THE TEMPERANCE UNION.

Reports of the Work That Has Been Done During the # Past Year.

Great Efforts, but Small Results-A Chinaman Convicted of Law-Breaking.

The State convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday morning, the president. Mrs. Peet, in the chair. Under the topic of "Preventives" Mrs. H. Van Kirk, M.D., read a paper on "Hygiene"; Mrs. F. H. Bentley on "Heredity"; Mrs. Mary Palm, M.D., on Non-Alcoholic Medication," and Mrs. Clare O. Southard on "Coffee-house and Free Reading-room.

Under the head of "The Legal Question" Mrs. Martin discussed "Legislation and Petitions': Mrs. Rose M. French, "Law "Franchise." Concerning the social prob-"Franchise." Loss S. M. Severance, "Franchise." Concerning the social problem was a paper on "Drawing-room" by Mrs. Mary Frank Brown and on "Fair Work" by Mrs. Emma G. Snow.

Mesdames Brown, Kimball, Spencer, Van Pelt, Croake, Harnish and French were elected a board of directors for the Union organ, the Pacific Ensign, for the coming year. Mrs. Harnish was reap-pointed manager of the publication. Miss Severance suggested that editors and newspaper people generally be petitioned to open their columns for the discussion of the suffrage amendments, pro and con. She also referred to the liberal aid of the unions while she was six weeks in Sacramento, during the last session of the Leg-islature. She reported that she had $13 still of the fund placed in her hands.

Mrs. French reported that earnest work had been done in enforcing the law, but the results were poor. Mrs. Sanford had prosecuted five cases in Alameda. One of the cases had been tried in a room back of a saloon. Only one conviction had been secured and the case was now in the Su-perior Court. Stockton had refused to issue licenses to saloons having side-entrances and to groceries having bars. The Woodland Union had succeeded in closing eight disreputable houses, and the police records of San Francisco show that there have been fifteen cases of selling liquor to minors, resulting in fourteen dismissals and one conviction. The luckless one was and one conviction. The fuckless one was a Chinaman. Mrs. Snow suggested that greater efforts be made to prevent liquor privileges from being sold at district fairs and that members of the union be put on the conjutured boards.

Mrs. Geising announced to the conven-tion that her father, J. H. Webb, had just been elected grand chief templar at the Grand Lodge now in session at Sacramento.

Resolutions were adopted expressing a determination to make greater efforts toward the adoption of suffrage amend-ments and the spread of the cause of tem-perance, and also thanking the people of San Francisco for courtesy shown the delegates to the convention. delegates to the convention

A collection was taken up in the con-vention, and $42 was raised toward the purchase of a California W. C. T. U. banner. It will be suitably inscribed and sent to the exposition at Atlanta, Ga. Word was received in the convention that Mr. feabula Brooks a delayet from that Mrs. Isabella Brooks, a delegate from Castroville, had been injured while step-ing from a cable-car and was unconscious at the Receiving Hospital. Much regret at the Receiving Hospital. Much regret was expressed. Mrs. Renowden-Bailey rendered a beauti-ful solo entitled "The Prodigal Girl." During the convention Mrs. Bailey has entertained the delegates with her excel-lent music.

FATHER MATHEW'S DAY.

Celebration by Members of the Leagu of the Cross.

Thursday next will be the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, the great apostie of temperance. The day will be celebrated in this City by the League of the Cross. The grand senior rally of that organization will be held at Metropolitan bama st. Hall in the evening. A select programme, suited to the occasion, will be presented, and will include addresses by Most Rev. Archbishop P. W. Riordan and by At-torney John J. Barrett. A large number of prominent citizens have consented to serve as vice-presidents on the occasion. The commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the League of the Cross Cadets will be the ushers. Admission will be by card. A limited number of invitations have been issued, and these may be obtained on application to the Catholic clergy of the various parishes or to the adult members of the League of the Cross.
