundreds of times before and gave the alarm. A. H. Cook, who lives on the lower floor, picked her up and carried her over to Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin's, her mother.

WAR OVER THE BEER-MUG.

The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

ACCIDENT IN THE PARK.

George MacLeod and Miss Marian Hall were thrown from a tandem bicycle in Golden Gate Park yesterday morning and seriously, if not fatally, injured. Miss Hall had her right collarbone broken and suffered concussion of the brain.

TRUP A PREFERS CHARGES AGAINST THE ATHLETES OF BATTERY F.

The Cavalrymen claim the Trophy because Professionals Ran In the Games. The athletic competition the other day between Troop A and Battery F of the Second Artillery, two National Guard organizations, has precipitated a merry rumput instead of engendering the gentle thoughts and social harmony for which it was intended.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Names of the Patrons Working for the Open-Air Play. Preparations for the performance of "As You Like It" on Mayor Sutor's grounds at Suto Heights on Saturday afternoon, September 21, for the benefit and under the auspices of the Channing Auxiliary and Society for Christian Work go steadily on, and the indications are that the representation will be the most elaborate affair of the kind ever attempted in America.

FILLMORE'S ENEMY.

Andrew J. Collins Bound Over in One Thousand Dollar Bonds to Keep the Peace for Six Months. Andrew J. Collins, the ex-employee of the Southern Pacific, appeared for sentence in Judge Joachimsen's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to kill General Superintendent Fillmore.

SUDDEN DEATH OF RALPH ELLIS.

He Came Here for Treatment, but Died on His Arrival. Ralph Ellis, business manager of the Woodland Mall,