POLICE PROMOTIONS.

Speculation as to What the Commissioners Will Do at Their Meeting To-Night. The regular meeting of the Police Commissioners was not held last night. It will be held to-night instead, when it is expected that the new captain, five lieutenants and three extra detectives will be appointed. Five new sergeants and six to take the place of the one promoted to the position of captain and the five promoted as lieutenants will also probably be appointed. A detective will be appointed to fill the vancancy caused by the death of Daniel Coffer.

Who the new captain will be is a mystery. The three Commissioners when asked the question about ten days ago declined to commit themselves. The name of Sergeant Gillen, now acting as lieutenant at the Central Police Station, was mentioned, the itemselves street they was represented. but it was also stated there were two others in the field. The Commissioners declined to divulge their names. Speculation has been rife on the subject, but although several names are mentioned no one knows the key to the riddle.

Now that the Board of Supervisors has finally adopted the tax levy, which includes the appropriation for the seventy-five new men, their appointments will be made as speedily as possible. There are hundreds of applicants to select from.
