Santa Rosa Excited Over a New Water Works Scheme.

BONDS HAVE BEEN SOLD.

The Work of Sinking to Be Started in Upon Right Away.

MATERIAL NOW ON THE WAY.

The Plant Decided Upon Is a Pumping System of Late Pattern.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., Oct. 3.—The biggest sensation of the season was caused here this afternoon when the Daily Republican said the water works bonds, voted by the people here two years ago at $165,000, and over which there has been so much litigation, had been sold.

The contract for the construction of the new water works has been let, the works to begin in a few days. Three train loads of piping are on the way. The work of sinking will begin on Saturday.

DOZEN OR MORE WELLS. Further Details of Santa Rosa's New Water Works.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., Oct. 3.—The construction of new municipal water works here will commence at once. Three hundred tons of cast iron water pipe will arrive this week from Alabama. The contract has been awarded to Paul B. Perkins of San Francisco, who will be here Saturday to look after the sinking of wells for the water supply.

The new water system will be constructed according to plan and specifications submitted by C. Monjean, which have been accepted by the City Council. The new system is to be a pumping system. The source of supply will be a dozen or more wells. These will be connected together and from them water will be pumped through mains and also into a large reservoir, which will be used as a reserve in case of a big fire. The reservoir will be located on a hillside sufficient to give ample pressure and obviate the necessity of a steam engine. The work will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

The Mayor and City Council have labored long to get a new water supply, and they have been hindered for nearly two years by litigation on the part of many property-holders, who objected to the schemes on the ground that the new works were unnecessary and the old ones sufficient. Some of the largest taxpayers are still opposed to the undertaking and further suits and injunctions are apprehended. One suit was begun a few days ago by the Santa Rosa Water Works to have the Superior Court restrain the City Council from entering into competition with its own grantee on the strength of a previous contract.

The chief question involved is: Can the city having the right to fix rates, stand by and under a contract entered into in good faith, see a company expend money to reach a particular end, and after the end has been reached, tax the company out of existence to reach the same end? The Santa Rosa water works are owned chiefly by Captain James McDonald of San Francisco and Colonel M. L. McDonald of Santa Rosa. Bonfires are blazing and a number of our citizens are holding a jubilation over the news.

ATTACKED BY INDIANS.

James Conliff Cut With a Hatchet and May Die.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., Oct. 3.—A free-for-all fight occurred between Indians and whites at the winery of Phillip Glass, near Trenton, early this morning. One white man named James Conliff, a former conductor on a Clay-street car in San Francisco, was wounded on the head with a hatchet and is now at the point of death, and four others were seriously injured.

The Indians, numbering about twenty, who were hoppers at the winery, and under a contract entered into in good faith, see a company expend money to reach a particular end, and after the end has been reached, tax the company out of existence to reach the same end?

The white men, who were without arms, were soon too bruised and weak to stand out longer against the score of intoxicated reds and fled, leaving the unconscious Conliff on the roadside.

The Indians, with their guns and hatchets, then stood over Conliff and kept firing away. Two men brought the news here and secured a doctor, who said that he will not live throughout the day.

The county Sheriff has arrested the Indians and also a Japanese named Novagassa, who is accused of dealing the death blow to Conliff. The hatchet is identified as his.

ROBBED NEAR SANTA ROSA.

John Silva Relieved of His Money and Sent Home.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., Oct. 3.—A team and spring wagon arrived in Sebastopol on Thursday morning without a driver. On the floor of the wagon lay John Silva, moaning with pain.

He had been picked up at Socket Canyon, near Guerneville, while on his way to his home in Santa Rosa. It says he had a scuffle with three masked men, and $25 was taken from him.

He was thrown down and run over by the wagon. The robbers then placed him in the vehicle and started the horses onward. A physician was called and found that Silva had sustained two broken ribs and internal injuries.

TUTTLE ABUSED HIS WIFE.

His Stepson Interfered and Killed Him With a Pistol.

GEORGETOWN, CAL., Oct. 3.—J. E. Tuttle was shot by his stepson Clifford Wiley, aged 22 years, at the Eight-mile House above Georgetown, on Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock.

Tuttle had been abusing his wife, and the boy interfered, when Tuttle snatched a shotgun at him. Wiley told him to stop or he would kill him. Tuttle kept on, when Wiley fired his pistol, which he held in his hand while retreating, the bullet passing through the lower part of the right lung.

Tuttle staggered, walked back to the house and fell in the door of his saloon, expiring a few minutes after. A doctor was sent for and he with the constable went up. Wiley was arrested and brought to Georgetown. Coroner Winchell, District Attorney Carpenter and Sheriff Hilbert arrived from Placerville yesterday noon, and the inquest was held at Tuttle's that evening.

MINERS FLOCK TO ALBERNI.

The South African Craze Repeated, Though on a Smaller Scale.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 3.—A gold craze, similar to that which is attracting hordes of capitalists and adventurers to South Africa, though on a somewhat smaller scale, has seized upon the people of Victoria and Western British Columbia. Big finds have been made in the Alberni gold fields, on Vancouver Island, and about eighty miles from this city.

Every day men come and go between the hills and the little town of Alberni on Barclay Sound. Those who go out from the town bear heavy packs of supplies and blankets to serve them while on prospecting tour. They return with heavier packs. The supplies have been consumed and in their place are huge fragments of quartz, broken from the outcropping of some distant ledge and put aside for assay.

LATE NEWS OF SAN JOSE.

Calvin Somers Asks for Compensation for Guardian Services.

He Acted on Behalf of the Heirs to the Well-Known Treadwell Estate.

SAN JOSE, CAL., Oct. 3.—Calvin Somers, by Attorney H. V. Morehouse, today filed a petition in the Superior Court asking that E. W. Clayton, guardian of the estate of James P. Treadwell, a minor, George Y. Bollinger, guardian of the person of James P. Treadwell; Kenneth Melrose, guardian of the estate and person of Ivan Treadwell, and Ivan and James Treadwell, heirs of the late James Treadwell, be cited to appear on October 9, 1895, and show cause why he should not be compensated for services performed while guardian of James P. and Ivan Treadwell.

The petition sets forth that Calvin Somers was appointed guardian of the minors, James P. and Ivan Treadwell, on February 11, 1893, and that on April 27, 1893, he qualified as such guardian and remained and acted as such guardian until August 13, 1894, when he resigned. He alleges that during the time he acted as guardian he never received any compensation, and he believes he is entitled to a reasonable sum.

He sets forth that on the death of Mabel Treadwell, the mother of the heirs, the estate was badly tangled up and that he expended much time and energy in straightening it out; that he defended the heirs' interests in the suits of Reay vs. Treadwell and George Hazelton vs. The Executors of Mabel Treadwell's Estate, and that he saved the heirs large sums of money by disputing the claims of Eugene Snaggey and George A. Knight against the estate.

Judge Lorigan made an order citing the guardians and the heirs, James P. and Ivan Treadwell, to appear in court on October 9 and show cause why Calvin Somers should not be granted a reasonable sum for his services.

MAY SUE THE GRAND JURY

Sacramento Citizens Indignant Over the Charges Against Supervisors.

The Dismissal of All the Cases Encourages Threats Against the Accusers.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., Oct. 3.—The result of yesterday's trial of Supervisor Curtis on charges of misappropriation of county funds brought by the late Grand Jury, in which the petty jury was instructed by Judge Catlin to bring in a verdict in favor of the accused, has raised a perfect storm of indignation against the members of the body preferring said charges, and they are the recipients of adverse criticism on all sides.

On the opening of Judge Catlin's court this morning District Attorney Ryan requested that all the charges against the members of the Board of Supervisors, amounting in all to thirty-two accusations, filed by the Grand Jury, be dismissed, and it was so ordered.

In the meantime the accused Supervisors are considering the advisability of commencing a suit against the members of the Grand Jury for damages on the charge of defamation of character, and should they arrive at a decision to do so it will probably result in a severe legal battle.

SACRAMENTO'S BOY CRIMINAL.

The Young Firebug Said to Be Thoroughly Incorrigible.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., Oct. 3.—Roy Gould, the baby incendiary of Sacramento, has been held to answer before the Superior Court on a charge of arson, with bail fixed at $1000. Since his incarceration in the City Prison he has made two deliberate attempts to fire the building, and has indulged in the grossest language when prevented from accomplishing his purpose.

Although but 6 years old he has clearly demonstrated the fact that he possesses the innate disposition of a demon. When the police sergeant attempted to remove him to another cell where it would be impossible to build a fire, he bit the officer's hands and swore like a pirate. The little tot gives few indications in his personal appearance of his vicious inclinations.

On the contrary, he possesses a pretty babyish face with large soft eyes that appeal to the sympathy of all, but these same soft eyes can flash with the ferocity of a wild beast when their owner becomes incensed, and the tiny rascal of a mouth can utter a choicer selection of profanity than any billingsgate artist.

City attorney Brown, who conducted the prosecution in the preliminary examination this morning, states that this is one of the most remarkable cases in criminal jurisprudence, owing to the tender years of the accused, although there was a case on record where an Illinois court had decided that a child of 5 years of age was capable of committing a crime and the culprit had been convicted.

In this case it became absolutely necessary to confine the lad so that he did not further jeopardize the property of the residents of Sacramento, as his parents seemed to be totally unable to prevent him from committing under the existing law to commit him direct to a reform school, but he thought that the lad could be convicted of arson, sentenced to the State prison and from that point be removed to a reform institution.

ORANGE-GROWERS MEET.

Plans for Marketing the Crop Discussed at Riverside.

RIVERSIDE, CAL., Oct. 3.—A large meeting of orange-growers was held here to-day, at which the exchange plan of marketing the orange crop, as practiced the past two seasons, was strongly indorsed. The meeting heard the reports of T. Morehouse and P. E. Platt, Eastern agents of the Southern California Exchange.

This report was satisfactory, and will do much toward strengthening the subordinate exchanges throughout Southern California. According to the report of Morehouse and Platt, the exchange has established a reputation in the East which will prove of great benefit in disposing of our fruit crops.

The Riverside Fruit Exchange will start out this season with a much greater number of members than last year, as growers begin to realize the value of co-operation in the marketing of their products.

Closing In on Counterfeiters.

SEATTLE, WASH., Oct. 3.—An organized band of counterfeiters, with Whatcom, this State, as their headquarters, is about to be broken up by the Government authorities. Several arrests have already been made. The combination is believed to consist mainly of the members of the family of one Burke. Bogus $5 gold pieces of very clever make have been circulated all over the State and especially in and around Yakima. Deputy United States Marshal Brinker of this city, who has been conducting the prosecution, thinks he has the right party under surveillance.

Good Reports From Alaska.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—Ex-Governor Swineford of Minnesota, special agent of the Interior Department, came in to-day from Alaska, where he has been some months looking after a gold mine property in which a combination of Government officials are interested. Swineford reports the gold mines booming in that country and represents that the officials who used their position to get hold of some property in that country are likely to be in luck by a large majority.

G. Otis upon "Southern California, the Outside and the Inside."
