The insurgents had a sergeant and five men killed and eleven wounded. The Spaniards had to abandon their position on top of Loma del Gato, leaving a quantity of provisions, which the rebels seized.

NEED ARMS AND AMMUNITION. Cuban Patriots Handicapped in Their Struggle for Freedom.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 9.—There are now 30,000 men in the Cuban insurgent army and volunteers would easily swell their forces to 50,000 if more arms and ammunition could be secured. The lack of it may prolong the war, but victory in the end is believed to be certain.

This was the burden of a letter received from General Joseph Rodriguez by General Estrada Palma at the Cuban headquarters, 66 Broadway, yesterday. General Rodriguez is chief of staff of General Roloff, the commander-in-chief.

The letter was dated at Las Villas and related in detail the efforts of General Rodriguez in organizing the forces in that part of Cuba. Fully 10,000 men, cavalry and infantry, were drilled under General Rodriguez. He caused these forces to be placed in two divisions, the first of which was placed in command of General Serafin Sanchez, and the second under General Manuel Suarez. Each division includes two brigades, and in each brigade are three regiments. These forces, General Rodriguez writes, are now occupying the territory of Santa Clara, Santa Spirit, Remedios, Sagua and Cienfuegos. Every day, it is declared, companies of young men from 100 to 150 in number, filled with enthusiasm for the cause, volunteer to join the insurgent army.

FAVORS CUBA'S CAUSE. Senator Pascoe Will Work for Its Recognition in Congress.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 9.—The Council of the city of Jacksonville, at its last meeting, unanimously adopted a resolution urging upon Florida's representatives in Congress national recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerents. Recorder West yesterday received a letter from Senator Pascoe under date of October 7, in which he says:

"I will take an early opportunity to present it in the Senate at the first convenient time after the opening of Congress in December. I am entirely in sympathy with our Cuban neighbors, and will make use of every proper effort that I can as a Senator to assist them in their struggle for independence and in the establishment of a republican form of government."

COST OF THE WAR. Spain Compelled to Borrow Fifteen Million Dollars.

MADRID, Spain, Oct. 9.—The Cabinet has signed a loan of $15,000,000 with the Banque de Paris et Du Pay Bas, wholly for Cuban expenses. One-third of the loan is payable between November 1 and 10, and the remaining installments will be paid in December and February.

An official dispatch from Havana states that a small band of rebels is reported at Guira. This is the first appearance of insurgents in the province of Havana.

MOBS IN MADAGASCAR. Raids Made Upon the British Consulate and French Consulate.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 9.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Antanarivo says that on September 25 a native mob raided the British cemetery at the Hova capital, broke open coffins and mutilated bodies. The mob also attacked the French observatory, destroyed it, and menaced with destruction the house of the French Resident.

The two armies are now in sight of the capital, and the firing of skirmishes can be plainly heard. Native soldiers are flocking into town, and reinforcements are rapidly being sent to the front. Prominent Hovas have left the city upon a diplomatic mission. The supposition is that their object is to treat with French representatives, with a view to arranging for a cessation of hostilities.

BRIDLING THE SOCIALISTS. Demonstrations at Breslau Presented by the Authorities.

BRESLAU, Prussia, Oct. 9.—The arrest and expulsion from Germany of Dr. Ellenbogen, Austrian delegate to the socialist congress, yesterday, is attributed to a speech made by him in laudation of socialism, together with his entering Germany without proper papers.

The report of the delegates to congress of Frat Zelkin, editor of the Stuttgarter Gleichheit, was erroneous. She delivered a speech in the congress upon the subject of the emancipation of women.

REVOLUTION IN VENEZUELA. Reports of an Uprising in the Interior of the Country.

PANAMA, Colombia, Oct. 9.—The Star-Herald says: Trustworthy information has been received here of a revolution that has broken out in the interior of Venezuela.

Bayard Is Silent. To Inoculate Archduke Franz.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 9.—The representative of the United Press called to-day upon Ambassador Bayard, who is the guest of the Marquis of Bath at Longleat, Westminster, Wiltshire, in reference to the attack made upon him by Lord Sackville. Mr. Bayard said that the matter was entirely out of his hands and was contained in the official diplomatic correspondence exchanged between Great Britain and the United States in 1888. Mr. Bayard added that he would say nothing, the foregoing being all that was necessary.

Two Laborers Killed. To Become Cardinals.

PARIS, France, Oct. 9.—The Figaro publishes a dispatch from Rome asserting that Archbishop Satali, the Papal delegate to the United States, together with Mgr. Agliardi, Nuncio at Vienna, and Mgr. Ferrata, Nuncio at Paris, will be elevated to the Cardinalate at the next consistory.

The Carwreck Alarmingly Ill. BERLIN, GERMANY, Oct. 9.—Professor Leyden, the eminent medical specialist, has received a telegram stating that the carwreck of Russia is alarmingly ill.

ENDED IN A TANGLE.

Hours of Oratory in the Episcopal House of Deputies.

"PRIMATE" THE THEME.

Report of the Bishops Borne Down by a Mass of Amendments.

OPPOSED TO LIFE-TENURE.

Delegates Adopt a Clause Giving Power to Remove the Head of the Church.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 9.—When the Episcopal deputies adjourned to-night after listening to more oratory than has illuminated any previous day of the general convention nine-tenths or more of the number were groping in the dark and wondering just "where they were at." For hour after hour the debate had been progressing on the report from the Bishops designating by the title of "primat" the one who some day in the dim and distant future might by virtue of seniority be the head of the church, but amendment after amendment had been piled upon each other, and then dovetailed into each other, and then the whole mass kneaded into a big ball upon which was planted a substitute that covered anything and everything that had gone before, until the parliamentarians themselves were bewildered and confusion became confounded. To-morrow morning a vigorous effort will be made to agree with the report of the Bishops and clear the matter from the calendar.

The only other important development of the day was the reaffirmation by the house of the title "Bishop Coadjutor" as a substitute for "Assistant Bishop," and the receipt of a message from the House of Bishops approving the section of article four of the revision providing for the creation of five "provinces" in this country, "Archbishop," and the provision of the revision. "The Bishops of each province shall arrange one of their number to be primate of the province." The message will come up for consideration later.

It is said to-night that the Bishops have gone through seven articles of the constitution while the house is still on the third section of the first.

The early proceedings of the day were brightened by a breezy contest for the location of the next convention. Dr. W. A. Roberts spoke for Louisville, Dr. Lawrence and Edward L. Davis made a plea for Boston, Dr. E. B. Spalding eloquently pictured the advantages of San Francisco, and Rev. John Percival presented New Orleans, the metropolitan city of the South.

This latter nomination was promptly voted down and the prize was apparently going to Boston, when Rev. A. W. Knight of Atlanta electrified his hearers with a brilliant presentation of that city, enlarging upon incidents in its history during the past thirty years, and insisted that the influence of the church was needed in Atlanta more than in any other city that had been named. When a vote was taken it was apparent from the start that Mr. Knight had snatched victory from the apparently successful Boston at the eleventh hour, and when a division was called for so few of the delegates arose in opposition that the majority was not counted.

Without debate, the house reaffirmed its approval of the message from the Bishops providing for Bishop Coadjutors. The clerical vote was 36 ayes, 11 noes, 6 divided; lay vote, 29 ayes, 19 noes, 4 divided.

Then the much debated "Primat" loomed up again. Most of the speakers had been heard on previous days and few new faces were seen or voices heard on the rostrum.

Dr. Huntington of New York, who wanted to make the office a matter of seniority, said, amid laughter, that they did not want the Primat to be too active, for they were not desirous of being too much governed.

Rev. Dr. McKim made the point that one of the younger Bishops might be the senior in point of consecration. As the debate proceeded after the recess considerable feeling was manifested by some of the speakers. Dr. Jewell of Milwaukee, in favor of Primat in the election by the church. Dr. Morrison of Albany argued that the office of Primat, or Presiding Bishop, was not created for the purpose of conferring honor upon any particular individual. The American manner of settling a question of this kind was by election, and he did not see why it should not pertain in the House of Bishops as well as in this house. Rev. Patrick G. Robert of Missouri also favored the elective system. Dr. Blanchard of Pennsylvania raised his voice in warning against the evils which might attend the elective system if introduced into the House of Bishops.

Dr. Carmichael of Virginia resented a previous speaker's imputation that the House of Bishops would be glad to have the House of Deputies directed in favor of the elective system. Dr. Jewell defended himself against the implied accusation that he had cast a slur upon the House of Bishops in assuming that they would be pleased if the House of Deputies should favor the elective plan.

A vote was taken upon the substitute of Dr. Webber of Fond du Lac, in which he moved the adoption of the section as presented in the report of the joint committee with the word "Primat" substituted for "Primate." This was lost by a large majority.

The question then fell upon Dr. Huntington's amendment to Mr. Parker's amendment to article 3, as presented in the message from the House of Bishops. This section, as adopted by the House of Bishops, provides that the senior Bishop shall be presiding officer, to be known as Primat, and hold office for life. Mr. Parker's amendment provides for the election by a majority of those entitled to vote in the House of Bishops of a successor to the Primat should he resign or be removed, and Dr. Huntington's amendment provides that the successor in such a contingency shall be the next Bishop in order of seniority.

Rev. Dr. Rhodes of Southern Ohio moved the adoption of a substitute, which provides that the removal of a Primat from office should be by a vote of a majority of those entitled to vote in the House of Bishops.

Mr. Nash of North Carolina moved to strike out the words "For canonical causes," in Dr. Huntington's amendment, on the ground that there could be no canonical causes for the removal of a Primat. The words were stricken out.

Dr. Murdock of North Carolina moved to reconsider the vote of the previous day whereby the title of Presiding Bishop was rejected, but the motion was lost by a vote of 149 to 157.

IN TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE. Congregationalists Open Their Convention at Syracuse.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 9.—For the first time in the history of the Congregational Church the triennial council met in the Empire State to-day. The council will be in session until next Monday evening. The address of welcome, delivered by Rev. E. N. Packard, D. D., of Syracuse, was followed by remarks by Rev. Dr. Quint, the retiring moderator.

Governor Nelson Dingley of Maine was unanimously elected moderator. Rev. Charles O. Brown of San Francisco and Professor George W. Henderson of Strait University, Louisiana, were chosen assistant moderators.

At the afternoon session the report of the provisional committee was presented. It was suggested that a special committee be appointed at this session, charged with the duty of correspondence with all other bodies likely to be represented in the second international council of Congregationalism in Boston in 1900, and with any preliminary arrangements which may be found expedient.

It referred to the death of two members of the committee—Rev. M. W. Montgomery of Chicago, died February 6, 1894, and Hamilton A. Hill of Boston, April 26, 1895. Mr. Hill was a fine specimen of an intelligent and broad-minded layman. The history and traditions of the Old South Church in Boston were represented in him more appreciatively than in any other man, and the two fine volumes in which he had embodied them will live as his memorial.

This report was followed by that of Secretary Rev. H. A. Hazen of Boston. The report of the treasurer, Rev. Samuel B. Forbes of Hartford, Conn., for the three years ending July 31, 1895, was read. The auditor, the trustees of the National council followed with reports. Rev. James Brand of Oberlin, Ohio, read a paper on "Doctrinal Preaching." Rev. F. W. Gunnhaus of Chicago spoke to-night in Plymouth Church.

TO CONTROL STAGE STARS. Formation of a Theatrical Syndicate by Prominent Managers.

Its Primary Purpose Is to Secure a Series of First-Class Productions.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 9.—Henry C. Miner, J. H. McVicker and Joseph Brooks to-day completed the plans for a syndicate of theatrical managers that will have an important bearing on the future of the stage. After the meeting to-day the three men interested said that the plan in the first place, was to supply their own and other theaters with theatrical entertainments that would be of high class.

They have hired an agent in charge to watch for the best productions there and to secure options on anything that is a novelty and of excellence. They also contracted with the manager of London to write a melodrama play; with Wilson Morse and J. Chever Goodwin to write a musical comedy, and with Biere de Courcelles for a historical play. They will secure two companies, made up of the best people they can hire, and one of these will open next June in a musical comedy at McVicker's Theater, Chicago, the other opening in Miner's Fifth-avenue Theater, New York, in the fall in Sims' new melodrama. The syndicate will adopt trademarks for all its companies and plays, and its purpose is to establish in the minds of the people and managers a confidence that anything they see on must of necessity be first class. By having the right of production they will avoid a lot of expense.

In addition to this they are to go into the general business of managing stars and their companies, and stars will not out companies. Offices have been secured in New York and others will be secured in Chicago, while others will be secured in the leading cities of the Old World.

FUD OF NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS. Rival Factions to Fight Their Battles in Court.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 9.—The fight between the two factions of the Democratic party in Nebraska bids fair to end in the courts before election. The papers were filed and the hearing set for October 16.

CHEER THE OLD BELL.

Atlanta's Reception to the Revolutionary Relic.

A DAY OF REJOICING.

Thirty Thousand People Take Part in the Imposing Ceremony.

OVERFLOW WITH PATRIOTISM.

Wild Enthusiasm When Sympathy for Struggling Cubans is Declared.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 9.—With the most impressive ceremonies that have yet marked the progress of the Cotton States exposition, the historic old Liberty Bell was today formally placed in charge of the Atlanta authorities. The ceremonies took place on the broad stairs leading up to the stately Pennsylvania building, the handsomest in the beautiful park and on the most attractive site.

The day was full of incidents, some of them of striking character, but the most significant was the declaration of sympathy with the cause of Cuba, made with dramatic effect by both Governor Atkinson of Georgia and Mayor Warwick of Philadelphia, both of whom aroused wild enthusiasm from the great crowd that heard them.

TWO NEW CUP DEFENDERS. American Yachtsmen Will Not Depend Upon the Defender Next Year.

Hereshoff to Construct an Ocean Flyer to Meet the English Challenge.

BRISTOL, R. I., Oct. 9.—The season of 1896 will be the greatest ever known in the history of yachting. Already notices of the building of five boats have come from Canada and Great Britain, and there will be positively one and in all probability two built in this country.

The story a week ago that Hereshoff was to build a boat for a rich syndicate with H. S. Munyon of Philadelphia at its head, has been a source of speculation among all yachtsmen in the East. There is absolutely nothing being given out from official sources as yet, but the rumor itself is true.

To-day, however, a new sensation was sprung as it was announced authoritatively that a new cup defender was to be built by the cup committee. Additional truth is given to the statement by the knowledge that during the past week members of the committee have been visiting the Hereshoff yard and have had several consultations with the veteran designer.

What the nature of these consultations was not given out, but it is the general opinion that it was concerning the building of a new yacht. Nat Hereshoff, when seen to-day, stated that in all probability a new cup defender would be built during the coming year.

"I look for the greatest year ever known in the history of America cup races, and it won't be long before I will go to depend on the Defender, although I do not doubt her ability to meet the best of the numerous challengers which are being built. In these days, when each year sees such rapid advances in yachting, it would, to say the least, be very strange if I, who have had several consultations with the veteran designer, were not to be a part of it."

This announcement is authoritative, and sets aside all rumors to the effect that the Defender would enter the field alone next year.

JUMPED FROM THE TRACK. One Man Killed and Twenty-Five Injured in the Railroad Disaster at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 9.—One man was killed and twenty-five persons were injured at Manor station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, 22 1/2 miles east of here, at 7:30 to-night by a car on the westbound mail train 13 jumping the track.

John Miller, a freight conductor of Derry, Pa., lost his life.

What caused the accident cannot yet be ascertained. From some unknown cause the next to the rear coach left the track while the train was running at a good speed. The rear coach jumped the track in an opposite way from that in which the train was going. This coach and the one following were wrecked and it was the passengers in these two coaches that were injured.

Miller, who was killed, was a conductor of a freight train standing on another track. He was killed by one of the wrecked passenger coaches crushing him as he stood alongside his train.

Neither Miss Flagler nor her friends appeared before the Grand Jury. There is strong impression among the habitués of the Courthouse that an indictment will not follow.

Poison Follows Poisoning. DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 9.—The State Board of Health has received an appeal from Sabula, where a large part of the population is suffering from the wholesale poisoning which occurred at a wedding three weeks ago. Over 100 are now confined by the epidemic, which is believed to be trichinosis, but the symptoms reported to the State board, which has sent a representative to Sabula, are those of cholera. The doctors are exhausted and the town is in a condition of panic.
