

SACRAMENTO RACES.

Sons of Brutus Victors in Three Stake Events.

CROWNED KING OF SIRE

The Del Mar Mile Gallop Captured by Victor in 1:40 Flat.

LOWERED A COAST RECORD.

Installer Covered a Mile and a Furlong in 1:53 1/2—Instigator's Easy Conquest.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., Sept. 7.—The racing at the park to-day could truly be styled the "sport of kings." It was Del Mar day, and over 5000 people assembled to see the equine giants to battle. The book-makers were profited with coin, and they enjoyed a most profitable day, for favorites were swept away as chaff before the wind. But withal, it was beyond doubt the greatest day's racing Californians have ever witnessed, if record smashing and hair-raising finishes go to make good racing. To-night imp. Brutus, the Elmwood stock farm grand sire, occupies the golden throne, crowned king. His sons carried off the honors to-day, and the great Libertine, together with the big son of Falsotto, Ferrier, were obliged to lower their colors to his son, Victor, in the Del Mar stake, and the mark he set for the mile, 1:40, bids fair to stand for many a day. Del Mar's time, 1:41 1/2, has stood to-day since 1891, and by lowering it, Victor earned an additional $200, as well as the honor of having the stake named after him.

In the Native Sons' handicap, Installer, carrying 108 pounds, lowered the coast record for a mile a furlong a half second, setting the mark at 1:53 1/2, and in the California annual stake Instigator, another son of Brutus, carried off the honors in hollow fashion.

For a stable to win three stake races in one day, all three winners the get of one sire, is unprecedented in California turf history, and stamps imp. Brutus as the coming sire of the country. The day's sport opened with a six-furlong selling dash, having five starters. Mary S reigned as even-money favorite around post time, with Pat Murphy a hot 7 to 5 second choice. Pat set a merry old clip all the way, until about a furlong from home, when he collapsed, and Mary S appeared to have the purse annexed; but Sloane came up on the outside with 7 to 1 chance Inkerman, and won by a length. Mary S beat the Murphy horse a head for the "plat."

The Native Sons' handicap, a sweepstake, to which Bookmaker George Ross added $500, making the value of the stake $745, came next, and seven good ones faced the flag. Gilead, with Miller up, had first call in the betting at 6 to 5, and McLight and Installer came in for strong support. All of the other starters received more or less backing. The race needs but little description, for there was nothing in it but Installer.

bunch; on turning down the back stretch he saved way to McLight, but in turn he hooded the horse on turning the bend for home and was never headed, winning by a length from McLight, who ran a superb race, in the remarkably fast time of 1:53 1/2. Del Norte, badly treated by the handicapper, made a noble effort, finishing a good third. Gilead, who had been making all sorts of fast time in workouts, ran like a guttenburg "lobster," finishing next to last. He went back in the betting, the Sacramento contingent fighting shy of him.

The betting on the Del Mar stake, worth $50 to the winner, was of the liveliest possible description. Libertine opened at 4 to 5 and Ferrier 8 to 5. At post time the general quotation was 7 to 5 and your choice. Sixes could be had on Victor and 4 to 1 on Wheel of Fortune.

With slight delay Havey sent them away in good order, the wheel next the rail. At the first turn Havey's was cut off and Libertine took the lead followed by Victor and Ferrier. This order remained unchanged to the stretch for home, where Libertine was leading Victor by a half length, with Ferrier about three lengths away.

All now sat down to ride, with whip and spur. Libertine soon had enough and fell back beaten. Miller on Ferrier drew away and took the rail, and possibly this beat him, for Sloan on Victor hugged him closely, and in the hardest kind of a drive Victor won by a head, with Libertine three lengths away.

The betting on the California annual stake with but three starters was not without some peculiar phases. Lucille, with Piggott in the saddle, opened 3 to 5 favorite, while 7 to 5 was laid against Instigator, on which Coffey had the mount. Suddenly there was a plunge of wise money on the Boots entry, cutting his price to 7 to 10. It was then given out that Miller was to replace Coffey. It was but a gallop for him.

Miller allowed Lucille, who leaped in the betting to 7 to 5, and Sam Leake to make the running to the stretch, where he gave Investigator his head and romped in. In a hard drive Lucille was beaten a long neck by the outsider.

In the betting on the final race, a six furlong selling scramble with nine starters, the bookies intended to keep what they had raked in, and judging by the odds posted, there was little danger of a "dutch." Outside of a couple of starters it was 3 to 1 and take your pick. Tim Murphy, Road Runner, Nebuchadnezzar, Rear Guard and Rico carried the bulk of the money bet. There was considerable delay at the post before Havey finally sent them away well bunched.

The race simmered down to a sprint between Nebuchadnezzar, Roadrunner and Bernardo, Hinrichs on the latter getting the verdict by the narrowest of margins, and Nebuchadnezzar just beating Roadrunner for the place. The winner made a remarkably fine run, getting away absolutely last.
